Dairy Maids Divide With Salem Team

Memorial Stadium, White City – Rogue Valley Dairy Maids, whamming over five runs in the second inning, tripped the Salem Shamrocks 6 to 2 here Sunday to gain a series split on the opening week end of 1960 play in the Northwest Women's Major Softball league.

Salem, 1959 state champ, won the Saturday scuffle 5 to 0.

The big Sunday inning for the Maids was on six hits, by Jean Main, Shirley Hanson, Janet Pfaff, Jan Bateman, Doris Hickson and Helen Wolgamott, and two errors. Rogue Valley also scored in the third inning on singles by Hanson and Bateman, a sacrifice by Pfaff and groundout by Phyllis Perry.

Three-Hitter

Salem tallied once in the second frame on a walk and a double by Marge Hurley. Three Maid miscues gave the Shamrocks a run in the fourth panel.

Ellen Callaghan pitched three-hit ball for the Maids, walking three. Hurley gave up 10 hits but no bases on balls. Hanson and Bateman had two hits each for RV and Tony Owens doubled.

On Saturday Salem got three of its runs in the third stanza on a walk, fielder's option and hit by Deloris Hanson, Hurley and Jackie Churchek. Hansen and Vivian Reaves each had two hits for the Capital city team.

Pitcher Now Has Worry About Encore With Cubs

By GENE BLUDEAU

Chicago – (UPI)– Ex-Philadelphia pitcher Don Cardwell, who hurled a no-hiter in his debut with the Chicago Cubs Sunday, worried today about what to do for an encore.

"All I wanted was to get out there and win so the Cubs could be impressed with their trade for me," Cardwell said. "I wanted them to be proud. But what do I do now?"

Cardwell, 26, a 6-4 right-hander who came to the Cubs last week in their near-desperate search for a front line pitcher, faced only 28 batters Sunday to beat the St. Louis Cardinals, 4-0, in one hour, 46 minutes.

It was the first no-hitter pitched against the Cardinals since Horace Eller of the Cincinnati Reds turned the trick on May 11, 1919–41 years ago. Only a first inning walk to Alex Grammes on a 3-2 pitch marred a perfect game for Cardwell.

Fast Balls

Cardwell said he threw mostly fast balls and change ups with a few curves.

The Cardinals could hit only seven balls past the infield. Cardwell struck out seven and there were only four occasions when there appeared even a chance the Cardinals might hit safely.

Cardwell, his record now 2-2, last had pitched nine days earlier when, as a Phillie, he held Los Angeles hitless until the sixth.

The atmosphere in the locker room was reserved. No-hitter or not, Cardwell was "a new boy in town."

There were no close buddies to hoist him atop their shoulders and there were no ex-roommates to pour cold drinks over his head in triumph.

In the midst of baseball's greatest moment of triumph for a pitcher–a no-hit game–Don Cardwell stood almost alone.

The Cubs shook Cardwell's hand and patted his back. Manager Lou Boudreau jokingly said Cardwell's pitching was "all right" but how was his hitting?

SO Raiders Walkaway In Net Tilt

Klamath Falls – Bruce Merrill and John Root made it a walk-away as Southern Oregon college won the Oregon Collegiate conference tennis championships here in a two day event Friday and Saturday.

SOC scored 15 points, Portland State five, and Oregon college two as the Raiders won the title for the fifth time in six years.

Merrill copped the singles crown by defeating teammate Ron Singler 7-5 and 6-2. Singler was ranked as the fourth man on the Raider squad but he won the chance to play Merrill when he upset Root, the Raider second man, in sets of 6-0 and 6-3.

Merrill and Root won the doubles crown from Matt Gefre and Jerry Richmond of Portland State in straight sets of 6-4 and 8-6.

Actually the Raiders won the team championship the first day when they piled up enough points and placed enough men in the finals and semi-finals to win the crown.

Vancouver, Wash. – (UPI) – Don Kreiger of Portland won the fourth annual Royal Oaks Invitational golf tournament Sunday with a record-smashing 207 for the 54-hole total.

Cardwell No-Hitter Highlight On Unusual Sunday in Majors

By FRED DOWN
United Press International

It was a day to remember – a day on which form took a holiday.

That's just about the only way to sum up Sunday's major league events that included the season's first no-hitter, it's biggest free-for-all, the possibility that the Indians used a player belonging to the Senators and the spectacle of the Baltimore Orioles sharing the American league.

In fact, San Francisco fans are just about the only ones who would call it a normal day: The Giant pitching staff turned in another shutout.

Here's a rundown on doing's that provided 228,168 Sunday baseball fans with one of the dizziest days in years:

–Don Cardwell, 24-year-old right - hander acquired from the Phillies on Friday pitched the first no-hitter against the Cardinals in 41 years for a 4-0 victory in his debut with the Cubs.

