

4-H NEWS

West Side Rabbiters
The meeting of the West Side Rabbiters 4-H club was called to order by Vice President Doris Inman.

The minutes were read. Roll was called by telling about our projects. Under old business we discussed our club contest. The junior leaders sent in their report forms. Several members applied for summer school.

Under committee reports, the fair equipment committee had not yet got their needed information. We told our leader what problems we were having. The next meeting will be May 7.

Under new business we discussed having a banquet at the end of the year.

Lucky Clover
The Lucky Clover 4-H club met recently in the home of Cecilia Kee. A honey demonstration was given. Carol Hale and Sharon Smith demonstrated how to make honey bars.

Miss Norma Hague showed us a movie on freezing fresh fruits and vegetables. After the movie, the honey bars were served along with something to drink which was provided by Mrs. Kee.

The next meeting will be held May 25 at the Kee residence.

Table Rock Stitches

The Table Rock Stitches 4-H club held their meeting May 7 at the home of Mrs. Frank Myers. We dispensed with the business and worked on our fair projects. The "Just So" girls worked on their needle cases. The girls in "Teen Wise Clothing" learned how to put in a zipper and make a collar.

The "Just So" girls decided to have a workshop Friday, after school, May 13, at the home of Janis Cate. Girls in "Teen Wise Clothing" decided to have a workshop Saturday, May 14, at the home of Mrs. Frank Myers.

Rawhide Wranglers

A Phoenix branch of the 4-H has been established for those teenagers in Phoenix who are interested in a riding club. The organization is under the direction of Tom Whitlock, supervisor.

The club has been named Rawhide Wranglers. Charlotte Whitlock was elected president, with David McAlister, vice president, and Dixie Davis, secretary. Meetings will be held bi-weekly at the home of Tom Whitlock, Phoenix.

The Little Chefs

The Little Chefs 4-H club met at Heather Rode's house recently. We each had to bake a one-layer white cake to take to the meeting.

Heather demonstrated how to bake a cake. We each judged the cakes and voted on the reasons why. Heather told us how the cake should have been judged. Following the meeting, we had some cake and punch.

Members also had an opportunity to ride Heather's horse.

Applegate Dairy-A-Teens

The Applegate Dairy-A-Teens 4-H club met at Alice and Jenny Kullert's recently. We planned to go to a dairy showmanship event. We also planned to stake our animals at the show.

Alice and Jenny Kullert gave a demonstration on feeding and managing a heifer. Sandy Brewster showed a way to clip a dairy animal.

The meeting adjourned. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Anna Kullert.

Merry Mixers

The Merry Mixers 4-H club held a meeting recently at the home of Mrs. Cornutt. We iced cupcakes for the cupcake sale. The next day we had a cookie sale. The next meeting will be at the home of Linda Wilson.

West Side Bees
The West Side Bees 4-H club met at the home of Don Bradshaw recently. Every member brought their animals. We washed and trimmed our animals in the morning.

Mrs. Bradshaw gave us our lunch at noon. Later Sis-Q and Phoenix club came, and we judged and showed the cattle. Don furnished eight head of cattle. Dick Ireland was judge. Afterward we toured the ranch.
