

Loes Beats Cubs 4-3 To Keep SF In Tie With LA For League Lead

Pirates Edge Reds Twice; Dodgers, Milwaukee Win

By MILTON RICHMAN
The San Francisco Giants, proud owners of two quick dividends from unpredictable Billy Loes, now know there is absolutely nothing wrong with his arm — or his bat, for that matter, either.

Some skeptics felt Loes had lost his stuff when the Baltimore Orioles traded him and Billy O'Dell to the Giants last December for Jackie Brandt. They thought the 30-year-old Loes was merely a "throw-in" to keep the Giants happy.

He kept them happy, all right, Sunday and kept them in a first-place tie with the Dodgers but by pitching hitless ball in relief, producing a key hit and scoring the winning run in a 14-inning, 4-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

Loes, credited with his first National League victory since 1955 when he was with the Dodgers, took over for Jack Sanford in the 12th and struck out four men in the last three innings.

Perfect At Bat
Loes, who didn't collect a single hit with the Orioles last season, did a perfect job at bat also. He led off the 14th with a line single to right off loser Ben Johnson, advanced to second on a sacrifice and scored the home run on Jim Caveduto's single. Orlando Cepeda tied the score at 3-3 with a two-run homer off starter Bob Anderson in the sixth.

The victory was the Giants' fourth in five games and the Dodgers kept pace with a 7-5 decision over the Cardinals, who dropped their 11th straight. The Braves beat the Phillies, 8-4, and the Pirates swept a doubleheader from the Reds, 5-0 and 6-5.

Home runs by Gil Hodges, Duke Snider and Wally Moon helped Los Angeles to its victory over the slumping Cardinals. Larry Sherry, the Dodgers' relief ace of 1959, started for the second time in a week and received credit for the triumph although lifted after six innings. Stan Musial and Alex Grammas homered for St. Louis. Ernie Broglio was the loser.

Eddie Mathews led a Milwaukee assault on Robin Roberts of the Phils with a homer, triple and a double. Ray Boone highlighted a four-run rally in the sixth when he drove in three runs with a double. Bob Buhl limited Philadelphia to six hits, including two homers by Harry Anderson and one by Bobby Del Greco.

Pirates Win Two
Pittsburgh won its nightcap against Cincinnati the hard way, coming up with six runs in the ninth inning after trailing 5-0. Hal Smith socked a pinch three-run homer during the uprising and Bob Skinner hit a two-run homer. Bill Henry and loser Ted Wiand bore the brunt of the attack after Don Newcombe and

Raul Sanchez blanked the Pirates over the first eight frames.

Bob Friend held Cincinnati to four hits in the opener and Bob Clemente's two-run homer in the first inning was all the margin he needed. Southpaw Joe Nuxhall was the loser.

The Vancouver Mounties finally have their first Pacific Coast League victory after three straight setbacks, thanks to the booming bat of Howie Goss.

Goss hammered out three two-run homers and a double Sunday as the Mounties knocked Sacramento out of the PCL lead with a 10-1 pasting. Goss' efforts at the plate boosted his home run total for the young season to five. His six RBIs Sunday gave him 12 for the season.

In other action, Seattle and San Diego split a double header, the Rainiers winning the first game, 4-2, and the Padres taking the nightcap, 2-1. The game between Portland and Tacoma was postponed because of wet grounds at the Giants ballpark.

An inside-the-park home run in the eighth-inning by Willy Davis sparked a three-run outburst for Spokane which gave the Indians their first game victory Sunday. Ron Fairly followed Davis' clout with a double and Charlie Smith tripled. Tom Roig then drove in the winning run with a single.

Bob Gialombardo and Chuck Churn teamed up for a three-hit pitching job for Spokane in the second game. Gialombardo, the winner, went five and one-third innings and

Scientists Told To Support U.S. Policy Abroad

Cleveland, (Science Service) — Scientists representing the U.S. abroad have a duty to support government policy, Dr. Wallace R. Brode, science adviser to the Secretary of State, told chemists attending the American Chemical Society meeting here.

After accepting the Priestly Medal, the ACS's highest award, Dr. Brode said: "Any individual listed as officially representing the United States, whether he is a scientist or not, has a responsibility to support his government's policies on all issues which may arise at the forum where he has official status."

Hold Personal Issues
"If on peripheral issues, the scientist has personal views in conflict with his government's policy, it should be incumbent upon him, so long as he accepts official responsibility, to present his government's position on these peripheral matters and to refrain from any action which would negate that position."
