

EXAMINES TROPHY—Art Bostock, manager of the Coos Bay Western Auto store and formerly of Medford, examines trophy presented the Coos Bay store as the best operated among the firm's stores in Oregon, Washington and Idaho. It was the first time such an award has been made by the company. Bostock, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bostock, live at 2801 Ross lane, Medford, received his manager training at the Medford store.

First Aid Class Changes Location

Eagle Point—A class in first aid now being conducted in Eagle Point is still open to anyone interested in joining. It has been announced yesterday.

The class, which has been held in the Eagle Point welfare building, will meet in the grade school music building on B st. at the next session Monday, April 25.

The classes will continue on succeeding Monday nights for five weeks between 7 and 9 p.m. Dr. Harold Reith, Shady Cove, is conducting the sessions.

Invest-In-America Being Observed

Invest-In-America week is being observed throughout the nation this week, April 24 through April 30.

Business firms, industries and civic organizations are participating in the program in more than 200 cities, according to Edd E. Rountree, Ashland, Jackson county chairman.

"Money at work means men at work," is the 1960 theme. The educational theme has the purpose of increasing public understanding of the importance of individual savings and investments.
