Scotty Bookmark

By Bess A. Lee

It's easy to make a bookmark like this. Cut a piece of black paper 1 1/4 in. wide and 3 1/2 in. long. Measure one inch from the bottom and draw line A. From each end of this line, measure 1/2 in. down and 3/8 in. toward the center. Connect these points with lines B and C. Then cut on these lines to form the ears. Make the ears stand up by folding the paper over between them on line A.

For eyes, punch holes through both thicknesses of paper at each side of the head. These should be about 1/4 in. from the edges and a little below where the ears start. Push round-headed paper fasteners through the holes and separate prongs at back. Paint a dot on each eye with red nail polish or paint. Draw a big nose with white crayon, as shown. Cut out a small notch for legs at the lower edge. Now you can slip the dog's head over the edge of a page and he will stay there.
