

Mothers and Grandmothers Day will be observed by the Chris Hagler family today, because the Hagler boys (above) have three great-grandmothers and two grandmothers to honor. The family includes (left to right, seated) Mrs. Ellen Jones, East Eighth street, great-grandmother; Joe Dee Hagler, 5; Mrs. Nettie Hanger, Jacksonville, great-grandmother; Mrs. Lena Rasmussen, 1019 West Main street, great-grandmother; and James Hagler; (standing, left to right) John Hagler, in arms of his grandmother, Mrs. Rena Hagler, 624 East Ninth street; Mrs. Ernest Rasmussen, Jacksonville, grandmother, holding grandson, Josh Hagler. The boys are sons of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Hagler 2344 Thorn Oak drive. Mrs. Hanger was born in 1873 in Wisconsin and has 38 grandchildren and 66 great-grandchildren. Mrs. Rasmussen, who was born in Minnesota in 1878, also has 38 grandchildren and 77 great-grandchildren. Mrs. Jones was born in South Dakota and has 9 great-grandchildren. She was a great-grandmother when she was 55 years old.

Royal Neighbors Elect At 28th District Session

Ashland-Medford was selected as the 1961 meeting place and officers were elected at the recent 28th annual district convention of Southern Oregon Royal Neighbors of America. The session was held in the Ashland IOOF hall.

Mrs. Carl Dalenberg, district orator, presided. Members of Medford, Ashland, Klamath Falls, Jacksonville, Central Point and Grants Pass camps attended.

Officers elected to preside at next year's convention are Mrs. Carl Pearson, Medford, district orator; Mrs. E. A. Graham, Jacksonville, vice-orator; Mrs. David Frayzier, Medford, recorder-receiver; Mrs. Mabel Hazelwood, Ashland, chancellor; and Mrs. Irvin Patten, Medford, marshal.

State, supreme and district officers and deputies were introduced during the afternoon session. They were presented with corsages by two escort boys, Mark and Randy Callahan, grandsons of Mrs. T. H. Callahan, Ashland. Each camp also presented gifts to the officers.

Those honored included Mrs. Earl Duvall, Yakima, state supervisor; Mrs. Leonora Broili, Ashland, past state supervisor; Mrs. Frank Steele, Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Clayton Walker, Medford, district deputies; and Mrs. Frank Danford, Yakima, supreme auditor.

Officers who conducted the convention, in addition to Mrs. Dalenberg, were Mrs. N. S. Hepburn, Klamath Falls, past orator; Mrs. Carl Pearson, Medford, vice-orator; Mrs. Alex Cammock, Klamath Falls, chancellor; Mrs. Clarence Hartwell, Ashland, recorder-receiver; Mrs. Lawrence Barleen, Klamath Falls, marshal; Mrs. E. O. Graham, Jacksonville, assistant marshal.

Mrs. Milo O'Hara, Ashland, was musician; Mrs. Ruby Mallory, Medford, flag bearer; Mrs. Lester DeShazer, Ashland, inner sentinel; Mrs. Ruby Alexander, Klamath Falls, outer sentinel; Miss Blanche Arnold, Medford, faith; Mrs. Albert Longmier, Klamath Falls, courage; Mrs. Norman Slinger, Central Point, modesty; Mrs. Ivan Farris, Ashland, unselfishness; and Mrs. Ernest Rasmussen, Jacksonville, endurance.

Mayor Richard Neill welcomed the group to Ashland and Mrs. Frank Danford gave the response. Members of the Past Orator club of Ashland were hosts for the convention luncheon. Each camp took part in a school of instruction during the afternoon.

A banquet was held in Bellview Grange hall Friday night. Mrs. Scott Hall, Ashland, was toastmistress. Space age decorations centered the tables.

Candidates were initiated by the Klamath Falls camp in ceremonies which were open to the public. The Jacksonville camp presented a me-

Books To Be Presented Two Schools

The history department of the two Medford junior high schools with the cooperation of the school librarians will be host at a tea honoring the Elta Duell Hubbs Tent of the Daughters of the Union Veterans at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday, May 10, in the library at Hedrick Junior High school.

