

Redlegs Pound Out 9-2 Win Over Giants; Pirates Idle

Cincinnati - (UP) - Whenver Bob Purkey takes the hill, the San Francisco Giants seem to roll over and play dead.

They raked the slow-throwing Cincinnati hurler for 12 singles Monday, but meanwhile the Reds combed five Giant hurlers for 16 singles on the way to a 9-2 victory.

The loss cut the Giants' lead to one game over idle Pittsburgh. San Francisco's record is now 19-9, but it is 0-2 against Purkey and 0-3 against the Reds.

Tonight, San Francisco planned to start either Mike McCormick (5-0) or Jack Sanford (3-1) in an effort to end the Reds' whammy over them. Jim O'Toole (3-2) was to take the hill for Cincy.

Monday's 28-hit barrage was a strange contrast to the Giants' recent home-stand in windy Candlestick Park where batters have combined to stroke the ball at an anemic .199 clip to date.

Sam Jones and Purkey started and both clubs pecked away with single tallies here and there so that it was 3-2 Cincinnati going into the fifth. Orlando Cepeda and Hobie Landrith had knocked in the Giants' scores.

In the fifth, the Reds turned the game into a rout with a four-run spurge off Stu Miller, who took over for Jones in the third. Key play was a slicing triple to right by Gus Bell with a pair of mates aboard. The Giants protested that the ball had fallen foul, but the umpire men in blue did not see it that way.

Two Off Maranda Bud Blyer, Georges Maranda and Joe Shipley also hurled for the Giants with the Reds adding two more runs off Maranda in the eighth.

The Giants, meanwhile, hit the ball hard but were unable to shake up Purkey. He was almost constantly in trouble, but stirred up a witches' brew of knucklers, sliders and changes to continue his hex over the San Franciscans.

Jones provides a classic illustration of the difference San Francisco must expect on the road and at home. He has won four games at home while giving up the amazingly low total of nine hits. He has lost three on the road and been shelled heavily.

Vada Pinson had four hits for the Redlegs Monday night to lead the swat parade. Cepeda and Eddie Braslow had three safeties apiece for San Francisco.

Tacoma Grabs Lead In PCL; Bevos Lose

By JOE SANDERS
United Press International

The Pacific Coast league has a new league-leader today. It is the Tacoma Giants by a slim half game.

The Giants moved onto the top rung by virtue of their 6-1 victory over San Diego Monday night and Salt Lake's 9-6 win over Sacramento.

Getting all the mileage possible out of eight hits, the Giants picked up their fourth straight victory. They forged into the lead with two unearned runs in the fourth inning and clinched the victory with a four-run barrage in the seventh.

Other Results The rest of the league leaders kept right on the heels of the Giants, with Seattle trouncing Portland's Beavers, 3-2, on Bill Hain's third homer, and Vancouver taking Spokane, 3-1, on Howie Gross' two-run homer in the 11th.

For Seattle, Dave Stenhouse, despite the need for some relief helped in the eighth inning, picked up his fifth win in a pitching duel with Noel Mickelson. The Rainiers scored two runs on four consecutive singles in the first inning. After that, Mickelson yielded only a scratch single until Hain hit his home run.

The Beavers got one run in the fifth on back-to-back doubles by Jim Greengrass and Don Taussig. They scored again in the eighth on a walk and consecutive singles by George Freese and Nippy Jones after two were out.

Home runs by Harry Bright and Joe Christopher and a pair of triples by Chick King paced a 14-hit Salt Lake attack and gave the Bees an easy victory over Sacramento.

A six-run second inning by Salt Lake broke the game open and the Bees were never passed.

Bright's sixth homer of the year put Salt Lake ahead, 4-0. Sacramento tied it in the second and then came the bottom of the inning and the Bees' six tallies.

Goss Breaks Slump Goss' game winning blow on Vancouver's behalf broke a long slump. His round-tripper came in his first time at bat as he had been inserted into the line up in the 10th inning as a defensive measure.

