SMART CONTRAST – Nautical is so nice and is new for spring too! The ascot-trimmed blouse, pocket outlines and sleeve facings, all in white, are a smart contrast for this navy, cardigan suit. Miniature buttons are in brass. Suit by Davidow, Inc. Hat by Hattie Carnegie.

Accessories Give Proper Finishing

Be the first to smartly accessorize your spring ensemble in a big way!

Yes, accessories that give a proper finishing touch now come in "giant" sizes.

You'll see a "garden" of flowers grouped into just one corsage . . . "plant" this at the opening of your neatest suit . . . or choose a glittery "mass" of pin to sparkle at your shoulder or at your waistline . . . select a jumbo sized domed earring to sparkle at your ears. (These are being called "ear muffs" in the trade.)

Choose the longest, slinkiest gloves to travel your arm to the shortest, most open-sleeved fashion in your wardrobe.

Pick a tall-crowned cloche or high-riding beret to "high hat" your most relaxed looking costume.

It's a battle of the bulge in casual handbag shapes–so play it smart and choose the biggest, roundest bulging bag you can find (like straw with leather) and carry it off in grand style to go with shirtwaists, simple suits and all your fun-time sportswear.

COSTUME JEWELRY – For after-five fashions, nothing is so complementary as a lovely costume jewelry set such as the one shown here–in a combination of light sapphire aurora stones and rhinestones. By Coro.

Sleepwear Looks Like Dresses

It's going to be difficult this spring to tell sleepwear from sportswear or dresses.

Waltz length gowns, for example, are designed with the same look as bare-top warm-weather dresses. The fabric is just about your only clue to a difference.

The "Baby Doll" gown, though looking new for spring, is basically the same popular style. But this fashion is going to the beach this summer, so it too has a day-time counterpart.

Pajama bottoms look like capris, toreador pants, shorts (anything but the full-legged pjs of old). Topping them are split level blouses cut full for comfort, cropped tops, jackets–all style news.

Robes are designed with lounging in mind–very attractive yet comfortable.

Long gowns come in for more fit around the bust and midriff than past seasons.

And everywhere you look – those wonderful easy-care fabrics have taken on gay, exciting, so-feminine patterns and luscious, luscious colors.

More use of trim in laces, embroideries and novelty effects add extra spice to the dream-time concoctions
