WSC Takes ND Title; UO Forfeits

Seattle —UPI— Washington State is the 1960 Northern division baseball champion today because of a forfeit.

Washington knocked over Oregon 4-2 in the first game of a doubleheader Tuesday and then was awarded a 9-0 decision in the second game by plate umpire Stan Naccarato.

Oregon was the only team with a mathematical chance of catching the Cougars.

Washington led 2-0 in the fourth inning of the nightcap. Coach Don Kirsch of Oregon took exception to a third called strike on Dave Moore.

Naccarato said he warned Kirsch to leave the field or he would forfeit the game and that when Kirsch persisted in staying around he had no choice.

A few minutes after the forfeit a downpour of rain hit the field.

Washingon won the first game with a two-run rally in the fifth inning.

Giles Fines Mauch $100

Philadelphia —UPI— Manager Gene Mauch of the Philadelphia Phillies has been fined $100 for his role in Sunday's free-for-all with the Cincinnati Reds at Cincinnati.

Mauch, who touched off the brawl by charging at Cincinnati pitcher Raul Sanchez in the eighth inning of the first game of a doubleheader, was notified of the fine by league President Warren Giles Tuesday night. Mauch said he was "protecting my players" because Sanchez had hit three men with pitched balls during the inning.

Howard's Grand Slammer Gives LA Dodgers Triumph

BY FRED DOWN
United Press International

They call Frank Howard the Dodger of tomorrow, but today he's their -man of the hour.

One home run doesn't make a "rookie of the year," of course, but the mighty 450-foot drive the 6-foot, 7-inch, 245-pounder unfurled Tuesday night went a long way toward convincing the Dodgers he'll supply the punch they've needed so badly this season.

That one awesome swat with the bases filled in the eighth inning not only ended a week-long run-famine but gave the Dodgers a 6-4 victory over the Milwaukee Braves that snapped Bob Buhl's five-year mastery over them at County Stadium. Buhl had whipped the Dodgers nine straight times in Milwaukee and seemed well on his way toward making it 10 when he carried a 4-1 lead into the eighth.

But the Dodgers filled the bases on singles by Wally Moon and Norm Larker and an error by first-baseman Joe Adcock. Then Howard, recalled last Friday from Spokane in the Pacific Coast League, delivered his tape-measure homer into a clump of pine trees behind the center field fence.

Giants, Pirates Win

The San Francisco Giants retained their one-game hold on first place with a 9-3 win over the Cincinnati Reds and the Pittsburgh Pirates beat the Chicago Cubs, 11-6, in the other National League games.

In the American league, the Chicago White Sox reclaimed first place when they beat the Boston Red Sox, 11-6, and the Kansas City Athletics downed the Baltimore Orioles, 4-2. The Cleveland Indians nipped the New York Yankees, 7-6, and Detroit Tigers defeated the Washington Senators, 3-1.

Howard now has played three games since rejoining the Dodgers and collected five hits for a .500 average. Larry Sherry followed Howard's homer with one of his own and picked up his fifth win for holding the Braves to four hits and one run over the last three innings. Hank Aaron and Eddie Mathews homered for Milwaukee.

Jack Sanford pitched a six-hitter and won his fourth game with the support of a San Francisco attack that included homers by Willie Mays, Orlando Cepeda and Willie Kirkland and three singles and a double by Jim Davenport. Ed Bailey drove in all three runs for the Reds, whose Jim O'Toole started the game with a streak of 18 consecutive shutout innings.

Bob Friend won his fifth game as the Pirates collected 13 hits off four pitchers and were helped to six unearned runs by Cub errors. Ernie Banks homered for the Cubs but also committed two of their three errors.

Utility infielder Sammy Esposito drove in four runs with a double and a single and Ted Kluszewski had two singles and a double to lead the White Sox' 14-hit attack. Bob Shaw yielded homers to Frank Malzone, Gene Stephens and Heywood Sullivan and was hit hard for eight innings but received credit for his third victory. Tom Brewer was the loser.

Whitey Herzog's two run seventh-inning homer snapped a 2-2 tie as the Athletics ended the Orioles' five-game winning streak. The victory went to relief pitcher Leo Kiely, who has not yielded a run in seven appearances this year. Jackie Brandt hit his third homer for Baltimore.

