

Junior Sunday School Class Wins Recent Contest

Gold Hill—The Junior Sunday school class of the Gold Hill Christian church, which is taught by Miss Jean Cunningham, minister of the church, were winners of the Bible reading and attendance contest which ended last week.

This group of youngsters, which includes fourth through sixth graders, read a total of 1220 chapters in the Bible during the contest. Their reward will be a trip to Crescent City, Calif., to spend a day in the near future picnicking on the beach at the ocean.

The young people's class placed second in the contest.

Object Lesson Told For Sunday Service

Sams Valley—Mrs. Edgar Pleasant, superintendent of the Sunday school classes at Sams Valley Community church, has planned an "object lesson" for the opening services Sunday at 10 a.m.

During the worship hour which begins at 11 a.m., the Rev. John W. Roelofs, pastor of the church, will sing a vocal solo entitled "A Mighty Revival". Mrs. Roelofs will be pianist.

Wall Street Chatter

New York—(UP)—B. K. Thurlow of Winslow, Co. & Stetson says the recent stock market decline has disclosed weaknesses in the speculative fabric which may become major problems.

Public and institutional enthusiasm for the super growth stocks, he thinks, has frightening implications for the future.

Thurlow believes it suggests that few people learn from their own mistakes and almost never from other people's experiences. He relates the current scene to the 1929 debacle.

Abraham & Co. has reports on American Cyanamid, Martin Co. and Spigell, Inc., recommending them all for purchase. Martin and Spigell appear undervalued, the report says. While noting that a dividend increase appears in store for Cyanamid as earnings continue their favorable trend.

Goodbody & Co. considers Macy stock excellently situated for a price and gradual growth. A price-earnings ratio of 10-1 is historically low for this issue, it notes, as well as appearing abnormally low in the present general investment environment.

Right-of-Way Law Stated for Study

Salem—(UP)—The Oregon Traffic Safety commission agreed Thursday to a request by State Highway Engineer W. C. Williams to look at possible changes in Oregon's right-of-way law.

Williams said the law giving right-of-way to vehicles on the state's growing freeway system because it implies legal priority to drivers on approach ramps.

Members of the Commission agreed informally that vehicles traveling on a freeway should have the right-of-way over those entering even from the right.

The Commission also was asked by Williams to look into the question of how low a vehicle should be permitted to be built. He said some modified cars are so low that in the event of a flat tire, the cars undercarriage can catch on the road throwing the vehicle out of control.

Mrs. Neuberger Endorses Stevenson

New York—(UP)—Mrs. Maurine Neuberger, Democratic candidate for the senate seat of her late husband, Sen. Richard Neuberger, announced Thursday night her endorsement of Adlai Stevenson for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Mrs. Neuberger said: "I think Governor Stevenson is certainly the most capable and the leader of the group of candidates. If a national plebiscite were taken today, Governor Stevenson would still be ahead."

Mrs. Neuberger was in New York to speak at the Lexington Democratic Club's annual lunch Saturday. The speech she will deliver originally was to have been given by her husband.

Dispute Ties Up Ship at Portland

Portland—(UP)—The Malson ship Hawaiian Citizen remained tied up in Portland harbor today as the result of a dispute over how many men should man her.

The vessel recently was converted to a container-type ship, meaning its cargo can be handled by fewer men. The Sailors Union of the Pacific claims 51 crewmen should man the vessel while employers say 48.

A meeting in San Francisco Wednesday to try to settle the dispute broke up without success.

PINEAPPLE REVOLT
Winchester, Va.—(UP)—Yvonne Mondonca, 20, a hazel-eyed beauty from Hawaii, was crowned by Hawaii Gov. William Quinn Thursday as queen of the Shenandoah Apple Blossom Festival.
