Voters' League Announces Annual Meeting Saturday

The annual meeting of the Medford League of Women Voters has been set for Saturday, April 23, at 12:30 o'clock in the Red Cross building.

Dr. Kenneth H. Baker, research statistician and a vice-president of KBES-TV, will be the guest speaker.

The luncheon meeting will include the League's annual business session, when members will adopt the coming year's budget, vote on by-law changes, elect officers and directors, and select a local program for 1960-61.

Mrs. Dunbar Carpenter, president, announced that elections are usually for two-year terms, but that resignations have created some unexpired terms which are to be filled at the annual meeting.

Mrs. Hugh Collins, chairman of the nominating committee, has submitted the following candidates for the membership for consideration: First vice-president, (to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Roland James) Mrs. Ogden Kellogg; second vice-president, Mrs. Kenneth H. Baker; treasurer, Mrs. Charles Walker; secretary, (to fill the unexpired term of Mrs. Richard Hogan) Mrs. Donald Bradshaw; directors, Mrs. John L. Ranpke, Mrs. F. T. Burich, Mrs. Thomas Rutter, Mrs. Edward Meeker (to fill unexpired term of Mrs. Robert Boyer); chairman of the nominating committee, Mrs. John Ousterhout; members of nominating committee, Mrs. Hugh Collins, Mrs. Fred Carr.

The proposed local program includes "evaluation of the government of Jackson county in relation to county home rule," and "support of those policies which promote orderly growth and development of the county with emphasis on planning." A lively discussion is anticipated.

Reservations may be made with the social chairman, Mrs. Richard Schwahn, SPring 2-8225.
