

Seattle-Miss Flora Koski stands in front of weather map in Seattle trying to decide whether to risk her new "hair" do in fluctuating spring weather. The hair style is one of several "extravagant" hair arrangements appearing in the city. Called the "Sombbrero," the hat is made from Miss Koski's own hair. Instructions for wearing: Five mile an hour wind and no rain. —(UPI Telephoto)

Ruth Esther Guild Holds Election of Officers

Miss Voda Brower was elected president of Ruth Esther Wesleyan Service guild of the First Methodist church during the April 18 meeting.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Richard Williams, vice-president; Mrs. A. C. James, recording secretary; Mrs. L. A. White, secretary of promotion; Mrs. Janie Smith, treasurer; and Mrs. George Rosebury, coordinator.

Mrs. Charles Adamson announced that Mrs. W. B. Landrum, division field worker for the WSCS, will be in Medford the evening of May 16.

Three delegates to the recent Guild week end at Coos Bay made brief reports. Mrs. Williams spoke concerning the sermons given there; Miss Carolyn Denny told of financial plans for the coming year; and Miss Annette Gray described the unusual new church at Coos Bay.

Mrs. George Watson is in charge of the membership contest which will begin soon.

Mrs. Anne Gorbey prepared for devotion an altar setting of a large oil painting of Jackson Hole, Wyo., which included the Teton Mountains, and added an arrangement of lilies and other flowers. She

Tournament Set By Bridge Club For May 10, 17

Medford Duplicate Bridge club will hold its annual men's and women's pairs tournament May 10 and 17. Reservations should be made with the club director immediately, those in charge state.

Ten tables of players took part in Tuesday's game at the club. Mrs. Patsy Gilhousen and John Shortridge led north-south position players with 151 points for first place. George Polski and George Rode were second with 123; Mrs. Paul Patton and Mrs. R. J. Conroy, third, 116½; and Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Sanderson, and Mrs. Joseph Clark and Mrs. J. J. Finegan, tied for fourth, 105½.

East-west position winners were Leland Clark and Roy Pruitt, first, 138; Mrs. Jack Mitchell and Mrs. Paul McDuffee, second, 127½; Mrs. Sam Van Dyke and Tom McLeod, third, 125; and Mrs. Fred Purdin and Mrs. A. W. Lingaas, fourth, 114.

Kitchen Shower Honors Bride-Elect

A kitchen shower honoring Miss Donna Schulze was held April 20 at the home of Mrs. G. L. Clark, 625 Park street. Miss Schulze, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schulze, Lookingsglass, Ore., is to be married June 18 in Roseburg to Richard L. Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Clark, 625 Park street.

Guests attending were Mesdames R. E. Green, Harold Looper, R. Claussen, Homer Bell, George Holzgang, Robert Forbes, Bert Staats Jr., Louise Davis, and the Misses Ellen Bell, Penny Forbes and Joyce Staats.

Mrs. Mattie Black in California

Tiller-Drew - Mrs. Mattie Black has left for Los Altos, Calif., to visit in the home of her son-in-law, J. M. Hall. She will remain to attend the high school graduation exercises of her grandson.

Crater Lake Post, Auxiliary Hold Annual Installation

The annual installation of Crater Lake post and auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars, was held April 19 at the VFW hall.

Victor Davis was installed commander of the post and Mrs. O. O. DeBerry, president of the auxiliary.

Other auxiliary officers installed were Mrs. Dora Stanton, senior vice-president; Mrs. Thomas Wilkins, junior vice-president; Mrs. Fred Lawrence, chaplain; Mrs. Ben Allison, patriotic instructor; Mrs. E. G. Helm, guard; Mrs. Ira Canfield, treasurer; Mrs. Russell Zundell, secretary; Mrs. Etha Wall, musician; Mrs. B. B. Ramsey, conductress; Mrs. Richard Schulz, assistant conductress; Mrs. Cora Card, assistant musician; and Mrs. Ivan Lusk, Mrs. Russell Johnson, Mrs. Ralph Pittoc and Mrs. David Schulz, color bearers.

