Elaine Jeanette Zier Married to David Wade

In an afternoon ceremony April 23 at First Presbyterian church, Miss Elaine Jeanette Zier became the bride of David Lee Wade. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Zier, 2217 Dellwood avenue, and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Charles Babb, 1014 East 11th street, and Sam Wade, 1819 Spring street. The Rev. D. Kirkland West officiated. Baskets of white stock and pink carnations decorated the church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a nylon lace over taffeta with a fitted bodice and elbow-length puffed sleeves. The full skirt was held at the waist with a satin belt. Her floating veil was held by a halo bandeau of silk organza and pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations.

Parents Attend Wedding of Son

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Witte, 2898 South Pacific highway, left Wednesday for Everett, Wash., where they planned to attend the wedding of their son, Douglas, to Miss Bonny Looyen, of Everett.

The bridegroom, a member of the Air Force, is stationed at Payne Air Force base near Everett. Miss Looyen, who will graduate this spring from Everett High school, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne H. Looyen, Everett. The young couple will reside in Everett temporarily.

Browns Entertain Family Visitors

Mrs. Darrel Brown and small daughter, Sandra, flew to the United States recently from London, where Lt. Brown is on duty with the United States Air Force. Mrs. Brown and Sandra spent a week here with the officer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Orrin L. Brown, 1203 Queen Annie avenue, and also visited her parents in Milwaukie, Ore.

Other guests during the traveler's stay were Orrin Brown's two sisters, Mrs. Anthony Timmers and Mrs. Roger Clark, Modesto, Calif., and Mrs. Brown's mother, Mrs. Mary Parks, Oakdale, Calif. Mrs. Parks is remaining for another week.

While Mrs. Brown and her daughter were here the Orrin Browns were hosts for two dinner parties and Mrs. W. H. Arnold gave a coffee for the visitor.

Mrs. Brown and Sandra will return east soon and will be met in New York City by Lt. Brown who will accompany them from that city to London.

Ceremony At Church Weds Couple

Miss Jean Adele Johnson, daughter of Philip R. Johnson, 57 Summit avenue, became the bride of Beldon Garth Fricke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Moon, 1865 Camp Baker road, April 16.

The Rev. George Roseberry performed the double-ring ceremony at 8 o'clock in the evening at First Methodist church. About 100 guests were present. Easter lilies, calla lilies and white iris decorated the altar. Mrs. C. R. Adamson played wedding music and Miss Barbara Tyler sang.

The bride's father gave her in marriage. She wore a ballerina-length dress of Chantilly lace over nylon net, which was styled with a scalloped neckline, three-quarter-length sleeves and a fitted bodice. The veil was of nylon net, fingertip-length, held by a circlet of white blossoms, and her bouquet was of pink roses and rosebuds.

Miss Linda Johnson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her ballerina-length gown was of periwinkle blue velvet with a full skirt and scoop neckline. Her veil was of blue nylon net, held by a band of pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Alice Duckett, grandmother of the bride, wore a lavender dress of nylon over taffeta. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds. The mother of the bridegroom wore a navy blue nylon-over-taffeta frock and a corsage of pink carnations.

Mr. and Mrs. Beldon Garth Fricke

Dean Sherwood was best man and Howard Watkins and Richard Shrader served as ushers.

A reception followed in the church. Mrs. W. A. Tyler cut the cake. Mrs. Maxine Stone poured coffee and Mrs. Ray Stillwell poured punch.

Pink candies decorated the bride's table and a circlet of pink carnations surrounded the punch bowl.

The young people traveled to the Oregon coast and Portland on their honeymoon, the bride wearing a gold and white checked linen suit. They will make their home at 57 Summit avenue.

USAF Officer To Return Here

Mrs. James Lee McDaniel will go to San Francisco this week end to meet her husband, Lt. McDaniel, who is expected to arrive Monday after duty abroad with the United States Air Force. The couple will return to Medford later this week.

Mrs. McDaniel and the couple's children, David Allan, 5, and Dawn Leann, 2, have been making their home here at 722 Beekman street, while the officer was overseas. He reports Monday to Travis Air Force base before a 30-day leave, and at the end of the leave will go on duty at Alameda, Calif.

Medford Couple Home From Trip

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Sutherland have returned to their home at 562 Garfield street after spending five months traveling through the southern states with their trailer coach.

