Tornado Entertains Crater on Tuesday

Medford and Crater High school baseball nines are billed for Southern Oregon conference contention Tuesday on the Medford diamond.

This ruckus is a makeup for league play postponed on April 1 because of wet weather. Game time is 4 p.m. Only the one conflict is planned.

Medford's Black Tornado aims to continue its unblemished record in the circuit. Crater is out of the loop title running but still can play a spoiler role.

The Tornadoes are favored in the clash but go into the battle with the memories of a tough previous engagement against the Comets of Central Point. Medford won the skirmish 7 to 5 after lagging 2 to 4 at the end of five innings. Two runs in the sixth inning and three in the seventh got the Black Tornado out of trouble.

Youth vs. Experience

Bill Anhorn, who held Medford to four hits over five innings, likely will get the pitching call for Crater, according to Coach Bill Piche. For Medford, Coach John Kovenz is expected to choose from between Jerry Anderson and Herb Wheeler. The Comets got six hits off Wheeler in 4⅓ frames of the previous league scrape. Anderson, in relief, was found for two.

The Crater-Medford tussle will be largely youth against experience. Medford has an all-round veteran team while the Comets have numerous young players, including freshman infield regulars Mike Glines, Louis Alvarez and Pat Pepper.

Medford will have Southern Oregon loop rivalry at Grants Pass on Friday while Crater plays at Ashland. The Black Tornado goes to Yreka, Calif., on Saturday.

GARDEN MAN DEAD

New York – (UPI) – Funeral services will be held Tuesday at St. Bartholomew's church for John Reed Kilpatrick, the man who bailed Madison Square Garden out of red ink in the depression and kept it profitable thereafter. The 70-year-old honorary chairman of the nation's most famous sports palace and president of the New York Rangers hockey team died of cancer Saturday in Roosevelt hospital.

A Zurich study shows that more than half of Swiss exports are provided by the metal working industry.

FACES COMETS—If Jerry Anderson, above, is not on the pitching hill for Medford high on Tuesday, he'll likely hold down an outfield spot in the Southern Oregon conference baseball fracas with the Crater Comets. The game will be at 4 p.m. at the Medford diamond. Anderson logs the Medford pitching statistics with a 5-0 record and the last published batting figures showed his .433 average second best on the team. Coach John Kovenz has said that either Anderson or Wheeler will pitch tomorrow for the Tornado.

Eugene – (UPI) – The Ducks are ready for the Alumni.

That was the feeling here Saturday after full-scale University of Oregon football scrimmage that produced four touchdowns.

In the scrimmage, the 'Whites' defeated the 'Greens', 20-8, behind the quarterbacking of former Marshfield high school star Sandy Fraser.

The 'Whites' team was made up mainly of veterans.

Oregon faces the Duck Alumni team of National Football league star Norman Van Brocklin here next Saturday.

LA Dodgers Go Against Pirate Nine

By ALEX KAHN

Los Angeles – (UPI) – The Los Angeles Dodgers, who have done better against the top clubs than against second division teams, hope the paradox continues when they meet the high-flying Pittsburgh Pirates for the first time tonight.

The Pirates, still in second place despite losing three straight to San Francisco, will send Bob Friend, 3-1, against the Dodgers' Don Drysdale, 3-3.

With his youngsters regularly, Manager Walt Alston said he intended starting veteran first baseman Gil Hodges and outfielder Duke Snider tonight. Hdoges had been benched since Wednesday in the hope the rest might bring him out of a hitting slump.

A sore knee limited Snider to pinch-hitting in several recent games.

The Philadelphia Phillies left town Sunday night with two wins in the three-game series, closing it out with a 4-2 victory Sunday. Catcher Jimmy Coker's home run gave the Phils the final victory.

"We're just not hitting with men on base," Alston said. "We must be hitting around .027 when we have men on the bases."

Oriole Catcher To Have Surgery

Baltimore – (UPI) – Gus Triandos, all-stare catcher of the Baltimore Orioles, will be operated on Tuesday to relieve a pinched nerve in his right hand that has hindered his batting since last July.

The Orioles said Triandos will be placed on the 30-day disabled list but that he may be sidelined for as much as eight weeks.

Portland State Led By Miller

Portland – (UPI) – Portland State got a 15-point performance from versatile Stan Miller to score a triangular college track meet victory against Clark junior college and Oregon College of Education here Saturday.

