Wilson And Fans, Heroes

United Press International

Bill Wilson was the toast of Tacoma Friday but how about a tip of the old umbrella for 4,101 rain-soaked fans who wouldn't give up?

Wilson came to bat for the first time this season in the sixth inning and smashed a two-run homer to carry Tacoma to a 3-2 victory over Seattle in one of two Pacific Coast league games played.

San Diego tripped Portland 6-2 in the other one and games featuring Vancouver at Salt Lake City and Spokane at Sacramento were washed out by rain.

For nearly an hour it looked as though the Seattle-Tacoma game, first PCL contest between the two teams in 55 years, would also go down the drain.

But the fans refused to go home despite the rain. Wilson made it all worthwhile with his 380-foot blast over the left fence that erased a 2-1 Seattle lead.

Television Bout Ends in Draw

Miami Beach, Fla. – (UPI) – Len Matthews and Douglas Vaillant, two smooth, young lightweights who fought to a draw in Friday night's television fight, both said today they wanted a rematch "as soon as possible."

Matthews, a 20-year-old Philadelphia native who is the world's fourth ranked lightweight contender, had his hands full with the slightly-built Vaillant after being a 2-1 favorite for the 10-rounder.

Black Tornado Trips Pels, Cavemen To Lead in League

SOUTHERN OREGON CONFERENCE STANDINGS

Klamath Falls	3	1	.750
Crater	1	2	.333
Grants Pass	1	2	.333
Ashland	0	3	.000

Medford high took over the Southern Oregon conference baseball leadership Saturday and became the lone unbeaten leader in circuit by clipping Klamath Falls 6 to 1 at Klamath.

It was Medford's third league decision and the first loss in four loop games for the Pelicans. Black Tornado sluggers also won the second encounter, a kings-x brush, 8 to 4.

One-hit chucking for Jerry Anderson and some hefty swatting by Lowell Dean, Mike Parsons and Anderson paid off for the conference victory.

Anderson walked three batters and struck out four. The lone hit he yielded was a double by Dave Saks. Medford bludgeon wielders got to KF thrower Blake Griggs for 11 safe wallops. Mike Parsons had two hits, one a homer driving in two runs. One of two blows by Anderson was a three-bagger, also sending three runs across. Dean hit three for four and batted in one score.

Barry Smashes

Medford erupted for six runs in the seventh inning in a last ditch rally which brought triumph in the second hassle. Jim Barry smashed the ball to the top of the wall 350 feet into left field and the ball bounced back in for a double. This was followed by a base on balls, and an error to get Lowell Dean and Parsons on base. Anderson then tripled and scored, himself, on an error at the plate. Singles by Wayne Thompson and Bob Quinney and a walk to Ray Konopasek topped off the surge.

Klamath, which put over two runs in the seventh inning in a futile effort to catch up, had a big chance for runs when it got two men on base in the sixth inning. Bob Quinney, Medford reliever, then fanned two batters to retire the side.

Cal Dean three-baggered for Medford. Anderson and Parsons hit two for four and Barry two for five.

Rich Depew, who returned to duty with the Pelicans yesterday after being out with injury, had a three for four second game with one blow a triple.

SATURDAY LINESCORES:

One-hit pitching by Herb Wheeler, a three-run homer by Jerry Anderson and back to back triples by Lowell Dean and Mike Parsons were features Friday in a baseball doubleheader sweep by Medford High school's Black Tornado over Grants Pass.

Medford grabbed the Southern Oregon conference counting first game 9 to 0 and the non-league finale 4 to 1.

The Black Tornado took command in the first tangle during its first time at bat by marking up five runs. There was only one hit in the canto but that was Anderson's roundtripper smash along the left field line.

Cal Dean led off for Medford by getting a walk. Dick Ragsdale got on base on a fielding error, sending Cal to third base. Lowell Dean was walked on purpose. Parsons hit a roller out toward third base and infielder Gary Holmes overthrew catcher Gary Stevens in trying to nip Cal Dean at the plate. Ragsdale crossed the platter on a ground out by Bob Quinney. Then Anderson homered with Lowell and Mike scoring ahead of him.

Three In Third

Just one hit again figured in the tally of three runs in the third inning. Parsons reached first base on a miscue. Quinney singled and went to second on the throw-in as Parsons got to third. Parsons gained the plate on a wild pitch which allowed Quinney to make third base. Anderson and Ray Konopasek drew bases on balls. Quinney tabulated as Wheeler hit into a double play. Thinking there were three outs, GP first baseman Paul Blinka rolled the ball to the mound and headed for the Caveman bench. Only two were down and, Anderson, alert to the chance romped home.

A walk to Wheeler and singles by Cal Dean and Ragsdale produced a final Medford run in the sixth inning.

A solid double to left field by Stevens in the fifth inning was the only Caveman hit as Wheeler fanned nine and walked three. An error let Stevens get to third base but a strikeout ended the greatest GP threat.

Four Hits All Pay

Medford made all four hits it got pay off in runs in the second conflict and pitcher Pat McLaughlin restrained the Climate city foes with a three-hitter, walking five and fanning one batter.

Anderson started the Tornado's second inning batting turn with a one-bagger. Ray Konopasek got on base on a fielder's choice rap and Anderson was safe at second base. Anderson made it to third after the catch of Wayne Thompson's fly to deep right field. McLaughlin squeezed Anderson across home with a bunt and Konopasek scored when Cal Dean's fly ball was dropped in right field.

In the third inning Lowell Dean tripled and crossed the platter on Parsons' three-base smack. Parsons ran home after Anderson's sacrifice fly-out. It was Andy's fourth run batted in of the day.

