

Arm Chair Program Announced

United State forest service personnel will show colored slides of Oregon forests and parks at the Arm Chair Travel group meeting Monday, May 9, at 1 p.m. in the Senior Activity center, 601 East Jackson street. Mrs. Judd Greenman is arranging the weekly program during May.

Since the start of the Center 1 1/2 years ago more than 70 older persons have attended this travel group series, many of them every week. This was announced recently by Mrs. Harry Fuller, board member, who has kept a record of the addresses of persons who use the Center.

Mrs. Fuller explained that the board wishes to know if the Center is centrally enough located to serve all the senior citizens when adequate quarters can be built on the same property. The present structure will accommodate 25 persons, it was explained.

It was noted that only Portland, Eugene, and Medford have activities for their senior citizens in the categories of orchestra and painting and woodworking classes. This point was brought out recently at the Oregon State Conference on Aging in Salem.

Since October, 1958, 2,943 persons have used the Center.

Mrs. Jack Van Dyck, 2170 Barnett road, was named winner of a popularity contest staged by Radio Station KYJC to select a Medford Mother for 1960. Mrs. Van Dyck poses here in the family home with five of her seven children as they prepared to observe a birthday. Pictured are (left to right) Gregory, 12, who celebrated his 12th birthday April 30; Linda, 15; Rita, 6; Jeffery, who will be 4 this month; Stanley 8; Karen, 19, works as a dental assistant and was on duty when the picture was taken;

Douglas, 16, was out mowing lawns to earn his own pocket money. Mr. Van Dyck is a salesman for Big Pines Lumber company and works nights as a movie projectionist. The family all attend Sacred Heart Catholic church and Mrs. Van Dyck works in both of the parents clubs of St. Mary's school. The family raises a large garden every year and Mrs. Van Dyck makes a large part of the clothing the children wear. (Anders photo)