–The Phillies and Reds staged a free-for-all at Cincinnati which 6-foot, 8-inch, 230-pound Gene Conley featured by socking 5-foot, 11-inch, 165-pound Billy Martin above the left eye.

–The Indians tried to use Pete Whisenant as a pinch hitter after they had announced he had been traded to the Senators.

–The Orioles swept a double-header from the Red Sox, 2-1 and 7-4, to tie the White Sox for first place.

Misses Perfect Game

Cardwell, a native of Winston-Salem, N.C., who had a 17-26 record in three big league seasons, missed a perfect game because he walked the second batter to face him in the first inning of the Cubs' nightcap with the Cardinals. The 6-4, 210-pound right hander retired the next 26 batters in order, striking out seven and allowing only seven balls to be hit to the outfield.

The Cardinals, who hadn't suffered a nine-inning no-hitter since May 11, 1919, had won the first game, 6-1, on the strength of Larry Jackson's four-hitter and two homers by Ken Boyer.

The free-for-all between the Reds and Phillies broke out in the eighth inning of their opener after Cincinnati pitcher Raul Sanchez hit three players with pitched balls in the same frame. Philadelphia Manager Gene Mauch charged the mound and players spilled out of both dugouts. Umpire Bill Jackowski cleared both benches of players not in the game when it was all over.

Johnny Callison, Tony Curry, Cal Neeman and Frank Herrera homered to lead the Phillies to a 14-3 victory in that one but Gus Bell drove in three runs with a homer and two doubles as the Reds won the nightcap, 5-1.

Use Traded Player

The unusual protest developed in the second Chicago-Cleveland game when Joe Gordon sent up Whisenant as a pinch-hitter in the seventh inning. The Indians had already announced Whisenant had been traded to the Senators and White Sox Manager Al Lopez filed the protest on the grounds that Cleveland had used a player who was not on its team.

Early Wynn had pitched a five-hitter for his first win of the season as the White Sox won the first game, 4-0, but the Indians took the disputed nightcap, 6-3, on Harvey Kuenn's three-run 10th-inning homer. In Boston, a spokesman for league president Joe Cronin said Cronin would take the protest under consideration late Monday or early Tuesday.

The Orioles ran their winning streak to four games and gained a share of the AL lead when rookie Steve Barber pitched a three-hitter in their opener and veteran Hal Brown and rookie Chuck Estrada combined in a nine-hitter in the second game. Brown and rookies Jim Gentile and Ron Hansen knocked in two runs each to produce a six-run first inning that routed Boston's Frank Sullivan in the nightcap.

Johnny Antonelli pitched San Francisco's fourth shutout in five games, 2-0, over the Dodgers and the Braves beat the Pirates, 6-4, after a 4-2 loss in other National league games. The Yankees crushed the Senators, 11-2, and the Athletics whipped the Tigers, 5-0 and 5-4, in other AL games.

Giants Open Road Trip

Cincinnati, Ohio – (UPI)–The San Francisco Giants, forsaking their "pitcher's paradise" for a 13-game road trip, tangle with the Cincinnati Reds tonight in the opener of a two-game series.

Sam Jones (4-2) was scheduled to start for San Francisco against the Red's Bob Purkey (2-1).

Johnny Antonelli pitched his first complete game of the season Sunday and registered a 2-0 shutout over the Los Angeles Dodgers to keep the Giants on top of the National league.

Orlando Cepeda won it for lefty John by smashing a sky-scraping triple off Johnny Podres into the teeth of a 25-mile per hour wind to drive two base runners across in the eighth inning.

Bears Score 31 But Only Split

United Press International

It's a pretty good trick but Yakima scored 31 runs in its Northwest league doubleheader with Eugene Sunday and still had to settle for a split.

The Bears routed the Emeralds, 17-2, in the first game but Eugene scored a single run in the ninth inning of the nightcap to win 15-14.

Easy Triumph For Bally Ache

Baltimore–(UPI)–Bally Ache's new owners may begin collecting dividends this Saturday when the three-year-old colt, who finished second in the Kentucky Derby, competes in the $150,000 added Preakness.

He will be racing for the first time for the Turfland Corp., headed by Joseph A. Arnold, a Lexington, Ky., attorney, who purchased Bally Ache Saturday for a near-record $1,250,000 from Leonard Fruchtman of Toledo, Ohio.

In his last race for Fruchtman, Bally Ache scored an easy four-length victory in Saturday's Preakness Prep at Pimlico.

SOC Links Victory Led By Marlatt

Klamath Falls – Southern Oregon college copped the Oregon Collegiate conference golf championship from Portland State by a score of 612-614 in a two day tournament held at the Reames Golf and Country club.

