Klamath Falls – Hard-hitting Klamath Falls assumed the top position in the Southern Oregon conference baseball standings Friday by hammering Crater high 16 to 1 here.

The Pelicans, chief threat to unseat defending champion Medford, made a sweep in the snow and and cold by whitewashing Central Point 13 to 0 in the non-league second fracas.

With Don Willey, Ray Taylor, Dave Saks and Don Gresdel each clobbering the ball for three safe blows, the Pels pounded out 16 hits in the counting game. Big inning for Klamath was the third when six runners trotted across the platter. Dean Dunson and Gresdel doubled in the frame, Saks, Willey and Sherm Allen singled and there were an error and a wild pitch.

Loyal Higinbotham tripled and Pat Pepper singled for the only Crater run in the fifth inning.

Strikes Out 11

Blake Griggs, chucking for Klamath, held the Comets to five hits and struck out 11 batters. He issued no bases on balls. Record for three Crater tossers showed four walks and three strikeouts.

Gresdel had two doubles in the main contest.

John Webb, on the hill for the Pels in the second hassle, gave up just three hits in five innings. He fanned four batters and did not walk a man.

Six errors helped the KF team to eight runs in the opening inning. Dunson tripled and Henry Herrera doubled. There were two bases on balls.

Crater Coach Bill Piche remarked that the Comets only consolation was in returnning home with no bats broken. They reportedly splintered nine in a jaunt to Klamath Falls last year.

Klamath will meet Medford at Klamath Falls next Saturday while Crater plays Ashland at Central Point on Friday and goes to Grants Pass on Saturday.

Chico State Trims Raider Tracksters

Ashland – Chico State college captured nine first places and tied for another in downing Southern Oregon college 74½-56½ on the Raider track yesterday afternoon.

Johnny Jones in the broad jump, Stu Baker in the 220 yard dash, John Sorenson in the two-mile, John Harvey in pole vault, and the Raider relay team of Baker, Ora Bannister, Don Story, and Chuck Swingle brought the Raiders home in front in five events.

Baker got part of another first when he sprinted to a tie in the 100-yard dash with Chico's Tom Guild in a wind swept time of :10.4.

Harvey vaulted 12 feet and Jones broad jumped 20 feet 4 inches.

Sweep Mile

Chico swept the mile with Wayne Tarr winning in five minutes while Travis Hatcher led the Chico sweep in the low hurdles.

Baker in winning the 220 led the only sweep accounted for by Raider thinclads.

Perhaps the outstanding performance of the day was when Rich Millis won the javelin for Chico with a toss of 219 feet 9½ inches.

Gary Sampson and Terry Boatman both ran unattached with Sampson winning the mile and Boatman of Grants Pass taking the two-mile. Times were not kept however as all watches were on the counting collegiate runners.

National high school javelin champion Glen Winningham posted a mark of 210 feet on one throw but spiked himself the next attempt and withdrew from competition.

Records Tumble

Four stadium, three meet and one SOC record was set during the afternoon. Freshman Don Korth established a new college mark in the javelin with a throw of 196 feet 10 inches, one-inch better than the throwing of Eldon Francis in 1958.

Millis gained the meet and stadium record with his winning javelin throw of 219-9½.

Harvey's win in the pole vault wiped out a meet record of 11-6 inches held jointly by six vaulters.

Bud Sheley set a new stadium record for Chico in the 440 with a clocking of :51.8.

Hatcher set a meet and stadium record in the high hurdles with :15.

Wolves Grab Series From SOC Raiders

Ashland—Southern Oregon started its 1960 Oregon Collegiate conference baseball slate on a triumph note on Friday but Oregon college spoiled everything Saturday by bouncing the defending champions twice and taking the series two games to one.

The Red Raiders of the Rogue were Friday victors 8 to 4. Oregon college margins were 6 to 3 and 5 to 3 on Saturday.

A five-run sixth inning was the difference for the SOC crew in the conference starter. Chuck Nevi's double, singles by Eldon Francis, Bob Jones and Jim Dietz, a sacrifice fly by Jack Brown and two bases on balls got the runs.

