

Chairman of County Unit of National Foundation Elected

Mrs. Vangie Brain, Medford, was elected chairman of the Jackson county chapter of the National Foundation at the chapter's annual meeting last week.

Mrs. Brain replaces Mrs. Harold Gilbert who resigned. Other officers elected were Clarence Gossage, Medford, vice chairman; Mrs. Zoe Peters, Ashland, secretary, and Jack Moad, Medford, treasurer.

It was announced that Frank Morris, Medford, would be county chairman of the 1961 March of Dimes campaign. Morris headed the Medford campaign last January.

Mrs. Brain announced that Trudy Ackerman and Morris will make up the chapter's patient aid committee, and the finance committee will be composed of Jack Moad, chairman, Jerry Gastineau and Harry Chipman. Pins Presented Foundation service pins will be presented to Mrs. Moore Hamilton and Mrs. Marie Ulrich, 26 years; Gastineau and Chipman, 15 years; Dr. Ralph Thompson, 10 years; Dr. William Miller, Mrs. Lew Miles and Mrs. Harry Chipman, 5 years.

Walker Larsen, Portland, state representative, congratulated the chapter on its January March of Dimes campaign, putting particular emphasis on the Mothers' March. He pointed out that the county's March organization is being held up as an example to other chapters in the west.

Larsen said the National Foundation has undertaken an austerity program because of the decline in national March of Dimes receipts, saying that several executive secretary jobs had been discontinued, several state representatives had been terminated and other areas consolidated.

He said he hoped the Jackson county chapter would be able to take on a full program in birth defects and rheumatoid arthritis, in addition to its polio program, during the next year.

Shots Effective
Dr. Miller, who recently returned from a regional meeting of chapter medical advisers in San Francisco, said the advisers were told that the Salk vaccine is 90 per cent effective in preventing paralytic polio with three shots, and becomes 95 per cent effective when four shots are given, properly spaced.

He said that millions of people are still risking paralytic polio by not taking advantage of the vaccine. Oral polio vaccine, he said, has not yet been proven safe and effective.

The doctors were told that chapters will start the birth defects and arthritis program as they can afford it, he said.

It was reported that the January March of Dimes campaign grossed $16,724.22 in the county. Expenses were $827.88, leaving net receipts of $15,896.34. Of this amount, 50 per cent, or $7,948.17, went to National Foundation headquarters and an equal amount was retained for use in the county.

March of Dimes receipts by towns follows:
Shady Cove, $167.25; Central Point, $1,551.45; Jacksonville, $495.03; Phoenix, $1,055.71; Eagle Point, $552.71; Gold Hill, $270.95; Rogue River, $773.79; Butte Falls, $212.48; Prospect, $903.47; Talent, $229.67; Ashland, $1,549.80, and Medford, $8,954.62.

Resisting Arrest Charged by Police

Medford police arrested a 39-year-old man on charges of being drunk in public and resisting arrest early Friday morning and lodged him in the city jail.

The man, William Ray Stillwell, 512 North Holly st., was allegedly observed walking in an unsteady manner on Holly st., by a policeman on routine patrol, who asked Stillwell his name. He allegedly replied "John D. Rockefeller," and started leaving the scene.

The policeman started following in a patrol car, and Stillwell reportedly came to the driver's side of the police vehicle, opened the door, and slammed it hard enough to dislodge a piece of chrome strip from the side of the vehicle.

Three officers responded to a request for assistance and Stillwell was informed he was under arrest. According to police reports, officers found it necessary to use force in order to place Stillwell in a patrol car.

Once at the police station, Stillwell again put up a struggle, according to police, and this time he sustained a cut on his upper lip while policemen were subduing him.

He has been released on $112 bail, and is scheduled to appear in municipal court Monday.
