STOP OILY SKIN TO CHECK PIMPLES!

Don't pick, scratch, squeeze or merely "cover them up"

Doctors know that acne or pimples are caused by the germ called the acne bacillus. These germs invade overactive oil glands in the skin, cause blackheads and pus pockets; then your skin "breaks out."

What's needed is (1) to dry up the excessive oil that collects on skin; (2) to destroy acne germs on the skin, and (3) to stop itching and irritation so pimples can heal.

A doctor's formula, liquid Zemo has this effective 3-way action; also keeps skin looking cleaner!

Get liquid Zemo, Ointment, too. In regular and extra strength. To save—buy the large sizes of Zemo.

The Trouble with a KID BROTHER

...is that he sometimes has nothing to do

By JOHN HOCHMANN

"I'VE GOT NOTHING to do!" Whenever a youngster raises this warning cry, look out. But when it's a kid brother, run.

Possibly in an effort to make up for their size, nature endows bored and lonely kid brothers with a devilish ability to torture to distraction their older brothers and sisters. And the greater the difference in age and size, the more adept kid brother is at tormenting his elders.

Eight-year-old Hank Sanford is an expert at kid-brotherhood. He is not only the youngest of three, but his brother Michael is 19 and his sister Pat, 18. A bright, energetic lad, Hank usually plays with pals his own age. But when he has nothing to do at home, he'll invade the private and almost grown-up world of his brother and sister.

Michael's and Pat's opposition to sharing newly won adult privileges is not only understandable, it is loud. When Hank breaks up their phone calls, switches TV shows, and joins Pat's at-home dates, they react vigorously. Hank then appeals to his mother and father. But they tell him what he probably meant to do anyway: go out and find a friend his own age to play with.

Trying to attract a little attention, Hank does stunts while Pat and friends ignore him.

Hank likes to talk on the phone, but when the call is for Pat, he joins the conversation while she keeps him at arm's length.
