

Mrs. E. P. Barnett Receives Award

Mrs. Edward P. Barnett, a past president of Kiwanian Dames, was presented the Meritorious Award of the Year at a luncheon given Saturday by the Medford Jayceettes.

She was one of seven candidates representing women's service groups in the area.

The Jayceettes' event honors a woman between the ages of 20 and 40 years for outstanding community service during the past year.

Mrs. Barnett has been active in Kiwanian Dames for several years, works with the Rogue Valley hospital auxiliary and St. Mark's Episcopal church.

Three past presidents of the Medford Lions club auxiliary and Mrs. W. B. Dziarmaga (left) present president, reminisced during the 25th anniversary of the chartering of the local group held Wednesday evening at the Medford hotel. Among those attending the event shown chatting with Mrs. Dziarmaga are Mrs. Lawrence Pennington, Redding, also past state president in 1937; Mrs. H. T. Hubbard, first president during the 25th anniversary of the chartering of the local group held Wednesday evening at the Medford hotel. Among those attending the event shown chatting with

Two Women Honored By Association

Two women who are retiring from positions with Medford Public Schools were honored at the annual banquet of the Medford Grade Teachers association May 10.

They are Miss Louise Basford, special education supervisor, who has been with the district for 32 years, and Mrs. Mary Coffin, a teacher at Lincoln school, who has 25 years' service.

Elliott Becken, assistant superintendent of schools, presented retirement awards for outstanding educational services to the two women.

William Brew, Lincoln school, was installed as association president; Robert Sage, Roosevelt school, vice-president; Mrs. Hulda Fisher, Howard school, secretary; and Mrs. Rebecca Long, Jacksonville, treasurer.

Fred Buehling, Jacksonville, was master of ceremonies for the banquet, held at Rogue Valley Country club. Raymond Raymond played piano selections.

Mrs. Whillock Returns Home

Mrs. Edith Whillock, 1003 West Main street, returned last week from California following a visit with her son and daughter and their families.

On May 1 Mrs. Whillock attended a recital presented by pupils of her son, Charles A. Whillock, who is on the staff of the Sherman and Clay School of Music in Sacramento, Calif.

The recital was held at the Hotel El Rancho and presented organ-piano students of Mr. Whillock and violin, guitar and mandolin students of William B. Harris, another staff teacher.

Mr. Whillock attended Medford schools and has made his home in Sacramento for the past nine years.

Later that week Mrs. Whillock visited her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Crews, in Palo Alto, Calif. While there she attended an elementary band concert in which her two grandsons participated. Young Joel played the clarinet and Robin the trumpet. About 83 pupils participated.

Mr. Crews is a son of Mrs. Lucy Crews, 1003 West Tenth street, Medford.

On Mother's Day the two families had dinner at the Crews home in Palo Alto.

Tea to Honor Retiring Teacher

Eagle Point—Mrs. Hazel Atkins, retiring teacher, will be honored with a tea at the home of Mrs. Ray Barrow on the Brownsboro road, Sunday, May 22, from 2 to 3 p.m. by the Eagle Point Grade School teachers.

Faculty members, friends, and parents of Mrs. Atkins' pupils are invited to attend.

Altrusa Club President-Elect Attending International Meet

Mrs. Virginia Dew Sherwood, president-elect of Altrusa club of Medford, left Friday morning for Vancouver, B.C., to attend the Altrusa International 12th district conference. It is being held at Hotel Vancouver May 13, 14 and 15.

Delegates from the 48 clubs in Washington, Idaho, Oregon and three Canadian provinces, British Columbia, Alberta, Saskatchewan, are present to hear the president of Altrusa International, Dr. Viva Booth, director of the bureau of business research at Ohio State university, Columbus, O. She was the key speaker of the conference. Mrs. Retta Roberts, Yakima, Wash., governor of the 12th District, will preside.

