

Miss Gailya Guinotte Bride of LeRoy Walland

Miss Gailya Guinotte, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Meier, 1301 Fortune drive, became the bride of LeRoy Walland, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Walland, 3115 Ross lane, in a ceremony April 8 at First Presbyterian church.

Dr. D. Kirkland West officiated at the double ring rites held at 8 o'clock in the evening. More than 100 relatives and friends attended.

The bride wore a white ballerina length Chantilly lace over satin gown fashioned with fitted bodice and long sleeves. The scoop neckline was accented with a band of iridescent sequins and the skirt had lace panels in the front and back which were caught at the sides with lace and sequin rosettes. Her fingertip length veil was of silk illusion and was held by a lace bonnet embroidered with pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of hyacinth sprays encircling a white orchid.

Mr. Meier gave his stepdaughter in marriage. Miss JoAnn Jamison was maid of honor. She wore a ballerina length dress of powder blue silk organza with matching bandeau with veil. Miss Deanna Kunkel was bridesmaid. Her frock was of white lace over powder blue and her bandeau also held a veil. They carried cascade bouquets of white carnations with blue ribbons.

Keith Paschke served as best man and ushers were Paul Neiscombe and Richard Brown.

Blue iris and white stock decorated the church for the wedding. Blue bows marked the pew ends.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Meier chose a powder blue silk sheath dress with matching jacket and blue and white accessories. Her stole was grey fur and she had her corsage on her purse. Mrs. Walland wore a silver brocade sheath and matching jacket and black accessories.

Miss Sandra Heidemann was in charge of the guest book and Miss Sheryl Calif, Santa Monica, Calif., passed bags of rice and took charge of the gifts.

Following the ceremony the couple traveled to San Francisco. For traveling the bride wore a rose red suit with white accessories and the white orchid from her bridal bouquet. They are making their home at 321 Palm street, Ashland.

The bride is a senior at Medford High school. Mr. Walland attended Medford High school and Oregon State college. He is employed by the Oregon Food store, Ashland.

Among the guests attending the wedding were the grandparents of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Kunkel, Medford. Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meyers, Springfield, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ohlund, Yreka, Calif.; and Mrs. Carl Hammel, Albany, Ore.

Prior to the wedding the bride was honored at a miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Ronald Plankenhorn. Other hostesses were the Misses Jeanne Bevis, Heather Norris and Lynnada Neal.

Lavender and white decorations were used with dark purple lilies. About 30 friends attended.

Family Dinner Held on Sunday

A family gathering and Easter dinner were held last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Emmert, Medford.

Coin Week Starts Today; Display Set

Members of the Rogue Valley Coin club will observe National Coin Week by displaying their coin collections in the lobby of the First National Bank of Oregon, Medford branch.

"Why it pays to be a numismatist" is the theme of this year's coin week, which begins today and ends April 30. It is sponsored by the American Numismatic Association and is aimed at telling the fascinating story of coins and coin collecting.

The public is invited to view the display and to talk with the club members in charge.

Betrothal Told During Luncheon

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Joan Esther Walden to Ray L. Bilderback was announced yesterday at a luncheon. The bride-elect is a daughter of Mrs. Wilbur L. Walden, 848 West McAndrews road, Medford, and the late Mr. Walden. Mr. Bilderback is the son of Mrs. W. H. Turley, Coleman Creek road, Medford, and L. M. Bilderback, Medford.

The luncheon was given by Mrs. Walden at her home. In the evening Miss Walden entertained fellow employees at the local Western Union office, and revealed the news to them.

Both Miss Walden and Mr. Bilderback are graduates of Medford High school. Miss Walden has been employed at the Western Union office in Medford since her graduation. Mr. Bilderback is employed at Sayre and Toso, San Francisco, as a tabulating supervisor.

A summer wedding is planned and the couple will live in San Francisco.

Talks on Botanists Scheduled For Herb Society Next Tuesday

Five minute talks about botanists who named herbs in North America are to be made by members at the next meeting of the Rogue Valley Herb society. The group will meet at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday, April 26, at the home of Mrs. Otto Nagel, Eagle Point.

Roll call is to be answered by naming botanists who named native herbs in Oregon. Each member is asked to come with sketches and ideas to help the committee with the colonial herb garden which will be entered at the Medford Garden's club show May 14.

The Herb club has a library of 28 cloth-bound and 15 paper-bound books, plus many magazines and government bulletins. There are a total of 220 pieces, all of which are catalogued.

Honey was the topic of the March meeting. Mrs. Nagel talked about honey and its value to health and Mrs. L. W. Lingscheid spoke concerning the display of different kinds of honey.
