

League Fines Cardinal Rookie

St. Louis - (UP) - It didn't take St. Louis Cardinal rookie Chris Cannizzaro long to find out who's the boss in the big leagues.

The Cardinal catcher became involved in a heated argument with umpire Frank Secory in the seventh inning of a game against San Francisco Monday night. Cannizzaro said Willie Mays failed to touch home plate after scoring from first on Willie McCovey's single.

The umpire disagreed and league headquarters announced Tuesday that Cannizzaro had been fined $50 and suspended for two days for "bodily contact and remarks" made to Secory.

CHISOX WANT GARVER

Kansas City, Mo. - (UP) - The Chicago White Sox are rumored to be dangling centerfielder Jim Landis as trade bait for Kansas City pitcher Ned Garver. Chicago General Manager Hank Greenberg, disappointed at the early-season showing of the White Sox pitching staff, reported is anxious to acquire the 35-year-old Garver, a veteran righthander who has won 125 games and lost 146 in 13 years in the major leagues.

Spahn Pitches Another Win Over Redlegs; Tribe Hands Detroit First Loop Setback

By MILTON RICHMAN United Press International

Southpaw Warren Spahn is a cinch to wind up in baseball's Hall of Fame when he's through, and if it'll hurry things any, his Cincinnati "cousins" will gladly pay his fare there.

Ever since the 39-year-old Spahn has been in the National league, the Reds have paid plenty—and mostly through the nose.

As a matter of fact, no club has contributed more than Cincinnati to the veteran Milwaukee ace's superlative record of having won 20 games during 10 different seasons. Spahn's lifetime mark against the Reds is an almost incredible 54-20. That's a 730 percentage and pretty fancy pitching in any league, brother.

Spahn performed his specialty again Tuesday night when he beat the Reds, 4-3, in 11 innings on a four-hit effort that snapped a three-game losing streak for the Braves and boosted them from fifth place to within 2 1/2 games of the top.

Del Crandall supplied the payoff blow with his first homer of the season in the 11th off lefty Jim O'Toole, who went the distance for the Reds. Gus Bell hit a two-run homer for Cincinnati in the third and that was the last hit Spahn yielded until the eighth.

The Cardinals knocked the Giants out of a first-place tie by beating them, 4-2, and the Dodgers defeated the Cubs, 8-1, in other NL contests. The Pirates took over sole possession of first place when their game with the Phillies was rained out.

In the American league, the Indians handed the Tigers their first setback of the season, 2-1, in 12 innings; the Red Sox snapped the Yankees' four-game winning streak, 7-5; the White Sox blanked the Athletics, 8-0; and the Orioles outlasted the Senators, 11-10.

The Cardinals won their game from the Giants by hoping on former teammate Sam Jones for all their runs in the first inning. Ex-Giant Bill White tripled home two of the runs and Stan Musial and Wally Shannon each singled home one. Larry Jackson held the Giants to seven hits in posting his first victory. Willie Mays extended his hitting streak to 12 games with a fourth-inning single.

Lanky Don Drysdale set the Cubs down on four hits in halting a four-game Dodge losing streak. Drysdale struck out 10 in registering his third victory and aided his own cause with three hits. The Cubs didn't help themselves any with four errors, including two by former Dodger Don Zimmer and one by losing pitcher Glen Hobbie who failed to survive the third inning.

Vict Power singled home the winning run for Cleveland as the Tigers suffered their first loss in six starts but still retained the American league lead. Power's single came off Tom Morgan but the loss was charged to Dave Sisler, who relieved starter Jim Bunning in the 11th. Rookie Wynn Hawkins hurled the first 11 innings for the Indians, gave up five hits before yielding to Jim Perry in the 12th, and was credited with his first major league win.

Two defensive lapses by leftfielder Hector Lopez cost the Yankees their game against the Red Sox. Lopez' three-base error on a routine fly ball by rookie Lou Clinton touched off a five-run Boston uprising in the third inning and then in the seventh, he played Pete Runnel's single into a triple that gave the Red Sox their sixth run. Jerry Casale was the winner and John Gabler the loser. Bill Skowron and Yogi Berra homered for the Yanks and rookie Ed Sadowski hit his first major league homer for the Red Sox.