Bob Smith of Portland State took advantage of a one stroke edge Friday to edge Gordy Marlatt of SOC for the medalist honors 145-146.

Eastern Oregon college was fourth with a 688.

In winning, Bob Meyer had a 74-80 for SOC, Phil Mongrain had a 76-78, and Phil Austin had an 81-77.

Smith, Marlatt, and Dick Cook of Oregon college all qualify for the NAIA district 2 tournament to be held in Salem next week end.

Tuneup Bouts Billed Tonight

Baltimore, Md. – (UPI) – Don Jordan and Sugar Ray Robinson will box at Memorial stadium tonight in postponed tuneup bouts.

Jordan, world welterweight champion from Los Angeles, 149 pounds, meets Candy McFarland of Philadelphia, 148½, in a non-title 10-rounder designed to sharpen Don for his crown defense against Benny (Kid) Paret of Cuba at Las Vegas, Nev., May 27.

Middleweight challenger Robinson, 161, engages Pedro Gonzales, of Rankin, Pa., 170, in a prep 10-rounder, arranged to groom New Yorker Ray for his return shot at Paul Pender's crown New York and Massachusetts version at Boston June 10.

The tuneup double-header was originally scheduled for last Saturday night but rain caused a shift to Monday

Cliff McLean Hall of Famer

Portland–Five former small college athletic greats have been named as charter members of the District 2 NAIA Hall of Fame and were inducted into that select group Saturday at an awards banquet at Portland State college.

Included in the group of players were Walt Erickson, Willamette university; Murel Nehl, the University of Portland; Stan Russell, Pacific university; Clifford McLean, Southern Oregon college; and Claude (Skeets) O'Connell, Oregon College of Education.

Erickson, Nehl and Russell were noted for their football heroics. McLean was a standout basketball player and O'Connell excelled at both basketball and baseball.

A trio of coaches, Henry Lever of Linfield college, Roy S. "Spec" Keene of Willamette, and E. Robert "Bob" Quinn of Eastern Oregon college were also inducted into the Hall of Fame.

(Clifford (Chief) McLean, named to the District NAIA Hall of Fame is a teacher and coach at Medford's Roosevelt Elementary school. He resides at 117 Almond st., Ashland.)

The Audubon Society was founded in 1886.

Stu Baker Shines for SOC Crew

Klamath Falls –(UPI)– Stuart Baker, Southern Oregon, set two new records in being awarded the outstanding trackman trophy in the Oregon Collegiate conference track championships held here Saturday.

Baker ran to a new school and conference mark in the 220-yard dash with a clocking of :22.1. He turned the century run in :09.8, new SOC best event. Baker was also a member of the second place relay team.

Portland state copped the team championship with 79 points, Southern Oregon was second with 29, Oregon college had 21½, Eastern Oregon college 20½, and Oregon Tech 13.

Spear Record

Don Korth took a third top spot for SOC with a new college and meet record when he threw the javelin 206 feet 7 inches.

Len Dobry won the discus for the fourth Raider first place medal when he threw the plate 137-3. He got a second in the shot put.

Jay Hill of PSC and Doug Cutsforth of OCE were the only other double winners of the afternoon. Hill won the 880 yard run and the mile and Cutsforth the high and low hurdles.

Bill Stewart of SOC gained a fourth in the discus, Ora Bannister had a fourth in the 440, Ken Coffman was fourth in the half mile, and the Raider relay team of Baker, Don Story, Chuck Swingle, and Bannister finished second to PSC by about two feet.

PSC's win in the relay chopped a full second off the OCC record set last year by SOC. PSC with the team of Byron Arthur, Lance Newman, Gene Hedrick, and Jon Abraham was clocked in 3:31.7.

RV League Given NBC Franchise

Wichita, Kans.–(UPI)–The National Baseball congress said today it has franchised the Rogue Valley league consisting of Oregon teams in its 1960 National association.

Harry Chipman of Medford is president of the league.

The loop is one of a network of non-pro leagues with players of unlimited age going franchised throughout Oregon in connection with qualifying teams into the annual state tournament at Drain starting Aug. 12.

Ducks Defeat Idaho Vandals

Moscow, Idaho – (UPI) – The Oregon Ducks took a tighter hold on third place in the Northern division baseball race and shoved Idaho further into the cellar with a 4-2 victory over the Vandals Saturday.

A costly error and a timely single accounted for three runs in the second inning for Oregon and they proved to be the only tallies. Ron Walp put the Ducks in front when he scored on Idaho first baseman Ron Zwitter's error and then Walt Baranski drove home Dave Moore and Leon Hayes with a one-base blow.

The win gave Oregon a 6-4 conference record while Idaho is 3-11.