At that time, a committee from Elta Duell Hubbs tent will present a selection of books concerning the Civil War to the history department. The books will become part of the reference section in each of the junior high schools.

Mrs. Mildred Rogers, librarian at Hedrick, and Mrs. Jane Baker, acting librarian of McLoughlin, will accept the presentation.

Raymond Graves, head of the junior high schools' history department, is in charge of arrangements. Members of the school faculty and system administration staff will also be in attendance.

Committee members making the presentation will include Mrs. Andrew Severson, president; Mrs. C. D. Hersher, senior vice-president and chairman of the book selection committee; Mrs. Fred Daugherty, secretary and committee member; Mrs. Sadie DeLaMater, committee member; and Miss Joan Guyer.

FLOOR SAMPLE SALE

at

GRAY'S FURNITURE BARN, INC.

99 Hiway—Central Point

ENDS TODAY AT 6:00

Colonel Paine Honored By Red Cross Directors

Col. William Paine, a life member of the board of directors of Jackson County chapter, American Red Cross, was honored at the monthly meeting of the board held Thursday at the chapter house.

He was presented a decorated cake with nine candles, one for each decade of his life. The cake had been made by women of the canteen corps.

Mrs. J. W. Burba, chairman of the blood program, reported on the results of the April visits of the bloodmobile in Medford and Shady Cove. The bloodmobile will be in Ashland June 13, and in Medford June 14.

Grant Quinney Jr., Junior Red Cross member of the board, introduced his guest, Tony Marshall, student body president of St. Mary's academy. Dave Irving, president of the Junior Red Cross council, reported on their present activities, and invited everyone to attend the art exhibit at Medford High school.

The need of volunteers to serve on the public information committee was discussed at length. Anyone interested in this type of activity was urged to contact the office.

Mrs. Lillian Salade, chairman, announced the Red Cross benefit held Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Eden.

Medford Woman Named to Office

Mrs. Lorraine Miller, Roland's Studio of Beauty, was reelected as third vice president of the Oregon Beauticians association at their annual convention held in Salem last week.

Also attending the state meet from Medford were Mrs. Peggy Lewellyn, president of the Medford unit; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Byrd, and Glen Funk.

The 1961 convention will be held in Bend.

Patio Cookery Programs Planned for Four Groups

Patio cookery will be demonstrated at home extension unit meetings this week.

Applegate Valley
Mrs. Carl Herriott and Mrs. C. O. Gearhardt will lead the demonstration for the Lower Applegate valley meeting Tuesday, May 10, at the home of Mrs. Leon Offenbacher.

The meeting will start at 10:15 a.m. and those attending are to take their own table service. A small fee will be charged for lunch.

Oak Grove
The Oak Grove group will meet Tuesday, May 10, at 10:30 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Vernon Turpin, Route 2, Box 424. Mrs. Robert Castle will be co-hostess.

The project lesson will be given by Mrs. Ralph Wiese and Mrs. Rollin Jones.

Mrs. Gilbert Munden will be installed chairman; Mrs. Henry Zacharisen, vice-chairman; Mrs. Robert Wobbe, secretary; and Mrs. Robert Castle, treasurer.

Mrs. John Aeschliman, Mrs. William Tope and Mrs. Zacharisen are on the luncheon committee.

Eagle Point
Outdoor cookery will be put into practice by the Eagle Point Home Extension unit at their meeting Thursday, May 12. Members will barbecue lunch on the patio of the Robert Walch home at Walch's Lakes on the Butte Falls highway.

Mrs. Alice Schneider and Mrs. Robert Walch, leaders, have procured the necessary chicken, fish, and other meats for the class and a small fee will be charged.

Anyone interested in the lesson is welcome to attend. Those needing rides should meet at the home of Mrs. Ray Chamberlain on Brownsboro road at 9:30 a.m. where cars will meet.