Pitcher Adopts New Delivery Chicago (UP)—Chicago Cubs pitcher Don Cardwell was $1,000 richer at least today, all because he hid the ball from St. Louis Cardinal batters Sunday.

Cardwell, who turned in a no-hit, 4-0, win against the Cardinals, facing only 28 batters, said much of his success was due to a new windup he adopted—keeping the ball in his glove until delivery.

He said this kept opposing batters from seeing how he was holding the ball and thus figuring what type of pitch he would throw.

The Cubs, grateful for Cardwell's performance in his debut for Chicago only three days after being traded from Philadelphia, gave Cardwell a new contract Monday.

Forest Grove, Ore. — (UP) — Lewis and Clark walloped Pacific twice in Northwest conference baseball action Monday, 9-1 and 14-3. Ron Nedry hurled his fourth win against no defeats for the Pioneers in the opener.

Portland Club Releases Hurler Portland (UP)—The Portland Beavers gave former major league pitcher Don Johnson his outright release here Sunday.

The injury-ridden Judges last year compiled a dismal record of seven losses and one tie. Overall, Brandeis won 34, lost 33 and tied four games in nine years of play. Intercollegiate football was instituted two years after the founding of the school in 1948.

Football Out At Brandeis William, Mass. — (UP) — Brandeis University, which fielded a varsity football team for nine of its 12 years, has dropped the sport because of the difficulty in sponsoring "an adequate . . . squad."

Portland manager Tommy Heath was forced to cut Johnson, 34-year-old righthander, in order to get down to the Pacific Coast League's 21-player limit.

Johnson had an 0-3 record and a 12.88 earned run average at the time of his release. Johnson posted a 7-15 record for Toronto of the International league last season.

The Beavers now have 22 players, but one, outfielder Joe Gaines, is on the disabled list.

Pros Sign For 1960 Campaign

By United Press International

Ray Wietcha and John Houser, two typical National Football League linemen, are among the latest professionals to sign for the 1960 campaign.

Wietcha signed for his eighth season with the New York Giants, the league's Eastern division champions.

Houser, an offensive guard for the Los Angeles Rams, is typical of the small college players who play in the NFL.

He attended the University of Redlands, where the Rams train, and never was drafted by an NFL club. The Rams signed him as a free agent and now consider him one of their top young linemen.

Ed Vereb, former Maryland halfback, has decided to try the NFL after playing Canadian professional football the past three seasons for Vancouver and signed with the Washington Redskins.

The Buffalo Bills of the American Football league announced the signing of Ed Muehlaupt and Dave Gilbert.

Vel Heckman, former University of Florida tackle, has signed with the Boston Patriots of the AFL.

The Oakland Raiders of the AFL announced they would play their 1960 home games in San Francisco's Kezar Stadium rather than in their new Candlestick Park. The Forty-Niners of the NFL also play their home games at Kezar, which seats 59,000.

George Black, Crescent City, Calif., was winner of the Jim Morris Memorial handicap on Sunday with 97 count and runner-up honors were claimed by A. R. McAlexander, no town listed, with 94.

Gene Hunt, Medford, fired the best doubles score Sunday, 47, to win Class 2. McAlexander was second in the class with 44. Frank Clogston, Medford, with 46, and Handy, with 44, were one-two in Class 1.

Charles Collins, Roseburg, busted a perfect 100 on Saturday to win Class A in the Rogue Valley hundred, a 16-day event. Three others tied at 99. They were Orley Milligan, Roseburg, Forrest Solomon and Dr. J. M. Adams, Klamath Falls. Flip of a coin gave Milligan No. 2 trophy.

Three tied in class B with 98s and George Sherwood won on a flip. The others were John Hurd, Eugene, and Handy. Hurd took second trophy. Arnold Calahan, Klamath Falls, won Class C with 91 and there was no runner-up.

Manfield was Class D victor in this event with 97 and Floyd Young followed with 94.

These cuts reduced the Boston roster to the 25-player limit. American league clubs must hit by Wednesday. The National league, which started a week earlier this year, reduced its rosters to 25 last week.

