Hanson to Play At San Diego

Ashland — Philip Hanson who appeared in several plays at the Oregon Shakespearean festival last season, has announced that he will return to California this summer to play the role of Cassius in "Julius Ceasar" on the San Diego stage.

At Ashland last summer he appeared in the Shakespearean roles of Malvolio, King John and Angelo.

The director of the "Julius Ceasar" production in San Diego will be William Ball, also a former actor at the Oregon festival.

Driver Flees; Wife Left Holding Bag

San Antonio, Tex. — Police investigating a five-car crash on a downtown San Antonio street opened the door of one of the cars involved and were faced by an angry woman.

Mrs. Richard Nichols told them her husband leaped from the wheel after the crash and disappeared.

A day later police abandoned attempts to question Nichols. He hadn't come home yet.
