

Pat and her date may be annoyed at Hank's serenade but can't help laughing. But when the joke wears off, it sometimes is a problem to get rid of him.

When Hank's had enough of snubs and slaps, he appeals to his mother and father. Instead of taking his part, they tell him he ought to play with his own friends.

While his older brother tunes in the television, Hank tries to persuade him to watch a different show.
