

Mrs. John Dickson (at right) chairman of the Bell Ringers March to be held May 6, met last week with two co-workers, Lindsey W. Vinsel and Mrs. Theodore Brown, to make further plans for the event. Bell Ringers ask citizens to remember the mental health slogan, "Let's Conquer Mental Illness." The efforts of medical science should now concentrate on the solution of mental health problems.

Art, Science Exhibits Attracts Large Crowd

Central Point-The art and science exhibits, given in conjunction with the final meeting of the Central Point-Teacher-Association, were attended by many parents and friends at Crater High school Monday, April 26.

Experiments in electricity, chemistry, and other phases of general science were shown by students in attendance. Projects in Biology by individuals and by groups were on display and discussed. New teaching aids were also on display with continuous assembling of parts and a running commentary. A dark room exhibit was in an adjoining room.

Mechanical drawing and manual art presented a wide variety of the world done in that department. Gun racks and water guns were among the most popular items, it was reported. Ability toward fine detail was shown in the various types of tables, chests, shelves, and headboards that

Patio Cookery Scheduled For Home Extension Units

Home Extension units of Jackson county will all have lessons on patio cookery this month. The lesson will include the selection and use of equipment, the different types of cookery such as broiling, foil cookery, spits and shish kabobs, and foods to use in the menu planning.

Proper organization of patio cookery so that it will entail less work will be shown. Mrs. Gretchen Wade, hostess for the Groceries supermarket and Mrs. John Rollin have trained the unit project leaders.

Four units have scheduled meetings this week and one group, the Griffin Creek unit, has postponed its meeting until May 13 at the home of Mrs. Roy Sanders, Gene Creek.

The Reese Creek unit will meet Tuesday, May 3, at the home of Mrs. Clarence Kelly starting at 10 a.m. Members have been asked to wear clothes suitable for cooking outdoors.

Project leaders will be Mrs. Kelly and Mrs. Robert Scobie. The Kelly home is the sixth house on the left side of Bull road, off Crater Lake highway.

The Wilson Park unit will hold their final meeting of the season Tuesday, May 3, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Darwin Durr, 812 Benson street.

Mrs. Ronald White and Mrs. Thomas Merriman will be co-hostesses with Mrs. O. H. Smetty and Mrs. David

Lone Pine PTA Unit Members Assist At Convention Breakfast

Many officers and members of Lone Pine Parent-Teacher association participated in the annual convention of the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers held last week in Medford. Mrs. William Clark, retiring unit president, was chairman of a breakfast given Wednesday morning for men attending the convention.

Richard Michaels gave a rope twirling act, in keeping with the "Chuck Wagon" breakfast theme. Mr. Michaels is the newly elected president. He teaches the fifth grade, and music.

Lee Merriman, Lone Pine principal, and Roy Gilbertson, Hoover principal, were hosts for the breakfast.