Post Officers

Post officers installed included W. H. Harper, senior vice-commander; J. D. Caricher, junior vice-commander; Lou Kula, quartermaster; Edward D. Smith, adjutant; H. C. Sutherland, post advocate; Mr. Canfield, chaplain; Mr. Lusk, surgeon; Ray E. Lawless, officer of the day; B. E. Westgate, service officer; C. P. Doyle, three year trustee and Mr. Lusk, guard.

Mrs. Zundell, district president of southern Oregon and member of Crater Lake auxiliary, installed the auxiliary officers. Past Department Commanders Mr. Canfield and Harry Birch installed the post officers.

Among the national officers present were Mrs. Ted Hopkins, council member for the western coastal states and past department president; Colonel Hopkins, national chairman of the National VFW Children's home, Eaton Rapids, Mich.; and Miss Laurene Kell, past department president; and Mrs. Harry Birch, assistant Veterans Administration Volunteer Services hospital chairman.

Members from Brookings, Grants Pass, Rogue River, Central Point, Shady Cove,

Unit Elects Officers

Election of officers was held at the Westside Home Extension Unit's recent meeting at the home of Mrs. Chester Wendt.

Mrs. Leonard Franek was elected chairman; Mrs. D. W. Doty, vice-chairman; Mrs. Walter Ricks, secretary, and Mrs. Arnold Molschenbacher, treasurer.

Mrs. John Truly gave a report on the advanced dressmaking class which has just been completed. Eighteen women were registered in the class and Mrs. Truly told of the various dresses that were made and some of the problems encountered and how they were solved. The dresses will be modeled at the May Festival.

Mrs. Owen Phelan, chairman, reported on plans for the coming Festival which is to be held at the Roxy Ann Grange, May 25.

The members voted to pay for a scholarship to send a 4-H girl to summer school at Corvallis.

Mrs. Everett Gibson and Mrs. Don Kilbourne presented the project on soaps and detergents. The next meeting will be May 5, and the project will be patio cookery.

Sojourners

Medford Sojourners club will meet Thursday, April 28 at 12:30 at the Girls Community Club. Newcomers to Medford and vicinity who have lived here less than two years are invited to attend and become members.

Bridge, canasta and pinocle will be played after dessert and a short business meeting.

Citizenship Is Subject For Luncheon

May Fellowship program as planned by the local Council of United Church Women will be of interest to women. It will include a skit which portrays the need to become informed regarding our duties as citizens, according to Mrs. Everett Lasher, chairman for The May Fellowship activities. The event will be held in the YMCA building Friday, May 6, with the May Basket luncheon to be served at 12 noon.

As proceeds from the luncheon assists in the work of teaching of Bible history in the schools, Mrs. R. Angus Todd, one of the teachers in this work, will tell of her experiences and results obtained in her history classes.

Mrs. Milton Schuchard will direct the Mothersingers in several selections of choral music. Devotions will be under the direction of Mrs. Allen Perry and Mrs. Everett Faber, president of the council, will introduce guests.

Since the theme for the day is "Citizenship, Free and Responsible," interest will center around thoughts pertaining to this election year. It is pointed out that too much study cannot be given measures on the ballot and to the background of candidates seeking office.

Mrs. Lionel Rankin and Mrs. Bryon Pierce are chairmen for luncheon arrangements. A nursery will be maintained at the First Methodist church.

Tickets may be obtained from the several representatives of affiliated churches of the council.

Mrs. John Truly gave a report on the advanced dressmaking class which has just been completed. Eighteen women were registered in the class and Mrs. Truly told of the various dresses that were made and some of the problems encountered and how they were solved. The dresses will be modeled at the May Festival.

Mrs. Owen Phelan, chairman, reported on plans for the coming Festival which is to be held at the Roxy Ann Grange, May 25.

The members voted to pay for a scholarship to send a 4-H girl to summer school at Corvallis.