Final meet score was Portland State 88, Clark 69½ and OCE 4½.

Miller won the 440-yard dash in 51.1 seconds and upset Clark's Mike Gaechter in the low hurdles with a 25.9 seconds clocking and also scored points in the javelin, high jump and broad jump.

SF Giants, White Sox Lone Leaders in Major Circuits

By FRED DOWN
United Press International

Pitching and power – that unbearable baseball blend – are the reasons the Chicago White Sox and San Francisco Giants have surged to the front of the American and National league packs.

Everyone knew the White Sox had the pitching and the Giants had the hitting but the former are surprising with their day-to-day punch and the latter could have the best pitching in their league. Each took over first place with typical performances Sunday, the White Sox beating the New York Yankees, 8-3, in 10 innings and the Giants clobbering the Pittsburgh Pirates, 13-1. The White Sox have won four straight and 10 of 12 games while the Giants have won three straight and five of seven.

Gerry Staley, 39-year-old relief ace, halted the Yankees in the ninth and 10th innings and Jim Landis supplied the power with a three-run 10th-inning homer that clinched the game for the White Sox. Mike McCormick, 21-year-old new Giant ace, pitched a six-hitter and Willie McCovey drove in four runs to make things easy for San Francisco.

Stretch Winning Streak

The Cincinnati Reds stretched their winning streak to seven games when they beat the St. Louis Cardinals, 5-2, and the Philadelphia Phillies defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers, 4-2, in Sunday's only other activity. Rain postponed the Detroit at Baltimore, Cleveland at Boston and Kansas City at Washington games in the American league and Milwaukee at Chicago in the National.

Billy Pierce pitched four-hit ball and singled home a run to carry a 3-1 lead into the ninth but gave way to Staley after Mickey Mantle doubled and scored on Roger Maris' single. The Yankees filled the bases against Staley on Bill Skowron's double and an intentional walk but scored only one more run when Nelson Fox stumbled on the wet infield trying to field what could have been a third-out grounder.

Homer Clinches Victory

Successive singles by Minnie Minoso, Ted Kluszewski, Sherm Lollar and Al Smith produced two White Sox' runs in the 10th and then Landis clinched the victory with his three-run homer. Staley retired the Yankees in the 10th to extend his string of consecutive shutout innings this season to 17 2/3. The loss ended a four-game Yankee winning streak in their first meeting of the year with the American league champions.

McCormcik breezed behind a 13-hit San Francisco attack that was aided by seven Pirate errors, including three by shortstop Dick Groat. Errors by Groat and centerfielder Gino Cimoli led to four Giant runs in the first inning and McCovey's three-run double was the big blow of a six-run fifth. McCormick struck out two and walked two to win his fourth straight game. The Pirates dropped the entire three-game series in San Francisco and have lost five of six games since their nine-game winning streak.

McLish Wins Second

Cal McLish, aided by Bill Henry in the ninth, scored his second victory on the wings of a grand slam homer by Vada Pinson and a solo shot by rookie Tony Gonzalez. Pinson's second-inning homer followed two walks and Eddie Kasko's infield hit as Larry Jackson lost his fourth game. It also was the Cardinals' eighth loss in a row on the road.

Rookie Jim Coker's three-run homer in the sixth inning was the big blow for the Phillies who spoiled Ed Rakow's major league debut. Jack Meyer received credit for his second win although he needed help from Dick Farrell in the seventh. Charlie Neal had two doubles and a single for Los Angeles.

Raiders To Oppose Oregon Tech Owls

Ashland – Southern Oregon college will close out the regular 1960 baseball season Tuesday when the Red Raiders venture to Klamath Falls for the final Oregon Collegiate conference game with Oregon Tech.

SOC has won eight games straight since losing a twin-bill to Oregon college in the opening series of the OCC early in April. Since then the Raiders have taken two from Oregon Tech, three from Portland State, two from Shasta and one from Eastern Oregon.

For the Raiders to gain clear title to the OCC crown, they must take the game from Oregon Tech tomorrow and PSC must defeat top ranked Oregon College. The Raiders had a chance to tie for the top spot with OCE last week end but were rained out of a doubleheader with Eastern Oregon. The games will not be made up.

Losses Could Be Same

Thus the Raiders and OCE could end up with the same number of losses at two, but the Wolves have 10 wins while the men of SOC could have only eight.