Child care will be provided by Mrs. Don Pulley, East Main street. Each youngster should take a sack lunch.

This is the last meeting for the unit this season. Installation of new officers and final plans for the Spring Festival will be made following the luncheon. The entire program should be over about 1 p.m.

Everyone attending is asked to take food for the "helping hand" basket.

Griffin Creek Home Extension unit will meet at the home of Mrs. Roy Sander, 2713 Orchard Home drive, Friday, May 13, at 11 a.m. The lesson will be given in the morning by Mrs. Paul Doe

IT'S HERE!

the New 1960 SPEED QUEEN AUTOMATIC WASHER

- ★ Bowl-shaped, large capacity STAINLESS STEEL TUB
 - ★ Adds Bleach and Rinse Conditioners
 - ★ Lint and sand removed automatically
 - ★ Cycle for "drip-dry"
 - ★ Cycle for silks and woolsens
 - ★ New, improved Suds-Saver
 - ★ Plus many other features
 - ★ 4 Models to choose from priced as low as $219.95 with trade
- TRADE IN ANYTHING
Why Not Buy Your Appliances Where You Get S&H GREEN STAMPS

DAVENPORT SEWING MACHINE & APPLIANCE SHOP
405 No. Central

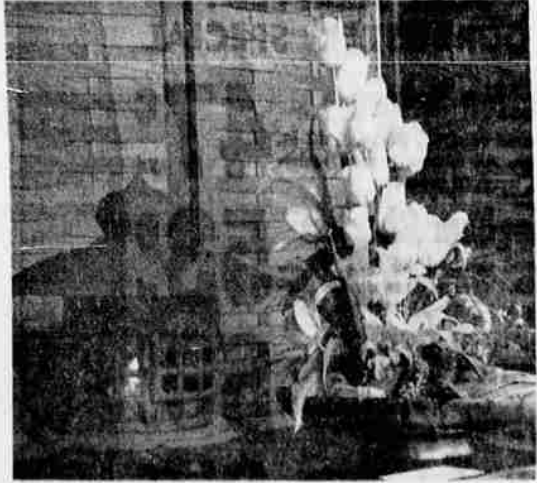

A TREAT for MOM ...on HER Day!

Jorgensen's
fiesta ICE CREAM

Grand—For Every Festive Occasion!

A thoughtful and inexpensive favor for Mom today will be HER favorite flavor in HER favorite ice cream—luscious Jorgensen's FIESTA. This delicious delight is easy to get—easy to serve—and all the family and friends enjoy it, too. Jorgensen's Fiesta Ice Cream has added goodness, richness from the exclusive nutrient—LACTIMIX—and you're sure to find just the flavor Mom likes best. So, make TODAY — MOTHER'S DAY — a truly FESTIVE OCCASION and serve plenty of creamy smooth, richly flavored Jorgensen's FIESTA ICE CREAM!

Your Favorite Fountain and Grocer Has This Fine Fiesta Ice Cream

An entry made by Mrs. L. D. Inskip for Providence guild of Sacred Heart Hospital was judged second in the flower arranging contest which is a part of the annual tea given by the Medford committee, American Cancer society. Mrs. Inskip arranged cream and yellow tulips. English broom and holes of wood in a bowl of copper washed with pewter. Lighted candle burned in the outdoor iron lantern. The tea was held at Hillcrest house.

Clearance Specials!

Stationery 1/2 price! Giftware and COSMETICS!

CHRISTMAS WRAP & CARDS

at fraction of regular price. Buy Now, Save!

SEE THESE & MANY OTHER VALUES AT

CASH DAVIS PHARMACY

THE RETAIL STORE • We Give S&H Green Stamps

135 West Main, Corner Grape • Ph. SP 2-2330

Theta Tau Alpha Assists With Drive

Theta Tau Alpha held a no-host dinner party Tuesday, May 3. Following dinner the members assisted with the annual Cancer Society crusade. After the drive for funds, the girls gathered again at the home of Max Paula Weston for a slumber party.