By PETE COLEMAN
United Press International
The Pacific Coast league race, which has been close the past week, got a notch higher last night when Sacramento defeated Vancouver, 4-2, while Tacoma were rained out. The Sacramento win pulled the Solons to within a half game of the Indians. Four clubs, all playing 500 ball, were tied for third place, only two games off the pace.

In other action last night, Salt Lake's sizzling Bees beat Portland 12-6, and San Diego edged Seattle, 7-6.

Schedule Changes
The schedule changes a bit tonight. Sacramento moves into Seattle for a three game set and San Diego goes farther north for a trio with Vancouver. Tacoma remains in Spokane and Salt Lake stays in Portland.

Sacramento got a dandy pitching performance from Jack Caffrey in getting by Vancouver. The Solon hurler gave up only five hits—one of them a solo homer to Chuck Spanial—and was in trouble only in the first and fifth innings when the Mounties scored their runs one at a time.

Jim Bolger broke a 2-2 deadlock in the eighth when he lashed out a two-run single.

Chuck King led off with a home run for Salt Lake and

Velvet, Rowdy Take Retriever Trial Stakes

Velvet, owned by Dr. Charles Versteeg, claimed first in the open. Claude Miles' Boots was second, Dr. E. V. Meyerding's Muffin was third and Bill Bryant's Hope was fourth.

Rowdy took the qualifying stake. The dog is owned by James Stillwell, Klamath Falls. Second was Tom Rickard's Cookie, Kenneth Denman's Nik Nak took third and Leonard Lilya's Imp fourth. A reserve certificate of merit went to Dr. Lee Harlow's Joe and a CM to Earl Warren's Jocko, which was handled by Dave Warren.

MEADOWS OPEN
Portland—(UPI)—Fifty days of horse racing open tonight at the Portland Meadows. Nine events are scheduled for the opening night, topped by the $1,200 inaugural handicap.

Palmer, Collins Play Extra 18 Holes to Decide Winner

Houston, Tex. —(UPI)—Masters champion Arnold Palmer was sure of at least $3,400 more to add to his $44,000 plus bankroll today as he and Bill Collins got set to tee off for an extra 18 holes to decide the winner of the $35,000 Houston Classic golf tournament.

Palmer and Collins wound up the fourth round of the tournament the same way they ended the first round—in a deadlock. They began Thursday by burning up the 7,122-yard Memorial Park course with six-under-par 66's.

But the strain of competition was beginning to tell Monday in what was to have been the final round. Collins, of Crystal River, Fla., shot a three-over-par 75 and Palmer, who plays out of Ligonier, Pa., carded a 73, one over par. Their Worst Round

For each it was the worst round of the tourney, and each ended the regulation distance with 280's for the 72 holes.

Today's playoff will decide who gets the coveted trophy and first prize money of $5,300. The playoff loser will get $3,400.

When the deadlock for first place was announced, both Palmer and Collins agreed there was too much at stake for a sudden death playoff, but they left it up to tourney officials.

Collins clung to a slim two-stroke lead going into Monday's round, but said he "felt terrible all day" and had trouble with his drives. He bogeyed the third, seventh and ninth holes and went into the back nine only a stroke ahead.

On the 11th he missed a three-putt, but came back for birdies on the five-par 13th and on the 16th. On the 17th he saw a spike mark too late and it deflected his 18-foot putt away from the cup, causing him to make a bogey five.

It was there that Palmer caught up with him. Palmer was in less than championship form, three-putting four holes—the 3rd, 10th, 12th and 13th.

Jack Fleck, who won the Phoenix Open from Collins in a playoff earlier this year, wound up Monday with a 72 and a 281 total for third place and prize money of $2,200.

Amateur Richard Crawford of Houston, and pros Doug Sanders of Miami Beach and Gary Player of Johannesburg, South Africa, tied for fourth place with 284 totals; Sanders and Player each earned $1,800.

Mrs. Bayliss Wins Women's Spring Handicap
Winner of the women's spring golf handicap championship at Rogue Valley Country club was Mrs. Warren Bayliss.

She defeated Mrs. Russ Acheson in the title flight finals.

Winners and runners-up, respectively, in other flights were Mrs. L. R. Smith and Mrs. William Clark, first flight; Mrs. Dick House and Mrs. Frank Tanney, second flight; Mrs. R. M. Sorenson and Mrs. Wayne Shaylor, third flight; Mrs. Shyllor Cowning and Mrs. Wayne Saffley, fourth flight; Mrs. Robert Morris and Mrs. Earl Nelson, fifth flight; Mrs. Galen Sanner and Mrs. Howard Scroggin, nine-hole championship flight; and Mrs. John Nulch and Mrs. W. McFadden, nine hole first flight.

There will be no regular ladies' day play at RVCC this Thursday because Rogue Valley women will be hostesses for the first Willamette Valley-Southern Oregon tournament of the season. Play at the club on April 23 was for fewest putts.

Winners were A group, Mrs. Thomas Teutsch; B group, Mrs. W. L. Stark; C group, Mrs. Benton Smith and Mrs. L. G. Melville (tied); D group, Mrs. Dick House; 9-hole C group, Mrs. Dorothy Dowson and 9-hole D group, Mrs. Jim Finegan.

Medford JV Blanks EP

Steve Ray's four-hit pitching guided the Medford High school junior varsity to a 2-0 win over the Eagle Point varsity on the Tornado's home field Monday.

The Eagle pitcher also threw four-hit ball, but the Medford nine was able to turn its hits into runs.

In the third inning, Ken Adams doubled for the Tornado, and Bob Schroder singled to push across the first tally. In the second, Danny Miles singled, advanced to third on an error and wild pitch and then scored on another error.

Tim White hit a long triple for the Medford club in the fourth but tried to stretch it into a home run and was thrown out at the plate.

Ray struck out five while walking two, and allowed no one Eagle batter more than one hit.
