Klamath's Pelicans Defeat Ashlanders

Klamath Falls (Sp) The Klamath Falls Pelicans took a baseball doubleheader from the Grants Pass High Cavemen here Saturday, winning the Southern Oregon conference hassle 5 to 2 and the second game 5 to 1.

Steve Binney drove home one run and Don Willey knocked in two in the sixth inning for the Klamath margin of victory in the league brush. John Webb tossed a five-hitter for the Pels.

In other Saturday action between the two schools Grants Pass won the tennis match 4 to 3 and Grants Pass the track meet 81½ to 40½.

Klamath Falls — Klamath Union high school bolstered its second place grasp in Southern Oregon conference baseball Friday with a 6 to 2 triumph over Ashland here.

Victory in the non-counting game went to the Pelicans, too, by 8 to 1.

Four runs in the third inning were enough for KF decision in the afternoon starter Rick Depew tripled, Blake Griggs homered and Ray Taylor, Dave Saks and Steve Binney singled. Ashland scored both its runs in the sixth frame on a walk and its only hits of the scuffle, a single by Mike Brewer and a three-bagger by Phil Tucker.

Griggs Hurts Hand

Pitcher Blake Griggs, who held Ashland hitless over his four innings on the mound, hurt his hand when he dropped to the ground in effort to avoid an inside throw during his fourth frame batting turn. He finished the game in the outfield and Paul Bishop went the rest of the route on the hill.

Griggs fanned five batters and issued 4 bases on balls. Bishop walked two and fanned three. Among Pelican hitters, Saks had three singles and Depew a pair of three-base blasts. Griggs had a triple as well as a home run.

Pat Carney limited the Grizzlies to one hit in the five-inning second encounter. He walked four and fanned four. Klamath got five of its runs in the second inning on a double by Sherm Allen, singles by Henry Herrera and Binney and three bases on balls. Ashland's only hit was a single by Dickerson.

Kart Races To Be Held

Rogue River Another program of racing is set for this afternoon at Rogue Kart Speedway here.

Gates open for practice at 12:30 p.m. and first race is at 2 p.m. The slate included heat races, Class A (junior) and Class B (senior) trophy races and a main event.

Young Stephen Nerk of Shady Cove won the trophy Sunday for Class A race and Doug Simmons of Medford won the main event. Miss Dianne Kenner, Rogue River High school girl, was the Trophy Girl for the day. Class A trophy was donated by Lon Skinner of Skinner's Buick garage in Medford and the main event trophy was donated by the Montague Brother's speedway.

Local Telephone Team Bowling

Medford's telephone company bowlers traveled to Portland this week end for the annual intra-company tourney that may lead to statewide and coastwide honors.

At stake are statewide team and individual trophies, and the Mark R. Sullivan trophy honoring the chairman of The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company. The trophy goes to the state with the highest gross score-total pins plus handicap.

44 Teams

On the state-wide level, the 44 teams competing are rolling for high team, first three individual high game and high series trophies.

A special tourney event will be the two-frame competition between vice president and general managers of the company's six operating areas. F. M. Mitchell, vice president and general manager, will represent Oregon.

The Medford TEAM team includes J. Martin, W. Judy, H. Hickman, J. Archer and J. Strobel.

SUSPENSION LIFTED

Milwaukee, Wis. (UPI)—Heavyweight Willi Besmanoff went ahead with plans today to meet Eddie Machen in a 10-round bout at Seattle, Wash., July 13 after learning that his suspension by the Washington State Athletic commission has been lifted. He was suspended for pulling out of a previously-scheduled bout with Machen.

Tornado Baseball Aggregation Subdues Ashland, Crater High

SOUTHERN OREGON CONFERENCE STANDINGS

	W.	L.	Pct.
Medford	5	0	1.000
Klamath Falls	5	1	.833
Crater	1	3	.250
Grants Pass	1	4	.200
Ashland	1	5	.167

Powering to a twinbill verdict over the Ashland High school Grizzlies yesterday after a pair of harder to come by victories on Friday over the Crater Comets, the Medford Black Tornado extended its unblemished baseball streak to 15 games this season.

With Jerry Anderson and Jim Barry smashing out home runs and Anderson chucking two-hit ball, Medford trimmed Ashland 5 to 1 in one Saturday skirmish. An eight-run first inning, three for three hitting by Barry and three-hit throwing by Pat McLaughlin were features of a 15 to 2 decision in the other.

On Friday the Black Tornado came from behind to tip Crater 7 to 5 in a toughie and closed out the afternoon with another win by a margin of 5 to 3.