Grants Pass loaded the bags in the third inning when Mike Millеman walked, Gary Holmes singled, Dave Anderson sacrificed and Blinka got a base on balls. Rex Benner blooped the ball over pitcher McLaughlin to bring in the single GP run of the day.

Members of the Royal Thomas Yacht club wired its challenge to the New York Yacht club only 48 hours after the Americans received a similar summons from Australia.

"Ultimately it will be up to them to decide which challenge to accept."

Crater Baseballers Subdue Ashlanders; Fall to GP Cavemen

Grants Pass—Grants Pass high school won a baseball doubleheader from the Crater Comets on the Cavemen field Saturday afternoon, winning Southern Oregon conference counting game 4-3, and the second tangle 6 to 0.

The league win moved the Cavemen into a tie with the Comets for third place in the standings.

Comet batters produced two runs in the top of the fourth to tie the ball game at two all. Three straight singles and an error produced the two runs.

Cavemen Dennis Walker tallied in the fifth. There were three walks and a sacrifice fly in the frame. Jerry Korbol tied the score in the top of the sixth with two singles, an error, and a fielderss choice the run factors.

Walker got the wining run for the Cavemen in the last of the seventh by walking and stealing second, and racing home when the leftfielder bobbled Gary Stevens single.

In the third panel there were two bases on balls and two misplays along with singles by Loyal Higginbotham and Jeff Anhorn. In the fifth for another three tallies, brothers Bill and Jeff Anhorn and cousin John Antorn each hit. An error and a fielder's option helped out.

Tornado Thinclads Triumph In GP Rotary Cinder Meet

The Medford Black Tornado, victor in its own Rogue relays two weeks back, more firmly reestablished itself as the prep track and field power of southern Oregon Saturday by winning the annual Rotary club meet at Grants Pass.

Tornado spikers collected the first place medals in four events and were responsible for three of the six records which were busted. Blue ribbon placings, however, were evenly distributed and it was Medford depth that made the difference.

Medford scored 80¾ points, Grants Pass had 54¾, Crater of Central Point 41½ and Roseburg 26. It was the Black Tornado's first triumph in two seasons in the meet. Grants Pass was the defender.

Crater, like Medford, won four first spots but did not have the depth of its neighboring high school rival. Roseburg and Grants Pass each took three firsts.

Medford's record shatterers were Len Griggs with 22 feet 1 inch in the broad jump and :22.3 in the 220-yard dash and Ray Smith with 4:46.4 in the mile. Mike Hood, Medford, with 21-10½ for second place, also beat the old broad jump record. Also setting new standards were Lynn Baxter, Roseburg, :10 in the 100-yard sprint, Butch Backen, Roseburg, 6-2 in the high jump a and Glen Cole, Crater, 155-6 in the discus. Griggs' :10.16 in the 100 excelled the former standard.

Medford's other first was by Mike Hood in the high hurdles and Walt Ayres second gave the Tornado a one-two punch in the event.

Roseburg took its third blue strip in the relay. Winners for Crater's Comets included Derrell Williamson in the shot put, John Champ in the low hurdles and Max Burton in the javelin. For Grants Pass the victors were Al Staley in the broad jump, Ken Marshall in the half-mile and Larry Holmes and Don McIntire who tied in the pole vault.

Tornado thinclads had a total of nine second places. They took five thirds and tied for another, had five thirds, two fifths and a tie for fifth.

Exchange Hurts

Medford's bid for a fifth first, in the relay, was spoiled by a bad second baton exchange. The Tornado was briefly disqualified in the race on a charge of going out of the exchange zone. But was restored its second place points when it was pointed out that the zone was not marked.

A meet highlight was a 6-1 high jump by Don Garrison, Crater, for second place.

A novice meet was held in conjunction with the main engagement. Taking firsts for Medford were George Clearwater in the 100, Wayne Cowan in the shot, Bill Charley in the low hurdles, Reinhart Kostlin in the discus, Griffin in the pole vault and the 440-yard relay team of Mike McCullough, Dick Gordon, Jim Schmidt and George Clearwater.

Crater victors were White in the mile, Suther in the broad jump, Dave Burns in the 440, Dennis Edwards in the jevelin, Roberson in the 220 and Al Minnick in the high jump.

RESULTS:
High hurdles—Hood, M; Ayres, M; tie third Wilson and R. Cowan, GP; tie fifth McCloud, GP and Charley, M. :15.4.
100—Baxter, R; Griggs, M; Humphreys, M; McCullough, M; tie fifth White, R. and oJhnson, C. :10. (New record: old record :10.2, Christean, M, 1957, and Peek, M, 1959.)

Ex-Pro Coach Picked For Oregon Staff

Corvallis, Ore. – (UPI) – Red Rocha, former coach of the Detroit Pistons of the National Basketball association, was named an assistant basketball coach Saturday at Oregon State college, his alma mater.

Rocha will join the staff here Aug. 1, giving Oregon State a three-man full-time basketball coaching staff for the first time. Slats Gill, who missed part of last season following a heart attack, will continue as head coach with Rocha and Paul Valenti as his assistants.

Rocha, 34 years old and six feet eight inches tall, ormerly starred at Oregon State and later with a number of professional teams. He played here in 1945-46-47 and won all-America honors his last year when OSC swept the Pacific Coast conference championship.

He won the northern division conference scoring title three consecutive years and was twice on all-conference teams.

Turning pro in 1948, he played with the St. Louis bombers, Baltimore Bullets, Syracuse Nationals and Fort Wayne Pistons before retiring as an active player. He played in NBA all-star games in 1951 and 1952.

He resigned recently as Detroit coach.
