Acme Hardware, 245 South Central ave., will be one of 23,000 independent hardware stores which will participate in Hardware Week of the Independent Retail Hardwaremen of America which opens today.

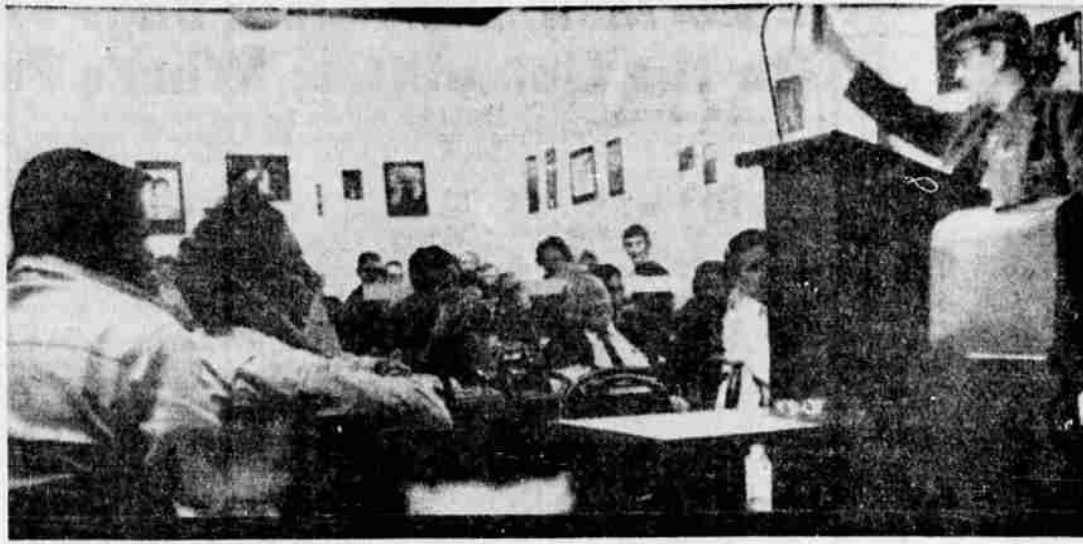

Tony Manno, Acme owner-manager, announced that the store will feature "Gold Key" values on brand name merchandise, and a long list of prizes for customers.

Residents may register at the contest counter to enter the nation-wide contest which will end June 1.

Six hundred hardware wholesale distributors and manufacturers are supporting the IRHA stores in their selling event.

BIG, HAPPY FAMILY

Tusculum, Ala. — Colbert County Sheriff Raymond Wheeler swore in his wife, Johnnie Lou, Wednesday as his deputy.

THE 'BEATS' PAY—Lawrence Lipton, author of "Holy Barbarians", held a crowd in awe as he recited some of his better material in the "Coffee Gallery" on upper Grant ave. in San Francisco. Lawrence, paid well for the appearance, upset the common belief that "Beatdom" is overrun by the "fuzz and the squares" when he made his appearance before a crowd which had to shell out 75 cents per head to hear him. Those in attendance appeared to be true "beats" by appearance and attitude.

Salt Lake City, Utah — Preston Matt Neilson, 56, president of the Skyline Oil Co. of Utah, died here Tuesday. Neilson was a former Wall Street lawyer in New York and former president of the Central Aircraft Corp.

Portland Lensman Files Counter Suit

Portland — A $2,450,000 counter-suit was filed Wednesday by Portland contact lens-maker George M. Butterfield against a Los Angeles lens making firm.

The suit was filed in federal court here against Solex Laboratories, Inc.

It hit back at a March 13 suit by Solex charging that Butterfield had infringed on a patent granted Kevin M. Tucky in 1950. The Solex suit claims that contact lenses by Butterfield intrude on Tucky's patent.

Butterfield's counter claim maintained that Tucky's patent is too vague to constitute a valid patent and that it actually is an infringement on a patent granted to him in 1951.

Coast Guard Raises Age Requirements

The Coast Guard has raised its age requirements for entry into the Coast Guard Reserve six-month active duty program. In the past the age limit was from 17 to 21 years.

New age limits include men who have not reached their 26th birthday. Men in this age group who are interested in the program may contact the Coast Guard recruiting station in Eugene for details.

Umatilla Herd Under Quarantine

Salem — State and federal veterinarians announced today that only one of the herds exposed in a Baker county outbreak last January still is under quarantine and that herd is in Umatilla county.

A spokesman here said all Baker county herds have been dipped and released. The Umatilla county herd was treated earlier but "not under official supervision" and arrangements have been made for retreatment.

California still has an embargo against beef cattle movement into that state from Baker and adjoining Union, Grant, Malheur and Wallowa counties. Entry may be made from elsewhere in Oregon on an official health examination and veterinarian's certificate.
