

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A VISITOR in a one-horse town asked the social leader of the community, "Why do all you ladies read the local newspaper so thoroughly when you all know anyhow what everybody in town has been doing all week?" "It's by reading the paper," explained Mrs. Big, "that we find out which ones got caught."

Bill Barker is one of the busiest men in Denver, Colo. At the moment, for instance, he is laboring 20 hours a day to dig up songs suitable for psychiatrists to shrink heads with. Prize discoveries to date: "Moonlight Neuroses"; Amnesia Days You're Gonna Miss Me, Honey; "Aphasia Jolly Good Fellow"; "Hereditarily Hop to the Barber Shop."

Ernie Kovacs has invented a new tonic that will grow hair on a billiard ball. "It works like a charm," boasts Ernie, "but I must admit it slows up the game."

Hatfield Asked To Name Candidates

Salem—Gov. Mark Hatfield has been asked to receive nominations for Oregon youths as candidates for two national awards—the Young American Medal for Bravery and The Young American Medal for Service.

Boys and girls are nominated for acts of extraordinary courage or for an outstanding record of endeavor, service or recognition. The act or service must have been completed in 1959 and prior to a nominee's 19th birthday.

Nominations may be submitted to the governor through June 30. He in turn will pass them on to U.S. Attorney General William P. Rogers.

WASHING MACHINES

Cleveland—Although household washing machines have been used for many years, they did not come into general use until after World War I.
