

Mrs. Philip A. Getchell

Getchell-Lawson Rites Held In St. Matthews Episcopal

A wedding of interest to valley residents was held at St. Matthews Episcopal church, Portland, April 23, when Miss Claudia Jean Lawson of that city became the bride of the Rev. Philip A. Getchell, curate of St. Matthews and son of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard M. Getchell, 28 Ashland street, Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe C. Lawson, Portland, are the bride's parents.

The Right Rev. James W. F. Carman, bishop of the Diocese of Oregon, officiated at the single ceremony held at four o'clock in the afternoon, and the Rev. H. B. Lamer, rector of St. Matthews, celebrated the nuptial eucharist.

Mrs. Daniel Sizemore, Seattle, Wash., aunt of the bridegroom, played the organ wedding music. The St. Matthews church choir sang. Attending the rites were 400 relatives and friends.

Easter lilies and white gladioli were at the altar and sprays of pink and rose gladioli marked the choir pews. The Episcopal Women of St. Matthews decorated the church and were in charge of the reception which followed in the church parish hall.

The bride wore a floor length gown of delustered satin and lace. Her fingertip length veil was held by a seed pearl crown and she carried orchids and stephanotis on a prayer book. Mr. Lawson gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Hugh Ross, Arlington, Texas, was honor attendant for her sister, Miss Diana Getchell, Medford, sister of the bridegroom. Mrs. Wayne Gaylin and Miss Peggy Johnesse, both Portland, were bridesmaids and matron. They all wore pink polished cotton sheath frocks with short pink veils and carried bouquets of calla lilies.

Roy Morgan, Portland, served as best man and seating the guests were Hugh G. Starkweather, Portland; William McAllister Jr. and Justin M. Smith Jr., both Salem. All the men were former Medford residents.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Lawson wore a navy blue dress with white accessories and white carnation corsage. Mrs. Getchell chose a wheat

Wedding Anniversary Observed By Open House

Mr. and Mrs. Leo A. Young were honored recently at an open house in observance of their golden wedding anniversary. During the afternoon many friends and relatives called on the couple at their new trailer home, 1557 Stewart avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Young were married in Medford April 30, 1910, at the Parkview hotel, which was located at Holly and Eighth streets. The Rev. W. E. Good officiated.

Mrs. Young is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Pickell and Mr. Young, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George B. Young. Both families came to Oregon from Long Island, Kansas, in 1910.

Hostesses for the open house were the couple's daughters and daughters-in-law, Miss Lela Young, Tacoma; Mrs. Robert Young, Portland; Mrs. Charles Young, Jacksonville; and Mrs. Clarence Smith, Medford.

A gold-colored cloth covered the table which was centered with an arrangement of gold chrysanthemums and a gold-painted "money tree."

Two granddaughters, Tamara Smith and Susan Young, were in charge of the guest book. The Young's three grandsons, Keith Smith, Greg Smith and Michael Young, were among the guests.

Others attending including the couple's sons, Robert Young, Portland, and Charles Young, Jacksonville. All four of their children attended the event. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson, Merlin, Ore., also were in Medford for the anniversary.

Following Mr. Robinson's talk a question and answer period will be held.

In the recent poster contest sponsored by members of the Union, first place was awarded to Miss Kay Kent, First Methodist church; second to John Lampkin, First Presbyterian, and third to Miss Margaret Garrix, First Baptist.

Cash awards were presented to each of the winners. Judges for the contest were Mrs. D. Kirkland West, the Rev. Escl Hiser, president of the Medford Ministerial association, and Elliott Becken.

The local union is preparing to entertain delegates from the Southern Oregon district at a meeting to be held in the First Presbyterian church on May 27 beginning at 9 a.m. At that time state officers will be present to conduct workshops. Delegates are expected from Coos, Klamath, Josephine, Douglas and Jackson counties.

Hostesses for the meeting to be held May 19 will be headed by Mrs. Fred Reich.

Guests of Perkins' Here from Washington

Shady Cove — Mr. and Mrs. Claude Perkins, Granite Falls, Wash., are guests of Mr. Perkins' brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Perkins.

Queen to Preside At Initiation Ceremony May 18

Queen Marion Parsons, Bethel 14, International Order of Job's Daughters, will preside at the ceremony for the third class of initiates of her term of office on Wednesday, May 18, at 7:30 p.m. in the Masonic temple. This will be a formal event.

During the business meeting delegates will be elected to attend grand session in Salem, July 14-16. Bethel members desiring to go to grand session are asked to give their registration money to Mrs. John L. Hatch, 944 Whitman avenue, or to Mrs. Russell Denyer, 19 Ross court, by May 18.

A choir practice will be held in the Masonic temple from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. Monday, May 16, for all regular choir members.

Following the formal initiation and business session, refreshments will be served by Penny Roach, Judy Ross, Karen Ruhl, Diane Rupert, Luna Salyers, Karen Schulz, and their mothers. All parents of the initiates are invited to attend the ceremony; all parents and guardians of Job's Daughters, and persons of proper Masonic relationship are invited to attend the services on May 18.

Mrs. Lester Nye Honored at Party

Hornbrook — The April birthday of Mrs. Lester Nye was observed as a dinner party given in her honor May 7 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Pette.

Guests included Mr. Nye, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Protsman and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Adams. After dinner, the evening was spent playing pinocle with Mr. Protsman and Mrs. Adams recording high scores.

Spring Festivals Set By Extension Units

Three more of the annual spring festivals of the county's home extension units are scheduled for the coming weeks. Five units will participate in a festival at the Eagle Point Grange hall. Three others will hold a similar event in the courthouse auditorium and three more will hold a festival at Talent Grange hall.

"Spring" is the theme selected by Eagle Point, Butte Falls, Derby, Lake Creek and Reese Creek units for their festival Wednesday, May 18, in the Grange hall at Eagle Point.

Luncheon will be served by the Grange Home Economics club at 12 noon for all wishing to attend. The program will follow at 1 o'clock. Each unit will display work accomplished in workshops and projects the past year.

Butte Falls members plan a skit and all unit members are to take part in the dress review and style show.

A foreign student attending Southern Oregon college will speak.

The public is invited to attend, and view projects which have been presented for the homemakers' enjoyment and education, those in charge stated.

Mrs. Don Pulley will care for children of Eagle Point members with the same arrangements as for monthly meetings, officers reported.

Others Scheduled

Ashland, Valley View and Phoenix units will combine for their Homemaker festival May 26 at Talent Grange hall. The event will be from 1 to 3 p.m. and all persons interested are invited.

The Medford, Oak Grove and Griffin Creek units have scheduled their May festival for Wednesday, May 25, in the courthouse auditorium.

Activities will begin with a style show at 1 p.m. A speaker and social hour will follow.
