

County 4-H Club Members Named For Summer Camp

Fifty-nine Jackson county 4-H club members have been selected by the county 4-H executive committee to attend this year's 4-H summer school at Oregon State college.

The school will be held June 18 to 25. The 4-H'ers will live in college dormitories, fraternity and sorority houses and will have an opportunity to meet club members from all parts of Oregon.

They will have a variety of subjects from which to choose during class hours which will be taught by college instructors, extension agents and professional people. Swimming, exchange dinners and informal get-togethers are some of the entertainment activities available.

Those selected to attend from Jackson county are Bonnie Knapp, George Mitchell, Mary Kay Hockstatter, Mary Ann Carnegie, Heather Roda, Roxanne Terry, Martha Humphrey, Marjorie Wonderly, Martha Bullard, Russell Fields, James Scott, Chip Buffington and Raymon Nouguier, Medford.

Laura May Noble, Patsy Charley, Paulette Anderson, Alice Woolfolk, Georgia Hubbard, Teresa Prueit, Donna Geren, Susie Carroll, Judy Hill, Karen Jossy, Ellen Hay, Florence Woolfolk, Frances Huffcan, Jerry Moore and Ric Meyer, Eagle Point.

Sally Jo Herriott, Sandy Brewster, Diane Brewster, Mike Elmore, Russell Elmore, Phil Krouse, Virgil Prowell, Robert Piete and Billy Piete, Applegate; Charlotte Bush, Carol Foote, Elaine McKay, Sue Higginbotham, Carolyn Sidener, Nikki Hammond, Karen Alldridge, Laurene Kellow, Clint Gibson and Todd Caster, Central Point.

Linda Mullin, Paulette Creel, Judy Bagley and Ron Whillock, Talent; Janis Torrey, Ashland; Mary Anne Cantrell, Ruch; Laverne Guehes, Patrick Neal, Clyde Travis, and Richard Bottger, Jacksonville; Lanny Parsons, Gold Hill; and Kathy Zapell, Phoenix.

Local Chairman Of Drive Named

Mrs. George Rode, 2242 Buena Vista dr., has been appointed Jackson county chairman of the 1960 World Peace conference to be held in the Multnomah hotel in Portland May 12 and 13. The conference is sponsored by the Democratic party of Oregon.

Mrs. Beulah Hand, Democratic state vice chairman and director of women's activities, announced Mrs. Rode's appointment.

The 1960 conference is the first of its kind to be held on the west coast. Mrs. Hand is urging all interested persons to contact their county chairman for complete details. All women's organizations in the state have been invited to participate and a special invitation has been issued to men to attend.

The conference program will feature panel discussions on the political and economic dimensions of peace, and "peace and disarmament."

Former Congresswoman Helen Gahagan Douglas will speak Friday, May 13, and Mrs. Wayne Morse will address the May 12 luncheon. Mrs. Maurine Neuberger will speak at the May 13 luncheon.

Among panel participants are Charles A. Sprague, former Oregon governor; Karlin M. Capper-Johnson, president of the Oregon UN association; Prof. Raymond F. Mikesell, University of Oregon; and Kalesh Dudharkar, Bombay, India. Foreign students also will speak.

Snow Shovelers Nets Real Cool Profit

Milwaukee - Melvin Brodsky just didn't feel like shoveling the snow off his driveway. For three days he left his car in the garage and took the bus to work.

Brodsky finally tackled the chore when his wife needed the car for a shopping trip.

In clearing away the snow, Brodsky uncovered his wallet containing $30 which he had lost the day he put the car away. A few more minutes of shoveling and he found a $100 bill, which police returned to him when no claims on it were made.

TV SPEEDS CHECK-OUTS

New York UPI - New York's Gaft Hotel is avoiding departure delays by using closed circuit television to keep track of its guests' phone bills. At check-out time, lobby level cashiers thumb a button and their TV screens scan the guest room phone register 22 stories above, giving final bill information fast.