Jess Munyon and Dietz hit three for five for SOC in the tangle and Nevi two-bagged twice in five trips. Dietz knocked in three runs and Nevi two. Ross Lemen, thorn in Raider flesh in all three games, hit three for three in the opener. SO pitchers combined for a seven hit game with John Younger fanning four, walking five and yielding five hits in getting the win. John Cook whiffed two and walked two.

The early game on Saturday saw OCE take its turn with a five-run canto. This was the fifth panel. Lemen homered after a walk to Jack Antonson. The blow was the first hit out of the Raider park. Terry Smith, Dick Rex and winning pitcher Jack Detzel singled. A walk, and a passed ball helped the run production. Lemen had three for four hitting success with two runs blasted home and Francis socked a pair of two-basers for the Raiders.

Detzel walked two and whiffed five. For SOC Don Vannice struck out seven batters, walked one and gave four hits. Kay Kelley in relief fanned three, issued no free passes and allowed five hits.

Eight errors hurt SOC.

Three runs was the most mustered in a third game single inning. OCE did it in the third on a two-bagger by Ray Derrah, single by Marv Parnell, an intentional walk, two errors and sacrifice by Ted Bennett.

The Raiders tallied twice in the third on a double by Munyon, a single by Dietz, a sacrifice fly by Sword, an error and fielder's option.

Jim Corkill of the Wolves, Dietz and Sword each had two hits. OCE pitcher Bennett whiffed batters seven times and issued no bases on ball. SOC's Marty Volger fanned six and walked one.

Arcaro Not Riding Now

United Press International

Eddie Arcaro, an equestrian of some note, will be a pedestrian for 10 racing days at Aqueduct.

The nation's most popular jockey started serving a 10-day suspension Saturday for a careless ride at the Long Island oval Wednesday.

However, before turning in his whip for his golf clubs, Arcaro became the third jockey in history to reach the 4,500-winner pleateau Friday at Aqueduct. Eddie booted home three winners on the nine-race card, giving him a total of 4,501 victories in 29 years in the staddle.

Johnny Longden, still going strong in California, ranks as the all-time riding campion with 5,404 winners and the retired Sir Gordan Richards of England is second with 4,870.

Tabulations Show Record Deer Take in Oregon During 1959

Portland — A record breaking deer kill and an elk take that rivalled the record year of 1949 points up the 1959 big game season as one of the best ever enjoyed by Oregon hunters, the Oregon game commission reported.

Final tabulations based on the return of questionnaires sent to 20,000 randomly selected hunters show an all time high deer kill of 146,000 animals and a near record elk kill of just under 9,000 animals. A total of 295,475 nimrods was licensed to hunt in Oregon last year.

Reports from hunters show the record deer take was just over 146,000 deer, of which 144,000 were taken during the general season. This tops the previous deer kill record of 134,000 animals made by 230,500 hunters in 1955.

58 Per Cent Success

A total of 248,701 hunters participated in the 1959 deer hunts and enjoyed a success of around 58 per cent. These hunters took the highest number of buck deer during the general season ever recorded with a reported take of just over 101,000 bucks. During the 1958 season, 233,885 hunters took around 116,200 deer of which 81,600 were bucks.

Reports from elk hunters also indicate a good season with a reported take of 8,975 elk which came close to the record kill of 9,124 animals taken in 1949. Of the elk taken, 7,227 were bulls and 1,748 were antlerless animals.

Of the 44,217 elk hunters participating in the elk seasons last year, about one out of every five was successful in bagging an animal, which is a little above par for the course. During 1958 more than 42,400 elk hunters participated and reported bagging 6,960 elk of which 5,400 were bulls, for a success of around 17 per cent.

Klamath, Lake, and Grant counties produced the most deer with more than 11,300 animals reported taken from Klamath and Lake and 11,200 from Grant.

Baker county ran fourth with more than 8,300 deer taken, followed by Harney and Douglas with more than 7,000 animals reported, Lane with close to 7,000, and Malheur, Deschutes, and Wallowa counties with over 6,000 each.