Bob Shaw and Al Smith were the whole story in the White Sox' victory over the Athletics. Shaw stopped KC on five hits in becoming the first White Sox pitcher to last more than five innings this season, and Smith rapped out five hits in as many times up, including a first inning homer off loser Ned Garver.

Jim Gentile's second three-run homer in as many games gave the Orioles their decision over the Senators. Gentile, on a 30-day "look" with Baltimore, has batted in 11 runs so far this season—all against Washington. His three-run homer Tuesday came in the eighth off reliever Camillo Pascual, who suffered his second defeat. Rookies Chuck Estrade picked up the win in relief. Gene Woodling also homered for the Orioles while Jim Lemon Dan Dobbek, Harmon Killebrew and Earl Bately connected for the Senators.

Indians Keep Head In Tight PCL Race

By PETE COLEMAN United Press International

The Spokane Indians are still holding onto the first place position in the Pacific Coast league standings, but one little slip and they'll be down with the rest of the working people.

The Indians got by the Tacoma Giants, 4-1, Tuesday night. However, the victory furnished them with a mere one-game edge over second place Sacramento and left them only two and a half games in front of the cellar club, Vancouver.

To put it simply, it's a tight race.

Defending champion Salt Lake began to show signs of life after a dismal start by taking a second straight win over Portland Tuesday night, 6-1, and Vancouver came from behind to dump San Diego, 5-3. Sacramento and Seattle were rained out.

Spokane's victory was due mostly to a fine pitching effort by Scott Breeden, who cut the Giants down to size with a five-hitter. He struck out seven and had a shutout until the ninth.

Ramon Conde drove in two runs in the second inning and scored one himself in the fifth to lead the Indians at the plate.

Referee Ralph Gruman scored it 99-99 for Moyer, Judge Andy Crabtree 100-98 for Moyer, and the other Judge, Eddie Volk scored it 99-96 in favor of the eastern fighter.

Both fighters weighed 151 pounds. There were no knockdowns although Moyer slipped to the canvas in the second.

Best Round Last Neither fighter was cut but Griffith's eye started to swell in the sixth round.

Moyer's best round was the last. He swarmed over Griffith from the bell and rocked him twice with solid right hands. In the previous round, Griffith had slowed Moyer, also with two right hands.

The win gave Moyer a 25-2 record in his brief professional career. Griffith's record now is 17-2. Moyer's only other loss was to welterweight champion Don Jordan in a title fight in Portland last summer.

In the semi-windup bout, Denny's brother, Phil Moyer, scored a technical knockout over Thurman Stevens of Seattle, in 2:59 of the third round.

Belles Receive Kegling Award

Medford Mayor John W. Snider presented bowling awards last Friday at the Bartlett Belles Women's Bowling league award banquet at Kim's restaurant.

Receiving team trophies were the first place Corner club team of Central Point and the second place Trowbridge and Flynn team.

Individual trophies went to Kay Nicodemus for high game and high series scratch, to Georgia Russell for high game handicap, to Alta Logan for high series handicap and to Jan Coulter for the most improved bowler. Twenty-four perfect attendance trophies were awarded.

League officers for the coming season were elected at the banquet. They are, president, Sue Lytle, vice president, Kay Nicodemus, secretary treasurer, Billie Davis, and sergeant at arms, Darlene Tope.

JOINS LEADERS

Littleton, Colo. - (UP) - Lois Johnson, Pullman, Wash., stood with the leaders in the Women's International Bowling congress tournament today on the strength of a 602 series - the first 600-plus series she ever bowled. Her series, bowled Tuesday at the Bellevue Lanes, ranked her third in the singles.

London Stops Yankee Fighter

London - (UP) - Once again, Brian London is England's "candy kid" today because of his upset knockout over Peter Rademacher, American heavy-weight.

The former candy-maker of Blackpool is receiving offers for big-money fights today instead of retiring from the ring, as previously contemplated.

London, the supposedly washed-up ex-British Empire champion, knocked out Rademacher of Columbus, Ga., Tuesday night with a left hook to the body in the seventh round.

Ump Issues Beanball Warning

St. Louis - (UP) - San Francisco relief pitchers shut out St. Louis for seven and one-third innings Tuesday night, but the Cardinals didn't need runs anyway.

