

Wagon Trip Plans Noted by Group

George S. Uno, Medford, driver of the Rogue River valley covered wagon in the "On to Oregon Cavalcade" last year, has announced plans for a wagon trip through Washington, Idaho, and Montana to publicize a program to establish an Oregon Trail museum.

McUne presented the trip plans to 12 members of the 1959 Oregon Centennial covered wagon train which met recently in Independence, Ore. The plans were approved. The meeting was held to complete the organization of an Oregon non-profit association to Oreg. Cavalcade. Members will include those persons who made the 2,050 mile trip last year by covered wagon from Independence, Mo.

At the meeting Ray Dunkle, Independence mayor, reported that the city was in the process of creating a Cavalcade committee to work with the organization in establishing the museum. Cavalcade members recommended the site of the last encampment near Independence of the wagon train as the preferred location for the museum.

HAVE A CIGAR

San Antonio, Tex.—Supermarket manager Manuel E. Wehmer nervously chewed his cigar as he told police of a $1,000 robbery at his store. As the handoff had, Wehmer said, the gunman pitched him the cigar and yelled, "I'll see you buddy. Have a cigar on me."

FAMOUS BRAND SELLS

Medford, Conn.—"Brand X" may always come in second in television commercials, but it's a winner for Bernard Leverett. He sells liquor by the name and reports that many customers say, "I've heard a lot about that brand—I'll try it."