The Kansas City Athletics got down to 26 men by sending catcher Lou Holdener to Toronto of the International league.

The Milwaukee Braves, trying to strengthen their relief pitching, recalled righthander Ron Piche from Louisville of the American association. They made room for him by sending Chuck Cottier, a second baseman, to Louisville on a 24-hour recall basis.

The St. Louis Cardinals bought righthander Ray Sadecki from Rochester of the International league and optioned righthander Bob Gibson to that club.

SPORTS

Tribune Trophy Won By Forrest Solomon

Forrest Solomon, Blue Lake, won the Mall Tribune trophy Sunday in the annual 16-yard trapshoot for that award at Medford Gun club.

Solomon and Henry Niedermeyer, Medford, both broke 100 straight clay targets and the Blue Lake man took the shootoff 23 birds to 23.

Mendenhall trophy for top gun among Class B and lower shooters in the event went to Ted Rice, Myrtle Creek. This Class B gunner's shattered pigeons numbered 99.

High overall honors for the Saturday and Sunday trophy went to Enos Handy, Reedsport, with 426. Solomon was runner-up with 423.

A Runnerup Niedermeyer took Class A runnerup trophy in the Sunday 16-yard firing and Max Weston, Medford, was No. 2 shooter in Class B with 98.

William Mansfield, Ashland, and Vern Solomon, Winchester, with 94 and 93 scores, respectively were five and second in Class C. Class D prize went to Ray Bartley, Myrtle Creek, with 92. Floyd Young, Talent, came next with 91.

The 99 by L. A. Shepherd, Ophir, made him high veteran. Crystal Hileman, Cottage Grove took the ladies trophy with 91. D. Loffelmacher, Junction City, was high junior with 94 and Gene Solomon, Blue Lake, took subjunior prize with 83.

District 6 Track Tiffs Saturday

High school track and field season on southern Oregon ovals will come to a close this Saturday with two district meets.

District 6 A-1 schools will have their meet on Saturday on the Crater high field at Central Point. District 6 A-2 thrifolds vie at Southern Oregon college in Ashland.

While this contention is going on St. Mary's will be carrying the colors of Medford and Jackson county in the state B meet at Springfield. That engagement is set for Friday and Saturday.

Grants Pass and Medford are expected to be the main contenders for A-1 team honors. To a great extent, however, the team title rivalry will be secondary to qualifying men for the state meet on Friday and Saturday, May 27 and 28 at Eugene. First and second places in each event for state and first places, particularly, are expected to be well-distributed among the schools.

Subdistricts Held North and south subdistrict meets for A-2 schools were held last week end with Douglas winning the Umpqua area tangle and Phoenix capturing the Rogue Valley affair.

Scores in the north were Douglas 131², Sutherlin 122⁴, Myrtle Creek 73⁴, Riddle 31⁵, Glide 30⁴, and Oakland 9. First three places in each event made the full district meet and Douglas, Sutherlin Myrtle Creek, Riddle and Glide will have entries against Phoenix, Rogue River, Henley, Eagle Point and Illinois Valley.

Everett Armstrong, McKenzie Bridge, and Forrest Solomon, took the backer upper tourney on Saturday evening with 59 out of 60.

Medford Netters Tough When Under Pressure in Oregon Titular Tourney

When the pressure was on Gary Cummings and John Shaw buckled down and made "fabulous" shots.

That's what Coach Bob Huff reported in telling of the play that won the Oregon high school doubles championship for the two Medford players last Friday and Saturday at Oregon State college in Corvallis.

Once the Black Tornado netters got into stride in the Saturday tussles there were no weak spots in their play, Huff remarked. He said their volleying at the net was a big factor in victory.

In their semi-final and final matches, Cummings and Shaw dropped their first sets and trailed in their second sets. It was nip and tuck until they broke loose, according to the coach.

Huff reported that the two seniors played the best tennis of their careers. He mentioned the fact that this was their second time in the state tourney helped the Tornado stars but pointed out that the tournament this time was tougher than the one last year.

