

Young Mother

One of Medford's interesting and busy young mothers is Mrs. John T. Weisel. Dr. and Mrs. Weisel and their two small children live at 208 Bradford way, and Dr. Weisel is one of the city's physicians. Mrs. Weisel, active in the Jackson County Medical Society auxiliary, Medford Junior Service league and other groups, finds time to sew for herself and her daughter. Last week she was putting the finishing touches on a blue summer dress for Sally.

Sally enjoys a story hour, so with baby Thomas asleep on one arm and the other encircling her daughter, Mrs. Weisel reads aloud from a picture book. The Weisels are members of St. Mark's Episcopal church, and Mrs. Weisel works with the Medford League of Women Voters and the Medford committee of the American Cancer society. She is also a member of Zuleima temple, Daughters of the Nile. The Weisels came to Medford three years ago from Portland. Dr. Weisel is originally from Idaho, and Mrs. Weisel lived in Iowa as a girl.

The most wonderful time of the day for little Sally Weisel is when she is allowed to hold her baby brother, seven-weeks-old Thomas. Life has been filled with excitement and wonder for Sally since baby brother arrived; she holds him with tenderness and lavishes caresses and kisses on him.

Was there ever a little girl who didn't like to help mommy in the kitchen? Sally, who will be four in June, squeezed and pounded a ball of cookie dough with great energy. When mama Audrey turned her attention to heating the milk for the baby's next feeding, Sally did something else which is typical of the small fry — she pinched off a few bits of the raw dough and ate it with great relish.