New Officers
Mrs. Esther Mohr, member of the Founder's fund district committee, and Mrs. Enid Rankin, chairman of the district's geriatrics council, have sent reports to the conference.

Other new officers, in addition to Mrs. Sherwood, who will be installed at the last meeting in June, are Miss Ruth Kilbourn, vice-president; Mrs. Virginia Peterson, recording secretary; Mrs. Pauline Bright, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Ann Finley, treasurer.

New directors are Mrs. Edna Mole and Mrs. Maisie Daily, two-year terms, and Miss Kathie Fonkin, one-year. Mrs. Maude Coddling holds the unexpired term.

Altrusa placemats, which are souvenirs of Medford and are decorated with a map and pictures drawn by artist Kathie Fonkin, are now in use in the valley. They are being given by the women's club to churches, clubs, Granges and other organizations and are also being used by motels and restaurants.

Groups desiring to use the mats are invited to call Mrs. Peggy Beebe, SPRING 2-2750; Mrs. Daily, SPRING 2-7965; Mrs. Dorothy Young, SPRING 3-2345; or Mrs. Rankin, SPRING 2-8448.

Support Projects
The mats support projects of the local club, including international grants to aid women from South America and East Asia who are doing graduate work in this country.

A founder's fund is used to retrain older women who must support their families. Other projects concern safety, geriatrics, Christmas charity and an annual $250 grant to a local older woman who needs schooling to gain employment.

The placemats advertise the Rogue valley as a good place to live and visit, and are sent throughout the country to other Altrusa members who make summer tours.

Honorary Society Plans Luncheon

Members of Delta Kappa Gamma, international honorary society for women teachers, will meet Saturday, May 21, at 12:30 p.m. for the annual spring luncheon at Tally Ho restaurant in Talent.

There will be convention reports, the installation of officers, and a Founders' Day tribute by Mrs. Gladys Sloan.

Mrs. Precia Medley, social chairman, will be assisted by Mesdames Mae Richardson, Mabel Sims, Bertha Haskins, and Frances Willitt.

Medford Girl Receives Cap

Mr. and Mrs. K. C. Kerr, 151 Perrydale avenue, were in Seattle late last month for the capping ceremony at St. Frances Xavier Cabrini School of Nursing.

The Kerr's daughter, Judy, was one of 27 girls who were capped by the school director, Mother Josephine, MSC, and the student health director, Miss Mary MacGregor, R.N. A reception followed at the hospital cafeteria.

Miss Kerr, a 1959 graduate of Medford High school, was president of the Future Nurses of America at Medford High.

Student Elected To Service Group

Miss Sara Richards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Richards, 1787 Upton road, Central Point, has been elected to the Falconettes, women's service honorary at Seattle Pacific college.

Selection is made on the basis of scholarship, character, and contribution to campus activities.

Miss Richards is a 1957 graduate of Crater High school. At Seattle Pacific she is a junior majoring in English.

Blue Daisy Sale Set Next Week

The annual Blue Daisy sale of the Medford Blue Star Mothers, Chapter 2, will be held May 20 and 21 on the streets of Medford. Proceeds are used in work at the Camp White domiciliary, mostly in activities for wheel chair members there.

Blue Star Mothers give games, parties, and birthday remembrances at the domiciliary.

All mothers of servicemen and women are invited to meetings of the chapter, which are held the third Thursday of each month. The next meeting will be at 1 p.m. May 19 at the home of Mrs. J. E. Gindling, 122 Vancouver avenue.

Coffee Planned
Gold Hill—All women who reside on Sardine Creek road are invited to attend a coffee at the home of Mrs. Henry Paulsen, Tuesday, May 17, at 1:30 p.m. Women of the vicinity plan to continue this "friendly policy" on a once a month basis, to encourage neighbors to get together for a social hour.

Medford Lions Club Auxiliary Holds Twenty-Fifth Anniversary Event

The 25th anniversary of the chartering of the Medford Lions club auxiliary was observed Wednesday evening in the Rogue room of the Medford hotel. Fifty-three members and guests attended.

