

Tigers Yet Unbeaten in American Loop; Pirates Lead in National

By FRED DOWN
United Press International
 You can't blame the Detroit and Pittsburgh fans for whooping it up—they've waited 20 years for the Tigers and Pirates to make jackrabbit starts.

The Tigers remained unbeaten atop the American league when they whipped the Chicago White Sox, 12-4, for their fifth straight victory Sunday while the Pirates took over first place in the National league when they beat the Milwaukee Braves, 7-3, for their eighth triumph in 11 games.

The Tigers haven't made such a fast start since their own eight of their first nine games in 1937 and the Pirates are making their best early showing since they won their first seven games in 1938. In fact, over the years, the Tigers and Pirates have more often than not disappointed their followers with early-season slumps.

Haddix Beats Braves
 Casey Wise, the ex-Milwaukee infielder, and catcher Lou Berberet led the Tigers' explosive attack Sunday while Harvey Haddix, who hadn't beaten the Braves since 1937, was the Pirates' hero.

Wise, filling in for second baseman Frank Bolling, drove in five runs with two homers, a triple and a single and Berberet hit a grand slam homer that highlighted a six-run first inning assault on 22-game winner Early Wynn.

Paul Foytack yielded nine hits to win his first game as the Tigers completed a three-game sweep of the American league champions.

Haddix gave way to Eloy Face after being tagged for 10 hits in 8 1/3 innings and the Pirate reliever ended a Brave rally. Smoky Burgess and Bob Skinner hit homers and Bill Mazeroski had a triple and two singles for the Pirates, who dealt Bob Buhl his first defeat.

The Cleveland Indians finally won their first game when they defeated the Kansas City A's, 7-0, the New York Yankees scored eight runs with nobody out in the first inning and downed the Baltimore Orioles, 15-9, and the Washington Senators beat the Boston Red Sox, 11-10, in other American league games.

first inning, and Vic Power and Jim Piersall had three hits each for Cleveland. The Indians had lost their first four games of the season.

The Yankees tied an American league record with their first-inning attack and carried a 12-1 lead into the eighth inning behind the sturdy pitching of Jim Coates. Grand slam homers by Albie Pearson in the eighth and Billy Klaus in the ninth brought the Orioles close until Johnny James retired them in the ninth. Tony Kubek hit two homers and Elston Howard drove in five runs with a homer and two triples for the Yankees.

Hits Two Doubles
 Bob Allison's two doubles drove in three key runs for the Senators, who twice overcame four-run Sox leads. Bobby Thomson had four hits, including a homer, and Vic Wertz and Lou Clinton also homered for Boston.

The Cubs scored seven runs with two out in the eighth inning to end a five game losing streak and gave relief ace Don Elston his second win. Bob Willis' three run bloop single, a homer by Tony Taylor and Frank Thomas' double were the big blows of the Cubs' winning rally against Billy Lee, Stu Miller and Bud Byrley.

Stan Musial, hitting 296, hit his second homer and Ken Boyer his fourth and fifth as the Cardinals dealt Johnny Podres his first defeat. Bob Miller went 6 1/3 innings and then Ron Kline and Lindsey McDaniel pitched hitless over the last 2 2/3 innings. Wally Moon had two of Los Angeles' six hits.

Rookie Jim Coker's grand slammer in the eighth inning featured a seven-run rally that enabled Chris Short to pick up his first big league victory for the Phillies. The Reds won the nightcap for Don Newcombe with a 15-hit attack that included homers by Roy McMillan, Eddie Kaslo and Frank Robinson.

McCormick SF Choice

St. Louis—UPI—Young Mike McCormick risks his perfect 2-0 record and attempts to insert the shocked San Francisco Giants back into a first place National league tie-tournament when he meets the rejuvenated St. Louis Cardinals.

San Francisco surrendered its half-game lead to Pittsburgh Sunday when the Chicago Cubs—humiliated by the Giants, 18-2, Saturday—exploded for seven runs in the eighth inning with two out to win 9-4.

The Cubs paraded 10 consecutive men to first base after pitcher Billy Loes, who replaced starter Billy O'Dell at beginning of the inning, had retired the first two men—powerhitters Ernie Banks and Frank Thomas.

Key play of the inning was Bob Will's pop fly into short left field which fell between Orlando Cepeda, Jimmy Davenport and Eddie Bressoud. The blooper came with the bases loaded and the Giants ahead, 4-2. Three men scored and the Giants had had it.

Duck Athletes Have Good Day
 United Press International
 Oregon track and field athletes turned in some good performances Saturday in addition to Daryl Burleson's 3:58.6 mile at Eugene.

Bill Dellinger, a former Webfoot, won the mile at the Mt. San Antonio, Calif., relays in the time of 4:07.4. Among those he defeated were Laszlo Tabori of Hungary and Don Bowden, the latter American's first sub four-minute mile.

Bob Lawson, former Southern Cal star now an assistant coach at Oregon State, finished third in the decathlon with 6,819 points and qualified for the Olympic trials. Steve Pauly, OSC freshman, was ninth with 5,783 points.

Steve Anderson, former Oregon star, wound up with only 6,826 points in the decathlon at the Kansas Relays after a first day total of slightly over 4,000. His point total was not enough for the 6,750 needed for Olympic qualification.

Otis Davis of Oregon finished second to Mal Spence of Arizona in the Mt. San Antonio Relays in the 440.
