

Mr. and Mrs. David William Howell

Hotel Fund To Benefit From Concert

A double purpose will draw music patrons to a concert set for this afternoon at Medford High school at three o'clock. They will be able to hear a program of favorite music, and will also contribute to the fund to restore the historic U. S. Hotel in Jacksonville.

The concert is being sponsored by the Siskiyou Pioneer Sites foundation. The music will be played by the Philharmonic Society of Southern Oregon orchestra with Richard D. Werner directing.

The program has been termed a "Pops" concert and works by Victor Herbert, Kern, Offenbach, Gershwin, Friml, Guion and Hosner will be played and sung.

Three well known vocal soloists will be featured in numbers from Kern's "Show Boat" and Gershwin's "Porgy and Bess." They are Mrs. Henry (Sylvia) DeVoss, Talent; Mrs. John (Sue) Boe, Grants Pass; and Maynard Hadley, Mrs. DeVoss is a soprano, Mrs. Boe, a contralto, and Mr. Hadley, a basso.

Tickets will be on sale at the door.

Newlyweds To Live In Medford

Eagle Point - Mr. and Mrs. Donald Windsor Cox will make their home in Medford following their wedding trip to northern Oregon. The couple was married April 23 at the New Age church with the Rev. D. E. Millard officiating.

The bride is the former Mrs. Vada Marie Christensen, 33 North B street, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Soren Hansen, Eagle Point. Mr. Cox is a son of Mrs. Alice I. Cox, 23 West Third street.

The bride wore a pink nylon over taffeta frock with pink accessories and her flowers were gardenias.

Mr. and Mrs. David F. Cox, brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom, attended the couple. Mrs. Cox chose a silk checked frock of pink, white and light blue with light blue and pink accessories. Her corsage was of pink and white carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Millard furnished the wedding music for the double ring ceremony attended by 15 relatives and friends.

The bride came to the Rogue River valley about a year ago from Wisconsin. Mr. Cox, a native of Idaho, lived in Grants Pass for five years prior to moving to Eagle Point in 1947. He served 20 months in the service and is employed by R. B. Brown Trucking firm.

Following the wedding a dinner was held for the couple in Medford.

Wenonah Club To Hold Party

Members of Wenonah club of Westonka Council, Degree of Pochontas, will hold their annual extra party and luncheon Tuesday, May 3, at 12:30 p.m. in Redman hall, Apple street.

The public is invited. Persons may make reservations by telephoning Mrs. Gladys Rammin, Spring 2-6999, or Mrs. James Wicher, Spring 2-2985.

Miss Sharon Lohr Wed To David William Howell

Tiller - Miss Sharon Rae Lohr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lohr, Canyonville, became the bride of David William Howell, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Howell, Tiller, in a ceremony held April 16 at Tiller South Umpqua Community church.

The Rev. Hilton Park officiated at the double ring rites attended by more than 200 relatives and friends. Baskets of white and orchid colored flowers decorated the church for the four o'clock afternoon ceremony. A flower arrangement, candles and Bible were at the altar. John Fenderson, Tiller City, and Ernest Shippen, Canyonville, were soloists.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length white gown of nylon organza over net and taffeta styled on princess lines. The neckline and side panels of the skirt were trimmed with iridescent sequins and Venice lace. The skirt back was accented by a bustle and her fingertip length silk illusion veil was held by a tiara of Venice lace trimmed with pearls and sequins. She carried cymbidium orchids, stephanotis and ribbons on a white Bible.

Miss Linda Lohr, Santa Cruz, Calif., was honor attendant for her sister, Miss Marilyn Howell, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Diane K. Garrison, Eugene, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore orchid brocade sheath frocks with matching nylon organza overskirts. Their headresses were orchid and held orchid veils. They each carried a small white Bible, gifts of the bride, with vanda orchids and lily of the valley.

Lindon Powell, Ashland, served as best man and seating the guests were Carl Giles, Days Creek; Robin Kleg, Roseburg; and Leon Newman, Richard Tibbets and Thomas Bayne, lighted the candles and assisted in seating guests.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Lohr chose a beige dress with avocado accessories. Mrs. Howell wore a beige frock with orchid accessories.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Tiller school auditorium. Mrs. Reed Garrison, Eugene, aunt of the bride, cut and served the wedding cake assisted by Miss Dorothy Newman, Eugene. Mrs. John Harder, Canby, and Mrs. Harold Bauer, Hillsboro, aunts of the bride, poured the coffee and punch. They were assisted by Miss Velma Tibbets, Miss Sandra Jeter and Miss Sylvia Parke. Mrs. Lester Estep and Miss Penny Garrison, Eugene, cousins of the bride, were in charge of the guest book and Miss Frances Newman, Eugene, and Miss Mary Harder, Canby, cousin of the bride, were at the gift table. Mrs. Donald Newman was in charge of flowers and decorations.

The bride is a graduate of Canyonville High school and attended Bethany Bible college, Santa Cruz, Calif., for two years. She is a typist for the L. M. Ross company, Canyonville. Mr. Howell is a graduate of Days Creek High school and served with the U. S. Navy. He is employed by the Albert-Boyd Logging company.

The couple will return to their home today in Tiller from a wedding trip to southern California. For traveling the bride wore a brocade suit of aquamarine with black accessories and white gloves.

Fellowship Luncheon Set Friday

The annual May Fellowship luncheon, which is a highlight in each year's activities of special days as observed by the Medford Council of United Church Women, will be held in the YMCA building, Friday, May 6.

A May basket luncheon will be served at 12 noon with Mrs. Lionel Rankin and Mrs. Byron Pierce chairmen of arrangements. Mrs. Everett Faber, president of the council, will introduce guests during the luncheon period.

Under the theme "Citizenship - Free and Responsible," Mrs. Everett Lasher and Mrs. Lyle Schoppert, co-chairmen for the day, have arranged a program of music, talks and a skit which will depict the importance of informing ourselves regarding measures to be voted on during the coming election and the candidates seeking office. Mrs. C. E. Wilson will talk on the "Responsibility of the Christian Woman."

Young People
 Young people who will speak will be Miss Shirley Bowwell and Robert Baker, who represented the Tri Hi-Y and the Hi-Y at sessions of the state legislature in Salem. They will discuss the topic "What Legislature Means to Me." Miss Pat Sigman, who was chaplain of the senate from the Medford group, will also participate.

John Lusk will furnish organ music from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m., and Mrs. R. A. Schuchard will direct the Mother-singers in several numbers. Mrs. Alton Perry will lead devotions.

Mrs. E. Angus Tyck, teacher of Bible history in the schools, will tell of her experiences in that field and results noted in the work which is under the direction of the Jackson County Board of Christian Education. Proceeds from the luncheon will be used to assist in this work.

Assisting with program arrangements are Mrs. B. M. Hoover, Mrs. Stanley Martin, Mrs. Walter Higgins, Mrs. Charles Henry, Mrs. Walter Nunley and Mrs. C. V. Kline. The women are representatives from several of the affiliated churches of the council.

Young mothers may leave their children at the nursery in the First Methodist church, it was announced. Tickets for the luncheon may be obtained from representatives from the affiliated churches of the council.