Although the club was organized in 1929, it was not chartered as a part of the Oregon Lions club auxiliary until 1935. Mrs. H. T. Hubbard was the first president and Mrs. J. Veil Shangle was the president at the time the club was chartered. Among those attending was Mrs. Lawrence Pennington, Redding, president of local organization in 1930 who was elected to the office of state president in 1937.

Guests for the evening were 10 of the 12 original founders. They were Mrs. Hubbard, Mrs. C. W. Reames, Mrs. R. A. Skinner, Mrs. H. W. Conger, Mrs. E. J. Leach, Mrs. R. W. Sleeter, Mrs. F. G. Bunch, Mrs. Pennington, Mrs. Richard Mulholland, McMinville, Ore., and Mrs. F. W. Scheffel, Past Presidents.

Fourteen of the 28 past presidents also attended. All were introduced by Mrs. Herbert Seitz, immediate past presidents who was master of ceremonies for the event. She also introduced state officers present. They included Mrs. Lee Mellich, historian; Mrs. J. F. Christian, Talent, state vice-president, and Mrs. D. M. Dwyer, district directors.

Members of the Talent, Phoenix and Crater Lions auxiliaries also attended.

Mrs. W. B. Dziarmaga, president, extended greetings to the group. Mrs. J. A. Tomjack gave the invocation. Mrs. Seitz reviewed the history of the organization.

Among the past presidents who attended from out of town were Mrs. John Klatt, Crescent City, Calif.; Mrs. Pennington and Mrs. Mulholland.

Presbyterians Plan Spring Banquet Honoring Seniors

The Presbyterian Senior High Youth Fellowship will present the Fourteenth Annual Spring banquet honoring graduating seniors Wednesday, May 18, in the Fellowship hall of First Presbyterian church.

"The Madrigal" of Medford High school, directed by Lynn Sjolund, will sing several numbers, both popular and sacred, for the program. Richard Lichti is toastmaster.

Senior recollections will be given by Miss Carol Slater, Miss Joyce Pearson, and Jim and John Lacy. John Frohnmayer, 1959-60 moderator of the youth group, will introduce the seniors, who will tell of their plans for the immediate future; and Miss Carolyn Mencke, on behalf of the Class of 1960, will give the senior response to the church. Vocal solos will be presented by Miss Shirley Satterfield.

Banquet Theme
The theme of the banquet is "I Bind My Heart This Tide." Theme speakers are Miss Ruth Milligan, Dick Ragsdale, and Ray Konopasek. The program will be concluded with a brief message from Dr. D. K. West.

Chairman of the banquet is Miss De Anne Taylor. Miss Pamela Gilkison is in charge of invitations; programs, Misses Becky Rowan and Martha Sanborn; decorations, Miss Mary Kay Harris, and entertainment, Miss Cassie Thompson.

The Women's Associations of both the Westminster Presbyterian church and First Presbyterian church are providing food and table decorations. Mrs. A. L. James and Mrs. Clifford C. Voight are in charge of food, and Mrs. Dwight H. Findley and Mrs. Brian B. Mullen, table decorations. Ninth-grade girls from the Junior High Fellowship will serve at the banquet.

Parents Leave For Rites In Salt Lake City

Mr. and Mrs. William Ferris, 1804 South Peach street, left Friday evening for Salt Lake City, Utah, where they will attend the wedding of their daughter, Katherine L. Ferris, and William Marshall, both of Salt Lake City.

The rites are scheduled to be held Wednesday, April 18, at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints temple in Salt Lake City.

Friends and relatives of the couple are invited to a reception honoring them in Medford Friday, May 20, at 8 p.m. in the recreation hall at the local Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, 648 South Ivy street.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Medford High school and is employed by Guarantee Investment company in Salt Lake City.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferris plan to return to Medford Thursday.
