Colorado Woman Visits Here; Has 60 Great-Grandchildren

Mrs. Mabel Littlefield recently arrived in Jackson county to see her 60th great-grandchild. He is Calvin Brett Littlefield, born March 9 at Etna, Calif., to Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Carroll Littlefield. Mrs. Littlefield, although she maintains a home at Paonia, Colo., spends most of her time visiting members of her family scattered in five different western states. She is at present a guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Littlefield, near Central Point, where they have lived since 1952.

Jesse Carroll Littlefield, father of the latest great-grandchild, was graduated from Crater High school and Oregon Technical Institute. He and his wife, the former Shirley Holt of Palo Alto, Calif., were married in August, 1958, shortly after he had completed his army training at Ft. Ord, Calif. Calvin Brett is their first child. The young couple and their infant son are living near Central Point and he is employed by Petram and Purdy, contractors.

Mrs. Littlefield's mother, Mrs. J. W. Holt, left for her home in Palo Alto last week after a stay here with the family.

Other grandchildren and great grandchildren of the Colorado woman known in this area are Mr. and Mrs. Pat O'Brien, and children, Ralene and Jackie, Central Point; Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Jones and son, Duane, formerly of Central Point and now of Etna, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Littlefield and children, Peter, Sally, Debra, Lotie and Karen, now living in Uravan, Colo.

The elder Mrs. Littlefield, born in 1882, is the mother of 11 children, the first of whom was born in 1899 when she was 17 years old. There are two sets of twins. Five sons and their wives, five daughters and their husbands, 33 grandchildren, of whom 28 are married, and 60 great-grandchildren live in Oregon, California, Idaho, Montana and Colorado.

FREEZING POINT
Boston-Sea water will usually freeze at a temperature of 28 degrees Fahrenheit.

Extension Units Plan Meetings

Three home extension units will meet this week with members hearing lessons on the care and handling of synthetic fabrics and fibers.

Sams Valley
The Sams Valley unit will meet Tuesday, April 19, at 10:30 a.m. with Mrs. Arnold Gossnell on Sams Valley road. Mrs. Lester James and Mrs. Edgar Pleasant will give the lessons. Those attending are to take a container of soap or detergent of the brand they use for washing dishes and clothes.

All women in the community are invited to attend. A potluck luncheon will feature a favorite Easter or Jewish dish. Those attending are to take their own table service.

Willow Springs
The April meeting of the Willow Springs unit has been changed and will meet Tuesday, April 19, at 10:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Archie Purdy, 3521 Oak Pine Way, Central Point.

During the morning session final plans will be made for the May festival which will be held in Central Point May 11. Election of officers will also be held.

Mrs. Fred M. Brown and Mrs. E. Pershall will give the lesson in the afternoon. A potluck luncheon will be served at noon.

Lone Pine
Lone Pine group will meet Thursday, April 21, at 10:30 a.m. at the Roxy Ann Grange hall.

A cancer film, "Man Alive," will be shown at 2:30 p.m. by Mrs. Jack James. A doctor will be present to hold a question and answer session it was reported.

Members are to take plants for the spring plant auction to be held that day. May festival plans will be reported by the committee members and election of unit officers held. Mrs. Herman Budd Mitchell and Mrs. E. L. Barnes will give the project lesson. Noon luncheon hostesses will be Mrs. W. E. Accord, Mrs. L. Arnold, Mrs. F. C. Blankenship and Mrs. C. M. Keene.

Bethel to Hold Dinner Meeting

Bethel 14, International Order of Job's Daughters, will meet Wednesday, April 20, in the Masonic temple for a 6 p.m. dinner at which secret Masonic dad's and daughters will reveal their identities. All girls have issued invitations to their secret dads. The meetings, to which secret dads are invited, will convene at 7:30 p.m. and girls who have been preparing for the proficiency test will receive their certificates.

Garden Club Names Show Winners

Rogue River-Over 250 persons attended the thirteenth annual flower show given recently by Rogue River Garden club. They came from Wolf Creek, Grants Pass, Gold Hill, Central Point, Phoenix, Medford and Ashland to make entries and view the show. A number of state and national Garden club officers were present.

Sweepstakes winners were Linda Larson, 8-year-old, for the best arrangement in the junior division; Alicia Guzman, also 8, "as you like it" in the junior division; Mrs. M. C. Avergaard, Wolf Creek, best arrangement; Mrs. Harold Dunham, Rogue River, best primrose and best tulip.

Washington PTA Books Film On Rescue Breathing

A film on rescue breathing will be shown at a meeting of Washington Parent-Teacher association Thursday, April 21, at 2:30 p.m. The film reportedly is so easily understood that even a child could save a life after watching the instructions it portrays.

A teacher-parent consultation period is planned from 2 to 2:30 o'clock preceding the meeting. The school will have a preschool "roundup" Thursday, May 12, for children who will enter first grade at Washington next September. Health day will be observed May 6 at 1:30 p.m. and parents are invited to attend to watch their children participate in the program.

The annual art exhibit of the school is set for May 4, 5 and 6 at Medford High school. Refreshments for the April meeting will be served by mothers of children in the second grade. Mrs. Don Hickey will read the PTA prayer and Cub Scout Den 15 will present the flag. Mrs. John Aeschliman is den mother. The pack charter will be presented to the PTA, the sponsoring organization of the Scouts.

Shady Cove Women At Primrose Show

Shady Cove—Mrs. Peter Vachon, Mrs. O. L. Williams, and Mrs. Floyd Kelley, all Shady Cove, recently traveled to Jerome Prairie where they attended the Josephine county judged primrose show. Following the show they traveled to Wilderville where they toured the Jack Frost Orchid gardens and his food factory.

and Mrs. Rose Moore, Gold Hill, best house plant. Many blue, red and white ribbons also were awarded. Among special displays was one of named daffodils prepared by Frank Hall. Many nurseries from Rogue River and Grants Pass contributed to the show with prizes and displays of plants and shrubs.