Second Inning Homers

The 7 to 5 and the 5 to 1 games were Southern Oregon conference counters and gave the loop-pacing Tornado a five-win no-loss status in the circuit.

Both home runs yesterday were in the second inning. Anderson lofted the ball to a fenced off area onto a bank beyond the left field playing area. Barry's blow was to center field. The ball bounded to a practice area backstop in the centerfield.

Two other runs were in the fifth inning on successive doubles by Dick Ragsdale and Ken Jensen and a single by Lowell Dean. A walk to Barry, his stolen base and an error made a run in the sixth canto. Ashland tallied in the third inning on a single by Harris and an outfield miscue on a hit by Doug Forrest.

Ragsdale, Jensen and Anderson each had two hits in the fracas. From the hill Anderson whiffed six and walked just one. Medford got 10 hits off Harley Dickerson who fanned three batters and gave four bases on balls.

Six Hits in Frame

Six hits figured in Medford's eight-run frame of the second mix. There were two singles by Ragsdale and one each by Jensen, Barry, Wayne Thompson and Cal Dean. Two walks were given up and there were two errors.

Four of the markers were in the fifth inning on a double by Barry, singles by Lowell Dean, McLaughlin and Cal Dean, a walk, a hit batter and a fielder's choice.

Ragsdale hit two for two for Medford and Cal Dean also had two hits. McLaughlin walked four and fanned two. Ashland's runs were in the second inning on a walk, two errors and Jerry Hauck's safe swat.

TORNADO TOPS COMETS

Crater gave Medford a real good scare Friday in the league game at Central Point. The Black Tornado had to erase a two-run deficit to come out on top. The home diamond Comets led 4 to 2 after five innings. Medford collected three runs in sixth inning to go ahead. Then, in the seventh the Tornado picked up a pair of scores which turned out to be the margin of victory. Crater in its seventh inning batting turn tallied once and had the possible tying marker on base.

In the second ruckus, a kings-x affair, Medford gained a 5 to 1 margin and was challenged in the bottom of the five when the Comets put two runs across and got another runner to third base.

Lowell Dean of Medford led the batting parade in the conference game with three hits, two of the triples. Pat Pepper had a perfect batting game for the Comets with three singles. Jim Allen of Crater, with a double and single, was the only player with more than one hit.

Cal Dean Homers

Cal Dean hit two for two for Medford with a homer and Ed Allen three for three for Crater with a triple to feature the second mix.

Pitcher Bill Anhorn kept Medford in hand for five innings of the opener with only four safeties allowed in that time. But, he yielded two singles in the sixth and three in the seventh for a total of nine. Crater got to Medford's Herb Wheeler for six hits in 4 1/3 innings and to Jerry Anderson for two over the rest of the way.

Cal Dean, who did not enter the tussle until the fifth canto, came up with a key blow for Medford in that frame. His brother, Lowell, singled but was forced out at second base by Mike Parsons. Anderson flied out and Bob Quinney drew a base on balls. Cal, then, whammed the ball to left centerfield. The hit scored Parsons. Throw from the outfielder came into pitcher Anhorn, whose heave to third in effort to catch Quinney was wide. Both Quinney and Cal Dean were able to score.

In the seventh inning Dick Ragsdale walked. With two out Lowell Dean three-bagged and Parsons singled. Another safety by Anderson and a walk to Quinney loaded up the sacks but Cal Dean's groundout concluded the surge.

For Crater in the seventh Loyal Higinbotham grounded out. Jeff Anhorn and Pepper walked. Bill Anhorn forced out Jeff at third but Jim Allen doubled to bring Pepper home. Pinchhitter Ed Allen flied out to end the fracas.

Medford tabulated in the first inning on two errors and a hit by Ken Jensen. A single by Pat Pepper and three-baser by Bill Anhorn in the second stanza knotted the game. John Anhorn's walk and steal and Tornado error gave Crater a 2 to 1 edge in the third inning. The Medford club tied it in the fourth on Lowell Dean's triple and a passed ball.

Comets Go Ahead

Jerry Korbol led off the fifth panel for Crater with a wind blown fly to centerfield which Anderson couldn't snare on a long run. Higinbotham singled and Jeff Anhorn advanced the runners with a sacrifice. Pepper singled home Korbol and Anderson replaced Wheeler on the hill. Anderson whiffed Bill Anhorn but Jim Allen hit to bring home Higinbotham. Louis Alvarez's groundout ended the inning.

