San Francisco Falls Into Tie with Bucs

Milwaukee (UPI)—Sam Jones goes against the great Warren Spahn tonight as the San Francisco Giants attempt to even up their two-game series against the Braves and regain the National league lead.

San Francisco fell from sole possession of first place into a tie with the Pittsburgh Pirates Wednesday night as the Braves edged the Giants, 3-1, and handed 21-year-old Mike McCormick his first setback against five wins.

Shelled

Jones, who got shelled his last time out at Cincinnati Monday, seeks his fifth victory against three losses. Spahn, off to a slow start, is 2-1.

Milwaukee pitcher Bob Rush used some football tactics in the seventh inning to break a 1-1 tie and score the deciding run.

He singled and went to third on Billy Bruton's double. Then Red Schoendienst lifted a fly to Willie Kirkland, who rifled a perfect throw to Giant catcher Hobie Landrith.

Rush, who outweighs the Giant backstop by 50 pounds, barreled into the plate like a fullback and Landrith dropped the ball.

Rush relieved starter Carl Willey in the third, after he was hit on the knee by Orlando Cepeda's ball in the second.

Milwaukee scored in the second when Hank Aaron walked and was doubled home by Joe Adcock.

Tied It

San Francisco tied it in the third when McCormick doubled, went to third on Jim Davenport's single and scored on Joe Amalfitano's sacrifice fly.

Amalfitano played second base again Wednesday night, replacing the slumping Don Blasingame. Willie McCovey was returned to first base.

The Giants rallied in the ninth after two were out when Jim Davenport and pinchhitter Dale Long singled and Willie Mays walked to load the basis.

Rush was then replaced by Don McMahon, who got McCovey on a fly to center.

McLoughlin Victor Over Crater High

McLoughlin Junior high team closed a highly successful season yesterday with a 9 to 0 win over Crater High school on the local courts.

To fill out a seven player squad Crater high had three girls. Jan Newland, top ranking Comet player, finally lost to Gary Highland in the number one singles match, 6-4, 6-4. She played a hard driving game.

In other singles with "kramer" type scoring Jim Hatch won over Jim Wray, Ken Rodgers defeated Todd Caster and Rod Pace defeated Elaine Wilson.

In other regular type sets Dick Deffley took Mike Swanson, 6-1, 6-4, Bob Minshall beat Rickey Smith, 6-1, 6-1, and Larry Smith defeated Bernice Gardner, 6-0, 6-0.

In the doubles Hatch and Rodgers found Miss Newland and her partner, Swanson, tough competition but finally won, 7-5, 6-3.

Highland and Deffley had less trouble in defeating Caster and Wray, 6-3, 6-3.

Ingy Becomes Betting Choice

New York (UPI)—Ingemar Johansson became a betting favorite for the first time today to beat Floyd Patterson in their return heavyweight title fight, June 20.

The man-to-man price rose from "even money" to 7-5 favoring champion Ingemar. Bookies were laying 6-5 and taking 8-5.

BOWLING

MONDAY MAIDS

Blu-ettes won the championship of the Monday Maids league by defeating the Pin Ups 1658 pins to 1610.

Members of the Blu-ettes team, which gained the playoff by winning the second half of the loop, are Robbie Benesh, Leola Whitlock and Louisa O'Neil.

On the Pin Ups crew were Marie Vogel, Dolly Maxon and Jane Meyer. They took the first half honors.

Robbie Benesh, Jane Meyer and Leola Whitlock took sweeper awards with 606, 570 and 546 scores, respectively. Prizes were based on high series with handicap.

A season trophy went to Gwen Slavens for high series, scratch, 511. Sandy Cast took high game award with a 200 scratch. Most improved average honors went to Jean Tucker for a 15-pin boost. Lanell Wilkes got a Women's International Bowling congress chevron for a 7-10 conversion.

BLUE MONDAY LEAGUE

Final games of the first season's play of the Blue Monday Bowling league found the Pin Pickers in first place. Trophies were awarded to the members of the first place team; Ruth Carpenter (C), Bobbie Randles, Doris Price, and Shirley Williams. Lauya Faytinger was awarded the trophy for high game with handicap, 231; and, also, high series with handicap, 618. Doris Price received an award for most improved bowler, for increasing her average 17 points.

Eddie Perkins Defeats Rosi

Chicago (UPI)—Lightweight Eddie Perkins of Chicago, who has beaten the No. 2 and No. 6 men of his division, wants to know what he has to do to get a ranking.

The 23-year-old Perkins spoke out after a unanimous 10-round decision over aging Paolo Rosi of Italy and New York, who went into the ring with the No. 2 rank among the 135 pounders.

Perkins, a 9-5 underdog, battered his more experienced foe from start to finish with hooks to the body and head. He opened a cut over Rosi's eye.

Tacoman's Leading By Eyelash in PCL

Tacoma's Giants moved back into first place in the Pacific Coast league with an eyelash size lead of six percentage points Wednesday night by blanking San Diego, 1-0, while Sacramento was idled by cold weather.

In other games Seattle beat Portland, 11-8, in a marathon game decided by a five-run Rainier scoring effort in the eighth, and Chet Nichols pitched last-place Vancouver to an 8-3, victory over the Spokane Indians.

At Salt Lake, the game between the Bees and Solons was cancelled.

