Gardeners Plan Club Workshop Saturday Morning

Central Point - Mrs. Robert Schmidt announces that Central Point Garden club will hold a workshop at the home of Mrs. John Holmer, Old Stage road, Saturday, May 21, at 10:00 a.m. Everyone attending is to take a sack lunch. Coffee will be served.

Mrs. Gaston Floux will direct the day-long session. The purpose is to gain a further understanding of flower arrangements and the June flower show schedule. The theme of the flower show will be "The Gal with the Green Thumb - She Knows Them - She Grows Them - She Shows Them."

Mrs. R. D. Kay is the flower show chairman. It is suggested that those participating in the workshop bring flower containers and other articles needed for making arrangements.

Numerous activities were on the calendar for May. The monthly meeting was at the M. H. Cotton residence, Hillside drive, May 4. The business meeting was preceded by tours of gardens at the Holmer, Charles Taylor, Eugene Orr and Curtis Hopkins' homes.

The fourth tour was followed by a luncheon and a business meeting. An invitation to host the fall district meeting was accepted.

Mrs. Lester Gordon and Mrs. Wallace West were appointed as delegates to represent the club at the state convention in Pendleton, June 20-22.

Monday, May 9, club members drove to Cave Junction to view the unusual garden at the H. O. Smith residence. Mrs. Smith then accompanied the group to Rough and Ready State park and through her guidance, the women found many wild flowers, some of which are not found in this area.

Mrs. Robert Schmidt reminded members and anyone interested that the Central Point library has an outstanding collection of books on gardening and related subjects.

The next meeting of the Central Point Garden club will be June 1 at the home of Mrs. Donald A. Faber.

"Mother goes collegiate," was the theme for the annual Mothers' Day week end program at Southern Oregon college May 14 and 15. Among the many events scheduled was that of electing officers for the SOC Mothers' club for the coming year, and named were (left to right) Mrs. Russel Zundel, Medford, secretary; Mrs. J. Marquam, Grants Pass, vice-president; Mrs. Paul Gaster, Klamath Falls, treasurer; Mrs. Rollin Thompson, Klamath Falls, outgoing president; and Mrs. William Wright, Ashland, new president. Other week end highlights included the presentation of awards, musical numbers, a style show, reception, a play, "Arms and the Man" directed by Dr. Dorothy Stolp; and a piano recital by Miss Helene Robinson's students. Student chairman for the event was Lois Fletcher, Eugene, who was also awarded the title, "Girl of the Term." General chairman was Mrs. Mabel W. Winston, dean of women.

Hornbrook Women Attend Meetings

Hornbrook - A number of Hornbrook women have attended meetings held recently in southern Oregon and northern California.

Mrs. Frank Bear and Mrs. Cecelia Thompson attended a meeting of the Catholic deacons held recently at Weed, Calif. Ninety-four women from Catholic parishes in Siskiyou county were present. After the meeting, Mrs. Bear and Mrs. Thompson continued to Dunsmuir where they were guests of Mrs. Thompson's sister.

Mrs. Ralph Chadwick and Miss Penny Barnum attended the Girl Scout leadership training camp held recently at the Girl Scout camp site, Tomlin Forest, in the Little Switzerland area near Medford.

Mrs. Thomas Watt Jr., Mrs. Dwan Hamner, Mrs. Floyd Burns and Mrs. Ronald Rhodes drove to Weed, Calif., for a meeting of the Order of Eastern Star, Mrs. Opal Morgan, deputy worthy grand matron, made her official visit to the Weed chapter at that time.

The Summer Academy of Fine Arts, to be held for the second time on the Oregon campus, will also have sessions in the contemporary art under the well-known VIP or Virgil Partch, and in contemporary music and contemporary film art under outstanding personalities, not yet named.

The sessions of the Summer Academy are open to teachers, undergraduate students and others who are interested. College credit is offered for the sessions, if desired. For further information, write James B. Hall, director of the Summer Academy of Fine Arts, University of Oregon, Eugene.

Sweet-and-Sour Cabbage new style is a sweet-and-sour dish. Cook 6 slices of bacon, dried with 1 cup of sliced mushrooms for 5 minutes. Add 4 cups of shredded cabbage, 1/2 teaspoon of chopped dill pickles, 1/2 teaspoon of salt, 1/4 teaspoon of monosodium glutamate, 1/4 cup of dill pickle liquid and 1 tablespoon of brown sugar. Cover and cook, stirring occasionally about 8 to 10 minutes or until cabbage is tender.

Summer Academy Courses Noted

Since 1940 when the auxiliary first started this program, the Medford unit has sent a total of 71 girls. There will be 240 girls from Oregon this year who will assume the duties of citizens by electing their own officials and carrying out the various duties of a Girl.

The auxiliary's hospital equipment, which is loaned free of charge to anyone in need, is now stored at Franklin's Mayflower and anyone desiring further information may call Mrs. Bert Staats, Spring 2-9814.

Co-sponsors for these girls are the Jackson County Republican Women and Medford Zonta club.

Representing St. Mary's school and co-sponsored by St. Mary's Parents club, will be Miss Mary Jo Batzer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Batzer. The Phoenix Thursday club is sending Miss Barbara Gysin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gysin, Cole Mine road.
