Dyrol Burleson Sets New U. S. Record in Mile Race at Eugene

Burleson, Edstrom Pace 87-44 Oregon Track Win

Eugene — The University of Oregon's track team, with Sophomore Dyrol Burleson breaking the four-minute mile and versatile Dave Edstrom scoring 13 points, defeated Stanford University 87-44 in a dual track meet Saturday.

The 19-year-old Burleson won the mile in 3:58.6 to turn in the fastest mile time for an American citizen.

He outkicked Ernie Cunliffe of Stanford to win the event by about eight yards in a dual meet before 6,500 fans in cool, dry weather. Cunliffe was clocked in 4:00.4 and both times were well under the olympic qualifying standard of 4:02.

Cunliffe led during the first 3-1/2 laps, but Burleson drew even on the last turn and won with a fresh surge of speed at the end. He never trailed by more than three yards throughout the race.

The lap times were 62 seconds for Cunliffe at the end of the first 440 yards, 2:02 at the half-mile with Cunliffe still leading, and 3:01 as the two runners went into the final lap.

Burleson was timed in 62.5 seconds, 2:02.4 minutes, and 3:01.2 minutes for the first three laps.

The only other American native to run a sub-four minute mile was Don Bowden of the University of California, who was timed in 3:58.7 at Stockton, Calif., on June 1, 1957.

It was Oregon's 37th dual meet victory in its last 38 starts.

Hedrick Hornet Seventh, Eighth Cop Victories

Hedrick Junior High school seventh and eighth grade tracksters triumphed in both division of a track meet with Ashland in the Lithia city on Friday.

The Hornet eighth finished in front by 62 1/2 to 50 1/2 by winning eight clear firsts and tying for one other. In the seventh grade conflict, the Medford school won out by a lopsided 61 to 16 by nabbing first place points in eight events and knotting for first in the only other contest.

Eight grade double winners for Hedrick were Richard Robertson in the discus and shot put and Jim Henry in the 75 and 330-yard races. Jeff Hiatt claimed the 660 for Hedrick and George Dames the pole vault. Doug Brown and Calvin Lenz tied in the high jump and the relay team of Tom Owens, Walter Verstrate, Lenz and Henry grabbed that event.

ASHLAND WINNERS
For Ashland Blair took the high hurdles and Trost the broad jump. A Lithian crew swept the javelin. Verstrate of Hedrick and Trost of Ashland tied in the 150-yard sprint.

Stephen Lemire was victor in the dashes for a double win for the seventh grade Hornets. Charles Pryor was first in the 330 and tied for top honors with teammate Bill Foulon in the pole vault. Gary Smith won for the Medfordites in the hurdles and tied with Lively of Ashland in the high jump.

CP Sportsmen Meet Monday

Central Point — "Fishing" will be the topic of discussion Monday at the regular monthly meeting of Central Point Sportsmen's club.

The meeting will be at 8 p.m. at the clubhouse on West Pine st.

Certificates and patches will be presented to some 16 youths who have completed a junior hunter safety course sponsored by the club. Another class is now in progress and applications from boys and girls of the area for a class it is planned to start in about two weeks are being accepted now. Applications are available at Gleason's Sporting Goods store.

Ralph McKenzie is chairman for the junior hunter safety project and helping him are Howard Patterson, Chuck Taylor, William Teeter, Mervyn Gleason and Jack Burns.

Semi-Pros To Practice

Another practice will be held today by the Medford Bowling lanes semi-pro baseball team, if weather allows.

Manager Pete Hale has called for the drill to start at noon at Cheney field at the south edge of town.

The manager has reported a good turnout, so far, and that the club is shaping up well. Some of the diamonds who'll be on the squad are still in college.

Vandals Victors Over Huskies

Seattle, Wash. — The University of Idaho Vandals scored two runs in the ninth inning to beat the University of Washington Huskies, 7-6, in a Northern division baseball game here Saturday.

The victory gave Idaho a split in the two-game series with Washington, which won Friday's game, 3-1.

PIL POSTPONES

Portland — The baseball action in the Portland interscholastic league was cancelled Friday because of rain and wet grounds. The teams will play Monday, weather permitting.
