Back Ailment Idles Adcock

Milwaukee—(AP)—First baseman Joe Adcock, of the Milwaukee Braves, managed to avoid being hospitalized Monday night but he won't see a baseball diamond for at least a week.

Dr. Bruce Brewer, Braves physician, had ordered Adcock to Milwaukee's hospital Monday because of his ailing back but failed to respond to heat treatments. Brewer wanted to put Adcock in traction.

However, Adcock said he felt better late in the day and the pain was abating so Brewer agreed to allow the hard-hitting first sacker to continue his rest cure at home. But Adcock will be out of action for at least another week.

Portland Team Selects Name
Portland—(AP)—The Portland hockey team in the Western Hockey league will be nicknamed "Buckaroos."

That was selected as the winning name after a contest conducted by team officials. Winner of the contest was Lowell G. Smith of Astoria, who gets a two-ticket round trip vacation to Hawaii.

There were 2,024 entries suggesting 698 different names.

Pittsburgh Drops Fourth Game In Row; Sherry Gets Win In Relief

By FRED DOWN
United Press International
World Series hero Larry Sherry is back in the bullpen, and the way he's going he'll soon have the Los Angeles Dodgers back in business.

Manager Walt Alton discarded his early-season trial of the 24-year-old fireballer as a starter after Sherry lost three of four decisions in the unaccustomed role and the move is paying immediate dividends. In fact, Sherry has won all three of the Dodgers' most recent triumphs and has allowed only one run and five hits in his last 10 1/3 innings.

Sherry appeared on the scene Monday night after Bob Skinner's ninth-inning homer enabled the Pittsburgh Pirates to tie the score at 4-4 and picked up his third win in five days when Charlie Neal connected for a three-run homer off Elroy Face in the last of the frame to produce a 7-4 victory.

Face's Third Loss
The blow produced a third straight loss this season for Face, who didn't lose his first game last year until September and finished the campaign with an 18-1 record. It also was the fourth loss in a row for the Pirates and their sixth in seven games since their nine-game winning streak.

Camilo Pascual struck out 11 batters and pitched a three-hitter as the Washington Senators beat the Kansas City Athletics, 8-1, in the only other major league action Monday.