They got all they needed off Giant starter Sad Sam Jones in just two-thirds of the first inning and coasted to a 4-2 victory. The loss knocked San Francisco out of a first place tie in the National league.

Sad Sam may have let his emotions get the best of him, as he came up with his first losing effort of the year. Cardinal pitcher Larry Jackson hit Jimmy Davenport with a fast ball in the first frame - and Jones whistled one past the ear of St. Louis leadoff man Joe Cunningham.

Plate umpire Shag Crawford warned both managers to knock off the "beanball" battle, and the Cardinals quickly took revenge on Sad Sam. They got seven hits and scored four runs during a rally sparked by former Giants Daryl Spencer, Bill White and Leon Wagner.

Ems Have 10-4 Edge In NW Tilt

By ROY C. WEBSTER United Press International

The Yakima Bears, defending Northwest Baseball league champions, let rival teams know Tuesday night that they are out to have the title pennant flying over Bear stadium again next year as they opened the 1950 season with a 5-4 win over Tri-City.

The cry of "play ball" echoed over three states as the other four Class B league clubs clashed in contests which saw Lewiston defeat Wenatchee 9-0, and Eugene down Salem 10-4.

Washington Gov. Albert D. Rosellini was on hand at Yakima to throw out the traditional first ball and root last year's champs to their first season win.

Long Tangle Eugene prolonged its game with the Salem Senators for three hours and 22 minutes before settling for a 10-4 victory. The game threatened to turn into a comedy of errors before it was done.

There were 16 bases on balls, six errors and four passed balls recorded in the game. The Emeralds scored a run in the first, two in the third, another in the fourth, two in the fifth, three in the eighth and one in the ninth.

Salem tallied three in the sixth and a single in the seventh. Four Senator pitchers gave up 13 hits.

Felix Maldonado, Eugene's top hitter, clouted a triple, a double and a single and batted in three runs. Jose Tartabull, Terry Robinson and winning pitcher Gene Calder all had two hits for the winners.

Washington Bops WSU

Seattle - (UP) - Washington handed Washington State its first defeat in four games Tuesday, 11-2, and shoved the Cougars back into second place in the Northern division baseball race.

Oregon State took over top spot by downing Idaho 7-2. The Huskies scored eight runs in the third inning in batting Dick Montee out of the box.

OSC Trims Idaho 7-2

Corvallis - (UP) - Left-hander Bill Oerding pitched the Oregon State Beavers past University of Idaho, 7-2, in a Northern division baseball game here Tuesday.

Oerding, a junior, limited the Vandals to five singles as the Oregon Staters scored their third ND win in four starts.

Second baseman Brian Bailey broke up a 2-2 tie with a slashing single that scored Larry Peterson and John Whitelaw in the fourth inning.

In the top of the fourth, the Vandals tied the game at 2-2 and broke Oerding's scoreless innings streak at 30-2-3.

NCAA Not To Honor AAU's Suspensions

By DAVID M. MOFFIT Atlanta - (UP) - The NCAA council, governing body of college athletics, was expected today to take disciplinary action against several schools for illegal recruiting or other rule violations.

Such action would come at the close of the council's annual three-day meeting here and would follow on the heels of a decision that the NCAA will no longer honor AAU suspensions until such time as the two nationwide athletic groups can reach an agreement on their rules differences.

Dyrol Burleson Brightens Hunt

New York - (UP) - Uncle Sam's search for distance runners for the Olympics was brightened this week with the announcement that Dyrol Burleson of Oregon and Ernie Cunliffe of Stanford have qualified for the 1,500-meter run.

The U.S. Olympic Committee's weekly report shows that 35 more track and field athletes have met the qualifying standards. This brings the total of qualifiers to 206 for 16 of the 19 events where such requirements are necessary.

American athletes still have failed to meet the qualifications for the 5,000 and the 10,000-meter run and the 3,000-meter steeplechase.

PIONEERS WIN

Portland - (UP) - Bob Olson pitched and batted Lewis and Clark's Pioneers of the Northwest conference to a 7-4 victory over University of Portland in a college baseball game Tuesday. It was Olson's bases-loaded single in the fifth inning that gave Lewis and Clark its tying and go-ahead runs. Olson limited the Pilots to seven hits and struck out seven.
