Chapter Observes 60th Birthday

Reames chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, observed the 60th anniversary of organization at the last meeting held at Medford Masonic temple. The event also honored 50-year and charter members.

Honored guests were Mrs. Esther Coleman and Mrs. Maude Duffy.

The temple was decorated with dogwood and a large "60."

During the social hour refreshments were served from tables decorated with carnations, peonies, ivy and yellow tapers. At each place setting was a small cake holding a lighted candle. Mrs. Coleman and Mrs. Duffy cut and served the birthday cake.

Mrs. Roy Nordwick was chairman, assisted by Mrs. V. A. Turpin, Mrs. Stewart Pennington, Mrs. Lloyd Caton and Mrs. E. G. Randolph.

The chapter will honor mothers and observe men's night at a stated meeting Thursday, May 12 at 8 p.m. in the temple.

Mrs. Audrey Roberts, worthy matron, and Carl Oestreich, worthy patron, will preside.

E. G. Randolph and John Eddy will be chairman for the social hour and refreshments following the meeting.

Mortar Board Pledges Coed

Corvallis—Miss Sally J. Elden, Central Point, is one of 19 Oregon State college coeds chosen to be members next year of Mortar Board, senior women's honor and service society. She will be a senior next year in education.

Selection to Mortar Board is considered top campus recognition for senior women. Campus leadership, scholarship and character are considered in the selection.

Miss Elden's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Elden, Central Point.

'Rhapsody in Roses' St. Mary's Prom Theme

"Rhapsody in Roses" was the theme of St. Mary's High school junior-senior prom. The dinner-dance was held at Rogue Valley Country club Friday evening, April 29.

The tables were decorated with red roses held in vases made by the decorating committee. At the entrance there was a four-tiered fountain in which roses floated. Large white satin letters over the orchestra spelled out the theme. Blaine Trickle and Trio furnished music.

Dr. and Mrs. F. T. Burick, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Naumes and Dr. and Mrs. Florian Shasky were chaperones.

Miss Ann Manno and Fred Burich, presidents of the two junior classes, were co-chairmen for the prom. Program chairman were the Misses