Mrs. Everett Gibson and Mrs. Don Kilbourne presented the project on soaps and detergents. The next meeting will be May 5, and the project will be patio cookery.

Hornbrook Family Has Easter Visitors

Hornbrook—Easter week-end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bear were Mr. and Mrs. Steve Jones. They were enroute to their home in Edmonton Alberta, Canada, after a trailer trip south in which they spent four months at Mesa, Ariz., and five weeks in Palm Springs, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson and daughter, Kathy, were guests last week of his father, Matt Johnson, and Mrs. Johnson. The Carl Johnsons, of Hayward, Calif., were accompanied north by her mother, Mrs. Frances Crawford, and her sister, Mrs. Joan Thorn and son, Kelly, all of Oakland, Calif.

Delegates To Board Give Report

Phoenix - Mrs. Fred Stevens and Mrs. Fred Barbeau gave reports at a meeting of Phoenix Lions auxiliary April 14 at the home of Mrs. C. A. Stothers, 165 Gresham street, Ashland. Mrs. L. J. Tetreault assisted the hostess.

Mrs. Stevens reported on her trip to the spring board meeting at Taft, Ore., April 6 and Mrs. Barbeau described her visit to the state school for the blind.

The two women were delegates from Phoenix auxiliary to the spring board meeting. Mrs. Stevens reported that there are 78 Lions auxiliaries in Oregon having a total membership of 16,022.

Mrs. Barbeau stated that the speech therapy at the state school is doing much to help the emotionally disturbed children in the school. Ninety students attend the school. A new swimming pool and bowling alley are to be completed there this year.

The auxiliary plans to send $25 to help pay expenses of the 12th annual blind school institute to be held in Salem April 27-May 1.

An invitation was extended the Phoenix group by the Medford Lions auxiliary to attend the 25th anniversary observance at the Medford hotel May 11.

Phoenix members are planning a party honoring husbands sometime in May. The auxiliary will meet next on May 12 at the home of Mrs. Lane.

MAIL TRIBUNE, Medford, Or. 5
Sunday, April 24, 1960
Leonard Carlson, 3617 Ross lane.

Now --
A FREEZER YOU NEVER NEED TO DEFROST!

455 pound capacity!
Regular $399.95
NOW...$319.95
SAVE $80

Ask your local grocery store owner or manager to show you a food plan to go with your G-E Freezer... he can do it better than anyone!

HAPCO.
115 E. MAIN
Park & Shop

Home Appliance Co. — Famous for Top Quality Service

Burelson's
Downtown Medford

Mother's Day Is Sunday, May 8
a wonderful gift for the mother on the go

ARE PERFECT FOR THE WORD GO!

This inspired sleepwear unpacks so smooth and fresh and flattering, it's a perfect beauty treatment when you're tired.

Featherweight nylon tricot in pretty unbedroomy colors: long pajama and kimono set; and coordinated gown and wraparound. All joys to travel with.

1. Glorious (and glorifying) cummerbund gown. 32 to 38, $8.95
2. Instant make-up: fabulous wraparound. S, M, L $10.95
3. Easygoing chic, embroidered bands. Pajama, 32 to 38. Kimono, Small or Medium. Each $10.95

Use Our Parking Lot Directly Behind Our Store!

Main and Bartlett Streets

Your Charge Account Invited

Phone SP 2-6428

You Wanted It! Here It Is!

We Are Continuing Our Shoe

Specials

FOR ONE WEEK ONLY!

Reg. to 9.95

Reg. to 14.95

6⁸⁸

10⁸⁸

Use Your Charge Account
Buy Now... Pay
Next June

Reg. 19.95 & 21.95

14⁸⁸

Burelson's
Shoe Salon

Use our parking lot directly behind our store.

Main and Bartlett Streets

Phone SP 2-6428

- DeLiso Debs
- Joyce
- Town and Country
- Foot Flairs
- Heydays
- OTHER FAMOUS NAME BRANDS