Indians Plaster Rookie

The Indians plastered rookie whiz Bill Short for five runs and six hits in less than two innings to pave the way for Gary Bell's fifth triumph. Bell faltered in the ninth when Mickey Mantle's three-run homer helped the Yankees score four runs but Dick Stigman retired Yogi Berra for the final out. It was the Indians' third straight win over the Yankees.

Frank Lary pitched a seven-hitter and struck out six to win his third game for the Tigers and handed Washington's Pedro Ramos his fifth loss in a row. Niel Chrisley, Norm Cash and Chico Fernandez had two hits each to lead the Tigers' eight-hit offensive.

Frank Just Trying to Meet Ball

Cincinnati —UPI— Grand-slamming Frank Howard came back to his home state as a formidable opponent of the Cincinnati Reds, who start a two-game series with Los Angeles tonight.

The former Ohio State basketball star from Columbus made the Dodgers feel well-rewarded for the $108,000 bonus money they paid for him when he turned a 4-1 defeat into a 6-4 victory for the Dodgers at Milwaukee Tuesday night.

"I was happy to play a small part in the victory," the rookie star said after hitting a grand slam home run at least 450 feet. "I wasn't trying to hit a homer, I was just trying to meet the ball."

Hook Eyes Victory

Jay Hook will shoot for victory No. 4 when he pitches for the Reds tonight against Howard and company. For the Dodgers it will be Stan Williams (1-0).

Cincinnati's Ed Bailey also made like a one-man team Tuesday night as he batted in all of the Reds' runs, but his effort failed to stave off a 9-3 loss to the San Francisco Giants.

Bailey, who collected a two-run homer and three hits in three times at bat Tuesday night, has boosted himself into third place among the leading National League batsmen with a .348 percentage.

New Lineup Unloads 14 Hits for Giants

Milwaukee —UPI— Manager Bill Rigney again planned to shake up his lineup as San Francisco opened a series against Milwaukee tonight, but he did not seem too worried about it.

For it was the new lineup which unloaded 14 hits Tuesday night on the way to a 9-3 thumping of Cincinnati. Those pesky Pittsburgh Pirates also won another one, so that the Giants were in first today by only one game.

Lineup changes came as a result of Willie McCovey's sore toe and the fact that Don Blasingame's batting average has begun to approximate his weight.

Rigney moved Joe Amalfitano to second in place of Blas, put Andre Rodgers at first and shuffled up the batting order.

Amalfitano went hitless, but handled nine fielding chances flawlessly. Rodgers collected two hits and fielded his position surprisingly well. Maybe not so surprising since some observers felt Rodgers played shortstop for the Giants last season like a first baseman.

Rig came down with a case of intestinal flu and listened to his boys roll over the Reds from the solitary comfort of his hotel room.

Despite the new wrinkles in the lineup, the Giants still had their WOW boys–Willie, Orlando and Willie – in the heart of the batting order. And they were enough to give the Giants their first win over Cincinnati.

The trio – otherwise known as Mays, Cepeda, and Kirkland–unloaded long homers to spell doom for the Redlegs.

Rosi Opposes Eddie Perkins

Chicago —UPI— Veteran Italian puncher Paolo Rosi puts his sunrgically-toughened skin to the test tonight in a 10-round televised match with young Eddie Perkins of Chicago.

At stake for the second-ranked Rosi and unranked Perkins, 23, is a promised chance to meet lightweight champion Joe Brown in a title fight.

McMinnville —UPI— Linfield and Willamette were rained out for the second straight day Tuesday in their North west Conference title – deciding baseball doubleheader. They were to try again today.

NBA Opens Way For Laker Shift

New York – UPI – The National Basketball association cleared the way today for a shift of the Minneapolis Lakers' franchise to Los Angeles and set June 14 for a meeting to consider Chicago's league application.

League President Maurice Podoloff said six other applications for franchises were read at the NBA's Tuesday meeting but none are being considered for next season.

The board of governors "removed the last" obstacle to the Minneapolis transfer by indicating "a suitable schedule can be drawn up" for a team in Los Angeles.
