

May Fellowship Event Attended by Over 300

Tables at the annual May Fellowship luncheon, sponsored by members of the Medford Council of United Church Women, were filled by more than 300 members and friends at the YMCA.

The theme "Citizenship - Free and Responsible" was stressed throughout the program.

John Lusk furnished organ music preceding and during the luncheon.

Ministers and their wives, who were special guests of the council, were introduced by the council president, Mrs. Everett Faber. Mrs. Everett Lasher and Mrs. Lyle Schoppert were co-chairmen for the occasion and Mrs. Lasher presided during the luncheon period, introducing program numbers.

Mrs. C. E. Wilson was the main speaker. She stated, "We are definitely challenged to be responsible citizens, leaving out all selfishness and becoming aware that the responsible Christian voter must do his or her part to enable democracy to survive. Only Christian votes stand between democracy and communism," she concluded.

Devotions

Mrs. Allen Perry was in charge of devotions. Young people of the Tri H Y and Hi Y, Shirley Boswell, Miss Pat Bigham and Robert Baker, told of their experiences while at the state legislature in Salem. Miss Bigham was chaplain of the "senate" for two days.

Proceeds from the luncheon assist in work of teaching Bible history in the schools, and in addition this year an amount was presented to the YMCA. Mrs. R. Angus Todd, who is teaching Bible history in fourth, fifth and sixth grades, told of her work which she said presents only undenominational stories to the children. She stated that it is hoped to increase the work so as to include other Jackson county schools in the future.