Both teams scored in the first inning of the second game—Medford on two walks and Crater on an error and Ed Allen's three-base sock. The Tornado got two runs in the third inning on consecutive hits by Cal Dean, Ragsdale and Jensen, a ground out, a hit batter and Bob Quinney's sacrifice fly. Ray Konopasek singled, Bud Lowery singled and Cal Dean homered for two Tornado runs in the fourth.

Crater gained tallies in the fifth on singles in a row by Ron Hale, Mike Glines, Ed Allen and Korbal's flyout sacrifice.

Medford pitcher Bud Lowery struckout five and walked one in a seven-hit game. Crater starting pitcher yielded four hits and reliever Mike Pepper two, Anhorn walked two and hit one.

Mike Parsons turned in some sparkling fielding for Medford in the right pasture during the doublebill.

MHS Wins In Tennis

Medford High school tennis team defeated Eureka 5 to 2 Saturday and 7 to 0 Friday in the California city.

The wins made it three in a row for the Tornado over the Loggers. Medford won an earlier match here 4 to 3.

Eureka had several players on the injured list this week end but had a couple of the players back for the Saturday go.

Winning singles for the Tornado yesterday were Gary Cummings over Bill Goodwin, 6-2, 6-2, Dave Ryn over Jim Wilworth, 7-5, 6-4, Jim Randles over Randy Teach, 6-2, 6-1, and John McKinley over Mel Hansen, 6-1, 6-0. Randles and McKinley teamed in the doubles to down Bryan Ogden and Hansen, 6-2, 6-3.

Logger Victories

Taking tiffs for the Loggers were Lee Turner over John Shaw 4-6, 6-4, 6-2, and the duo of Goodwin and Turner over Cummings and Shaw, 6-2, 9-7.

Singles results on Friday were Cummings over Turner, 6-1, 6-0; Shaw over Wilworth, 6-2, 6-4; Dave Ryn over Hansen, 6-2, 6-1; Randles over Ogden, 6-0, 6-2, and McKinley over Larry Hollene, 6-0, 6-3. In doubles McKinley and Randles defeated Turner and Wilworth, 7-5, 5-7, 6-4, and Cummings and Shaw beat Ogden and Hansen, 3-6, 6-0, 6-2.

Medford and Grants Pass were left in a tie for the Southern Oregon conference court title when the Cavemen downed Klamath Falls 4 to 3 yesterday. The Tornado and Cavemen divided in their meetings for their only conference losses. Medford will enter the district tourney at Klamath Falls next Friday with a 11-3 full season record.

3 Straight Wins Gives SOC Lead

Portland—Southern Oregon barged ahead of Portland State in the Oregon collegiate conference baseball chase by taking a three-game week end series from the Vikings here.

Yesterday the Red Raiders of SOC added 5 to 4 and 5 to 2 decisions to a 7 to 0 count on Friday. The wins made Southern Oregon 5-2 in the OCC tabulation. PSC is now 4-4.

The Raiders face Oregon Tech at Klamath Falls on Tuesday.

Phil Sword banged in the tying and winning counters in the first fray yesterday with two out in the top of the seventh inning. John Cook walked in the inning and both he and Eldon Francis were safe on an error on Francis' bunt. Bob Jones flied out but the runners advanced after the catch. Sword then got the pay-off hit.

Three Pitches, Two Outs

Cook went in to pinch hit for John Younger in the seventh and stayed in to pitch. He gave way to Jack Brown when Coach Ted Schopf went on to the field for the second time in the inning. PSC runners were on first and third and there was one out. Brown retired the side on three pitches on a groundout and foul out.

Sword homered in the second inning and had three runs batted in. Dick Peters hit a three-run homer for the Viks.

Three runs in the fourth inning made the difference in the second Saturday tangle for SOC. Marty Vogler got an infield hit, went to third base on Jim Dietz' sacrifice and scored on an error on a throw to third. Francis singled and stole second base. Cook doubled and Sword singled to account for the runs.

Francis and Dietz hit two for three in the game and Dennis Heath homered for Portland.

Southern Oregon had three double plays in the second game, one ending the series.

Don Vannice chucked seven-hit ball and Kermit McLemore wielded the heftiest bat Friday as Southern Oregon shut out the Vikings in the Friday opener of the series.

There was no scoring until the seventh inning when the Red Raiders of the Rogue valley put over three markers. These were on a double by Jack Brown, singles by McLemore and Vannice and three bases on balls. Four SOC runs crossed in the ninth on an error, a hit batter, a drag bunt single by Eldon Francis, a Phil Sword double, another hit batter and a single by McLemore.

Vannice struck out five and walked two. Three of the hits he allowed were doubles. McLemore hit three for four. Only one PSC runner reached third base.