For the Giants it was Juan Marichal furnishing the pitching with a five-hit shutout for his sixth win and pinchhitter Bob Perry providing the scoring punch with a sacrifice fly which brought Bob Farley home with the only run of the game.

Punch by Zimmerman

At Seattle pinchitter Jerry Zimmerman also provided the punch. Zimmerman drove in what proved to be the winning run in the eighth inning with a single off Glenn McMinn, fifth Portland pitcher.

Portland started the scoring in the first with one run, and Seattle ended it with five runs in the eighth. In between, 10 pitchers yielded 30 hits and 14 bases on balls. The game lasted three hours and 28 minutes.

For the Beavers, Don Taussig provided most of the plate punch with a home run, two singles, a walk, one run scored and five runs batted in.

Vancouver's last place Mounties picked up their 8-3 victory as veteran Chet Nichols pitched his fifth win of the season.

Bowerman Picks Own Tracksters

Eugene (UPI)—To University of Orefon track Coach Bill Bowerman, winning isn't different.

Bowerman's Duck cinder squads have won 38 out of their last 39 dual meets, 28 straight Northern Division dual meets and six consecutive ND track meet championships.

Saturday his Webfoots will be looking for their seventh ND title. And Bowerman's picking them to win.

One of his reasons is decathlon ace Dave Edstrom. Bowerman's entered the Sherwood, Ore., senior in five events as well as the mile relay.

Edstrom will be competing in both hurdle races, the shotput, broad jump and the discus.

Pin Standings Stay Unchanged

Toledo, Ohio (UPI)—The standings of the American Bowling Congress tournament have remained unchanged for seven straight days, the longest stretch in the 79-day meet since it began March 5.

Now there are only three more days of team play and some minor events action Sunday afternoon to wind up the tournament.

Best open team score Wednesday night was a 2,892 by Joe's Bombers of Detroit. There hasn't been a 3,000 total by an ABC open team since April 26, which makes it appear that the leading 3,096 by A&A Asphalt of Birmingham, Mich., is almost sure of capturing the 57th tournament championship.

Rossini's comic opera, "The Barber of Seville," was first performed in Rome in 1816.

Two-Ball Play Enters 2nd Round

Contestants have through Sunday, May 29 to complete second round play in the men's two-ball golf partnership tournament at Rogue Valley Country club.

First round was wound up last Sunday with losers dropping into the first flight to continue competition.

This Sunday some 50 men will go to Redding, Calif., for a team match.

South A-2 Winners Have Best Subdistrict Marks

On the basis of subdistrict marks, runners, throwers and jumpers from the southern division who won their events last week end will be the favorites in most contests in the full District 6 A-2 track meet.

The district affair will be held on Saturday, May 21, at Southern Oregon college, Ashland. First two placers in each event will qualify for the state meet on May 27 and 28 at Corvallis.

Winners in the southern division meet last week end had better marks than victors in the north subdistrict in 11 of the 14 events. In one of the other contests the winning effort was the same for each subdistrict affair.

North's Tops

North's bests were Mathews, Douglas 12 feet 1 inch in the pole vault and Watson, Myrtle Creek, 20-7¾ in the broad jump. However, Mike Hanby, Illinois Valley, who won the Rogue area vault at 12 feet, has gone well over 12 on several occasions, including 13-3 in the Hayward relay.

The same mark of 5-6 was recorded by Dave Carter, Rogue River, and Psaender, Sutherlin, in taking the high jump.

Ten schools will be represented in the A-2 runoff. They are Phoenix, Rogue River, Henley, Illinois Valley, Douglas, Sutherlin, Myrtle Creek, Glide and Riddle.

6 A-2 ENTRIES:

100—Hanby, IV; Lumley, P; Meredith, IV; (10.1) Trimmer, S; Watson, MC; Kenyon, G. (10.5).

Redlegs Nose Past LA's Dodgers 5-4

Cincinnati (UPI)—Manager Walt Alston—still plagued by a team that gets its hits at the wrong time—called on winless Sandy Koufax to try to break the "jinx of Crosley Field" tonight against the Cincinnati Reds.

Alston was hoping the hard - throwing Sandy just might pull out of his own slump in which he has lost all three decisions this year and at the same time help trample under foot the Dodger run of bad luck at Crosley Field. Cal McLish (2-3) will start for the Reds.

The bad luck Wednesday night at Crosley was a 5-4 loss to the Reds in 12 innings and seemed to indicate a repeat of the poor showing Los Angeles had last year in the same park when the Dodgers lost 8 out of 11 games here.

In the opening Dodger game of the season at Crosley, the defending world champions outhit the Reds 12-8 and still were unable to capitalize on their sudden batting power.

Four Players Hitting

But the hits offered no great hope of a sudden spurt of renewed strenigh at the plate—at least for the whole team — because only four players contributed.

Junior Gilliam led the hitters with four safeties in six times at bat, followed by Charlie Neal 3 for 6, Wally Moon 3 for 6 and Maury Wills 2 for 5.

Notably missing from the Dodger hitting list were slugger Frank Howard.

Guano is more precious to Peru than gold. Collecting the droppings of sea birds from the rocky islands strung along the Peruvian coast is a major industry.

Hot Springs, Ark. (UPI)—Gene Littler opened defense of his title today in the $20,000 Hot Springs Open against the largest field in the tournament's history.