Derby Winners Are Preakness Picks Baltimore, Md. — (UP) — Venetia, Md., Bally Ache and Victoria Park, who ran 1-2-3 in the Kentucky Derby, appear to be in a class of their own for Saturday's 84th running of the Preakness.

The field for the second leg of the triple crown series for three-year-olds is expected to be the smallest in 10 years, about half the size of the 13-horse field which competed in the derby May 7 at Churchill Downs.

Wenatchee Raps Ems In NL Play By United Press International

It was a case of playing both ends against the middle Monday night in Northwest league action.

And the way things ended up, the middle and tall end benefited while the league-leading Eugene Emeralds suffered for their work.

The long ball turned the trick against the front-running Oregon club as Wenatchee, hexing in the cellar with six victories in 20 starts, defeated their visitors, 6-4.

The only other league contest scheduled between Salem and Tri-City, at Kennewick, was postponed because of wind.

Due to the defeat, Eugene lost a half-game to every team but Wenatchee which picked up a full contest on the Emeralds. A three-run homer by Ben Brown, who had accounted for the first inning Chief tally with a double, knotted the score 4-4 in the bottom of the eighth.

Wenatchee catcher Don Whitcomb drove home the winning run and scored himself with a two-run round-tripper in the last of the ninth.

A double-header is on tap tonight at Kennewick between Salem and Tri-City and Yakima travels to Lewiston.

Forgetful Boxer Draws Laughs Boston — (UP) — Heavyweight Johnny Twohads stepped into the glare of the ring lights at Boston Arena Monday night and stripped off his robe.

The crowd of 3,724 fight fans screamed their delight. Twohads forgot his boxing trunks.

Orioles Win Fifth Game In Row; Gain Sole Hold On American League Lead

By FRED DOWN
United Press International

Manager Paul Richards' faith in a rookie who hit .000 in two previous trials has paid off to make the Baltimore Orioles a dark horse contender in the American league race.

"I know he'll field well and I'm convinced he'll hit," Richards told skeptical experts who were considering the Orioles to the second division. "And, if he does, we'll be tougher than anyone thinks."

It was the Orioles' fifth straight win, their longest winning streak since the last week of the 1958 season, and put the team in the best position it has been at this stage of the season since it moved to Baltimore. The Orioles now lead the second-place Chicago White Sox by a half-game.

Hansen's homer off Ned Garver gave the Orioles a 2-0 lead and turned out to be decisive when Dick Williams singled home a Kansas City run in the seventh. The run was charged to Arnold Portocarrero although Williams' hit was off Jack Fisher, who then retired the side and shut out the Athletics in the last two innings.

Jackie Brandt homered in the first inning to give the Orioles their first run.

The Cincinnati Reds routed the San Francisco Giants, 9-2, for their 10th triumph in 12 games and the St. Louis Cardinals scored three runs in the ninth inning to beat the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-3. In National league games that provided the only other Monday action in the majors, Los Angeles' scheduled game at Milwaukee was rained out in the second inning.

Play will be medal on Thursday, May 19. Golfers will also have their second play on the RVWG trophy.

Women's Golf Rogue Valley Country club lady golfers play for May 12 was a "Bruggers event."

Winners were — A group, Mrs. Mahr Reymers; B group, Mrs. Ed Radzewicz; C group, Mrs. Floyd Somers; D group, Mrs. L. T. Anderson; 9-hole C group, Mrs. Royal E. Bebb; and 9-hole D group, Mrs. Robert McIntyre and Mrs. Dan H. Adams tied.

March-April ringer tournament winners were A group, Mrs. Wm. Schei; B group, Mrs. L. R. Smith; C group, Mrs. Wm. Cowning; D group, Mrs. Wm. Williams; 9-hole C group, Mrs. Galen Sanner, and 9-hole D group, Mrs. John Nuich.

Play will be medal on Thursday, May 19. Golfers will also have their second play on the RVWG trophy.