Raider coach Ted Schopf has not decided on his starting pitcher for the OTI battle. He will probably choose from among John Younger, Don Vannice, and Marty Volger.

Rest of the lineup will have Jim Dietz at shortstop, Eldon Francis in center field, Jess Munyon in left, Phil Sword catching, Bob Jones in right, Kerm McLemore at third, Jack Brown at first and Chuck Nevi at second, with the hurler batting ninth.

Pittsburgh Has Rough Week End

By SCOTT BAILLIE

San Francisco – (UPI) – What can you say to a manager after his ball club has committed seven errors while getting blasted?

The best bet is to keep at a safe distance and let him do the talking. It won't be much.

"We'll be back," Danny Murtaugh, bossman of the stricken Pittsburgh Pirates said Sunday after the San Francisco Giants belted them 13-1, to sweep the three-game series and take over first place. "Our fielding was lousy and our pitching was lousy. You just don't win games that way. But we'll be around again."

Don Hoak, the ex-pug who handled third base for the Pirates, adds, "just one of those days."

Rough Week End

It was a rough week end for the Pirates who not only lost their hold on first place but also four battles with the umpires. Outfielder Roberto Clemente was chased Friday night. Murtaugh and Dick Stuart got the thumb Saturday and Bob Skinner was invited to leave by plate poobah Frank Dascoli during Sunday's fiasco.

The Giants take today off then open a three-game series with the Philadelphia Phillies Tuesday night. Johnny Antonelli (1-0) is scheduled to start against the Phils' Gene Conley (0-0).

Dick Groat, one of the league's better shortstops, committed three of Pittsburgh's errors. Two others were turned in by center fielder Gino Cimoli and first baseman Dick Stuart, both residents of the Bay Area. Pitchers Jim Umbricht and Paul Giel also were charged with errors by making wild heaves.

Tight Rein Helped in Derby Run

Louisville, Ky.–(UPI)– A tight rein and a perfect ride helped produce Venetian Way's impressive victory in the Kentucky Derby, trainer Vic Sovinski insisted today.

"The last thing I said to Hartack 'do me one favor, don't turn his head loose.' And he didn't," said the trainer at his barn on the backstretch where the stable help was ready to challenge the world.

He recalled how last summer he learned that Venetian Way would slow down if the jockey rode with loose reins and would take off when the rider "picked up the colt's head."

Sovinski has dreamed of winning the Kentucky Derby for a long time. He got his first shot at it two years ago when Lincoln Road, also owned by the Sunny Blue Farm of Isaac Blumberg, finished second to Tim Tam.

High Hopes

"I always felt that if I could win the Kentucky Derby I would be willing to quit racing. Now I would like to win the next two."

Not the next two Kentucky derbies, although he has high hopes for a two-year-old named Vital Star, but the next two jewels in the triple crown classics.

Venetian Way will be flown to Baltimore for the Preakness Stakes at Pimlico on May 21 in the same plane with Edgehill Stable's Bally Ache, the colt Venetian Way beat by three and one-half lengths in the Kentucky Derby.

Horatio Luro, trainer of third place Victoria Park, is afraid his colt "is a notch below the others."

"Tompion can run better than that, we all know it," he said of the favorite, which just managed to get home fourth.

WSC Beats OSC Twice

Pullman – (UPI) – The hard hitting Washington State Cougars drubbed Oregon State, 11-2, in a Northern Division baseball game Saturday and held on to undisputed possession of first place.

The win completed a two-game sweep by WSU over the Beavers and left Cougars on top of the standings with an 8-2 record, two games ahead of Oregon State's 5-3 mark.

Gary Wyche, Arnie Pleasant and Arley Kangas carried the big sticks in the Cougars' 15-hit attack. Wyche pounded a pair of home runs, a solo rounds tripper in the second and a two-run blast in the sixth. Pleasant collected four hits and Kangas three for the day.

Muncey Victor On Lake Chelan

Chelan, Wash. – (UPI) – Bill Muncey and Miss Thriftway are synonymous words here today. If you say one, you say the other.

Muncey is a veteran unlimited hydoplane jockey and Miss Thriftway is his boat. The two of them Sunday teamed up to win the 4th annual Apple Cup regatta on Lake Chelan under a burning sun and clear blue sky.

But the victory wouldn't have been half as good to Muncey if he hadn't beat the Wahoo and Mira Slocak, its daredevil pilot. That made the Thriftway's first Apple Cup win almost 100 per cent better.
