

Pirates Down Milwaukee In 11 Innings; Dodger Victory Ends Giant Win Streak

By United Press International
Big Stan Williams cooled off the first-place San Francisco Giants Saturday when he snapped their seven-game winning streak with a two-hit effort that paced the Los Angeles Dodgers to a 2-1 victory.

The victory for the six-foot, four-inch Williams was his first of the season and Don Demeter made it possible when he singled home Maury Wills from second base in the ninth inning to break a 1-1 tie.

Williams' roughest moment came in the first inning when he filled the bases on three walks but he got Willie Kirkland on a fly ball to throttle that threat. The Dodgers ended a string of 35-2/3 scoreless innings turned in by San Francisco's pitching staff when they took a 1-0 lead against loser Billy O'Dell in the seventh.

Tommy Davis drove in the Dodgers' first run with a sacrifice fly but Kirkland tied the score with his fifth homer in the bottom of the seventh. The only other hit off Williams, who pitched his last complete game last June 3, was a single by O'Dell in the fifth.

Pirates Win in 11
Roberto Clemente's two-run triple in the 11th inning led the Pittsburgh Pirates to a 6-4 victory over the Milwaukee Braves.

Pirate starter Vern Law was sailing along toward his sixth victory of the season with a 4-0 lead but the Braves eventually tied the score on four solo homers. Del Crandall homered in the fifth, Wes Covington and Felix Mantilla each connected in the seventh, and pinch hitter Joe Adcock's homer tied it at 4-4 in the eighth.

Roy Face, who took over for law in the 10th, was credited with the victory, the Pirates' fourth in a row, and Don McMahon, successor to starter Len Burdette in the ninth, suffered the defeat.

Rookie Dick Ellsworth and Seth Morehead team up to pitch the Chicago Cubs to a 4-0 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals, who lost their eighth game in a row. Ellsworth, credited with his second win in a row since being brought up from Houston last week, scattered six hits over seven innings and Morehead pitched hitless ball thereafter.

The Cubs scored an unearned run in the fourth inning and Jerry Kindall singled home two runs in a three-run fifth.

Rookie Bells Two
Two home runs by rookie outfielder Tony Curry gave Philadelphia a 5-2 victory over Cincinnati and put an end to the Reds' nine-game winning streak.

Curry's fifth homer came off loser Jay Hook in the first inning and was the Phillies' first run after 29 consecutive scoreless innings. The Philadelphia rookie hit his second homer with one on in the third. Gus Bell's two-run homer in the fifth for all of Cincinnati's runs. Jack Meyer pitched five-hit ball over the first eight innings to post his third victory. Dick Farrell hurried the ninth for the Phils and yielded two more hits.

Cavemen Outtrack Tornado Thinclads

Disqualification of the Black Tornado relay crew for a baton pass out of zone cost Medford high's cinder team victory over its main rival, Grants Pass, yesterday.

The Cavemen took advantage of this bad pass, in an event which the Tornado actually finished first, to trim Medford's thinclads 64 to 57 at Grants Pass.

GP took first place points in seven of the events. Medford won six and top spot in the other contest was tied.

Medford's Mike Hood romped to victory in both hurdle races and his teammate, Len Griggs, won the 220-yard sprint and the broad jump. Griggs set a meet standard of 22.4 in the furlong.

Other Medford blue ribbon points were taken by George Clearwater in the shot put, and by Ray Smith with a good 4:36.7 in the mile.

Bob McIntyre, Medford, and Bowson, Grants Pass tied in the high jump.
Al Staley ran the 440-yarder in :51.7 for a meet record for GP and Larry Holmes, Cave-man pole vaulter, tied the GP school mark of 13 feet 3 inches. Ray Meek won the 100, Harvey Graham the javelin, Ron Houston the discus and Ken Marshall the half-mile for the Cavemen.

High hurdles—Hood, M. Cowin, GP; Ayers, M., 13.5.
High jump—Tie 1st—McIntyre, M. and Bowson, GP; tie 2nd—Staley, M. and Paulus, GP; 5-8. (Ties meet record, by Koch, M.; 5'9").

Shot put—Clearwater, M. Cole, GP; tie 3rd—Furston and Bots, M., 40-4.
Discus—Meek, GP; Humphries, M.; McCullough, M., 101.
Broad jump—Griggs, M; Hood, M.; Hathaway, GP; 21-13.
Mile—Smith, M; Sims, GP; Martin, M. 4:36.7.
100—Griggs, M; Humphray, M; Ryan, M. 17.2-4.
440—Staley, GP; Rix, M; Ryan, M. 51.7. (New record, old record 52 by Reich, M.; '59).
Low hurdles—Hood, M; Smith, GP; Andrews, M. 26.2. (New record, old record 21.5, by Brown, GP; '59).
Discus—Houston, GP; Cowan, M; Winetrot, M. 145-5. (New record, old record 144-10 by Houston, GP; '59).
800—Marshall, GP; Cronister, GP; Reed, GP. 2:04.
Relay—Grants Pass (Staley, Hull, Graham, Patterson), 1:33.
Pole vault—Holmes, GP; tie for 2nd, Bennett, M; McIntyre, GP; and Ricks, GP, 13-3. (School record).

Klamath Falls Bows To Crater Spikers

Central Point—Max Burton hurled the discus 153-6. Comet wins included Dick Woods in the broad jump, Don Garrison in the high jump, freshman Joe McCalvy in the 440 and John Champ in the low hurdles. Crater also won the relay and Champ tied with Stiles of Klamath in the high hurdle race.

The Comets throw was a new Crater school record and is believed to be the best prep effort in the state this season.

The Central Pointers grabbed the first spots in 11 of the 14 events and gained a front spot tie in another.

Gary Johnson was a two- and plus victor for the Comets, taking the two sprint races and tying with Burton for first in the pole vault. Bill Sprat, Klamath, was front man in both distance chases.

A couple of weight event performances by Comets make them weight contest contenders for the district meet here next week. Derrell Williamson put the shot 53 feet 3 inches and Glen Cole

Bally Ache Sale Draws High Price

Baltimore—UP—Bally Ache, the sleek three-year-old that ran second in the Kentucky Derby last week, Saturday was sold for $1,250,000. The second highest price ever paid for a race horse.

Only Nashua, 1955 Preakness winner, drew more on the market. Lesley Combs purchased Nashua from the William Woodward estate for $1,251,200 in 1955.

Sportsman Leonard Fruchman of Toledo, O., who paid $2,500 for Bally Ache as a yearling and saw the colt amass purse earnings of $540,277, announced the sale from Pimlico where the mount was stabled for the Preakness.

Bally Ache was purchased by a group headed by Joseph Arnold, Lexington, Ky., attorney and horse owner. Arnold declined to identify other members of the group immediately. Fruchman retained a small interest in Bally Ache for breeding purposes.

Bally Ache boasts one of the best records in racing—12 victories in 24 starts and out of the money only once. Arnold said he planned to run Bally Ache in the $150,000-added Preakness May 21.

Wenatchee—UP—Owen Friend, 35, former major league infielder, today was named as playing manager of the Wenatchee Chiefs of the Northwest league. He succeeds Dick Wilson, who resigned effective Thursday night.