The Sutherlands saw many long-time friends and relatives. In Chula Vista, Calif., they visited Dr. and Mrs. Erin Merkel, and Dr. J. R. Christiansen and family in Manhattan Beach, Calif. The Christiansens were former neighbors of the Sutherlands. In San Diego the travelers spent some time with the Ted Bakers, who also formerly lived on the Old Stage road here.

Other former Medford residents which the Sutherlands saw during their travels were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Yost, who now live in the Safari Trailer court, El Cajon, Calif., and the Richard Greens at Castro Valley. Mrs. Green, the former Bernice Wilson, was at one time a public health nurse in Jackson county.

John Mehl, formerly a neighbor of the Sutherlands, is now resident manager of the Senator hotel in Sacramento, Calif.

To Give Concert

The annual spring concert presented by the vocal music department of Medford High school will be held Thursday, May 12, at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

The program is the last major performance of the school year. Included in the program will be selection by the choir, advanced girls chorus, nonette, and soloists.

The choir recently presented "Oklahoma" and made a tour to Willamette university, Lewis and Clark college and North Eugene High school.

Isaac-Sargent Ceremony

Prospect-Miss Glenda Sargent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Sargent, Prospect, became the bride of Daniel E. Isaac, Central Point, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Isaac, Ocean Lake, in a ceremony held April 16 at Chapel in the Pines, Prospect.

The Rev. George I. Fitch officiated at the single ring rites attended by 75 relatives and friends. Dogwood and flowering quince decorated the church for the six o'clock evening wedding. Mrs. Barnett Lytle was soloist and Miss Jill Hedgepeth played the piano music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white lace over taffeta frock in ballerina length fashioned with large puffed sleeves. Her veil was shoulder length and she carried a bouquet of white carnations and sweet peas.

Miss Tina Warren, Grants Pass, was maid of honor for her cousin, Miss Joyce Moore and Miss Bonnie Mann, Central Point, cousin of the bride, were bridesmaids. They wore pastel colored frocks in ballerina length and carried pink carnations and sweet peas.

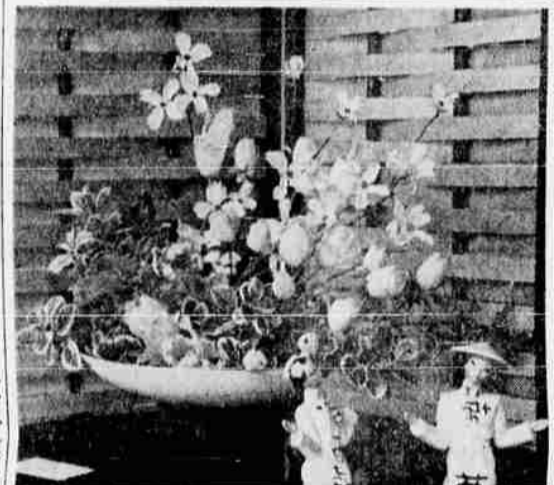

William Isaac, Ocean Lake, served as best man for his brother. Seating the guests were Martin Gilkey and Jim Everndon, cousin of the bridegroom, both Central Point.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Prospect Community hall. Mrs. Floyd Everndon, aunt of the bridegroom, cut and served the wedding cake and Mrs. James Slack presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. Halvor Garden poured the coffee. Miss Warren was in charge of the guest book and Miss Bonnie Mann and Miss Joyce Moore were at the gift table.

For her daughter's wedding and reception Mrs. Sargent wore a blue silk print dress with matching duster and white accessories. Her flowers were white carnations. Mrs. Isaac chose a light blue sheath dress with white accessories and pink camellia corsage. For her traveling attire the bride wore a beige suit with white accessories and a white camellia corsage. The couple is at home in Medford.

The bride attended Prospect schools. Mr. Isaac attended Elkton High school and is employed by Mt. Pitt Lumber company.

Guests attending the annual benefit tea given recently by the Medford committee, American Cancer society, voted this flower arrangement made by Mrs. Randolph Huddahl, first place in a flower arranging contest entered by clubs of the city. It was made of dogwood, orange poppies and yellow and white tulips with variegated leaves, and entered in the name of Mistletoe club, Royal Neighbors of America. It was placed on a low black table, accented with figurines and the backdrop was a natural colored screen.
