Edstrom Leads Ducks To Seventh Straight ND Track Championship

Eugene, Ore. – UPI – The University of Oregon Ducks, led by decathlon star Dave Edstrom, swept to their seventh straight Northern division track meet championship here Saturday.

With Edstrom winning both the high and low hurdles and gaining a third and a fourth place, the Ducks of Coach Bill Bowerman rolled up 56¾ points.

Oregon State college finished second with 40¼ points, University of Washington had 33½, Washington State university 26½ and the University of Idaho was last with 8.

Both the Ducks and the Beavers picked up six first places to give the state of Oregon 12 of the meet's 15 events.

Edstrom dethroned defending champion Spike Arlt of Washington state in winning the hurdles events. Edstrom also took a third in the broad jump and a fourth in the discus.

The other double winner of the meet was Amos Marsh of Oregon State. Marsh won both the 110 and 220-yard dashes.

Only one of the seven defending champions retained their titles. Oregon State's Darrell Horn won the broad jump event for the second straight year.

Sub-four minute miler Dyrol Burleson of Oregon won the mile in 4:09.8.

A wet track and harsh wind hampered the athletes and no Northern division records were broken. Nine of the athletes competing had bettered existing meet marks.

Cepeda Homer Paces Giants To 3-1 Win Over Pittsburgh

United Press International

The San Francisco Giants put an end to Pittsburgh's four-game winning streak Saturday when Orlando Cepeda socked a two-run homer and Johnny Antonelli and Bud Byerly teamed up to register a 3-1 victory over the Pirates.

Antonelli, credited with his third straight victory, had a four-hit shutout going into the ninth but was replaced by Byerly after Bob Skinner led off with a double and moved to third on Dick Groat's single.

Skinner scored when Roberto Clemente hit a sacrifice fly off Byerly but Dick Stuart then bounced into a double play to end the game. The victory by the Giants moved them within a half game of the first-place Pirates and was the first defeat suffered by Pittsburgh in nine games at home.

St. Louis Downs Reds

Ken Boyer's single with the bases loaded capped a three-run rally in the ninth inning and gave the St. Louis Cardinals a 6-5 victory over the Cincinnati Reds. Boyer's smash came off Bob Grim although the loss was charged to reliever Bill Henry, whose wild throw past first base earlier in the ninth helped the Cards to two runs. Bob Duliba was the winning pitcher.

Frank Robinson hit his eighth homer for the Reds and Vada Pinson his second. Joe Cunningham collected four of the Cardinals' 12 hits.

Lew Burdette picked up his third victory in a relief assignment while pitching the Milwaukee Braves to a 4-2 win over the Chicago Cubs. The game was interrupted by rain twice and Burdette took over for starter Joey Jay when play was resumed in the fifth inning following a 36-minute wait.

Adcock Homers

Milwaukee scored twice in the first inning off loser Dick Ellsworth on Bill Bruton's single, Eddie Mathews' double and Hank Aaron's single, and pushed across what proved to be the decisive run in the second inning. Joe Adcock hit his fourth homer of the season for the Braves in the fourth and Ernie Banks smacked his ninth homer for the Cubs in the third.

Los Angeles at Philadelphia was postponed because of rain.

Bucs Edge Giants in Long Game

Pittsburgh–UPI – Pittsburgh edged San Francisco, 5-4, Friday night in a hectic 12-inning affair to win its ninth straight home contest and ninth victory in the past 10 games.

It marked Pittsburgh's first victory of the season against San Francisco, which swept three from the Bucs earlier at Candlestick Park.

The Pirates slammed two runs across in the 12th inning to win last night after the Giants had forged ahead, 4-3, with a lone marker in their half.

Roberto Clemente singled home Dick Groat from second base with the winning marker off reliefer Billy Loes. Groat earlier in the inning had doubled across Don Hoak with the typing run off Billy O'Dell.

TAKE NEW POST

Moscow, Idaho–UPI – Dave Stack, 37, resigned Friday as head basketball coach at the University of Idaho to become head basketball coach at the University of Michigan, his alma mater. President D. R. Theophilus of Idaho said Strack was named to replace Bill Perigo, who resigned from the Michigan post last week.

Pirates NL Lead Cut to Half-Game

Pittsburgh – UPI – San Francisco southpaw Johnny Antonelli needed relief help in the ninth inning Saturday to sustain his mastery over Pittsburgh with a 3-1 victory, cutting the Pirates' National league lead to a half-game over the Giants.

Antonelli had a four-hit shutout going into the ninth when Bob Skinner led off with a double, advanced to third on Dick Groat's single and scored when Roberto Clemente flied out to center. Bud Byerly replaced Antonelli after Groat's single and got Clemente on the flyout and Dick Stuart on a game-ending double play.

Winning his third game of the season against no defeats, Antonelli raised his lifetime record against the Pirates to 23-10. The defeat snapped the Pirates' four - game winning streak and halted their home winning string at nine games.

Orlando Cepeda's sixth homer following Willie McCovey's leadoff walk in the second inning gave Antonelli a working margin and handed Bob Friend his second defeat against five victories.

Don Blasingame opened the eighth with a double, his second extra-base hit, and tallied on Joe Amalfitano's single to wind up the scoring.

The teams are now even in their current series at one victory each and meet in a showdown battle for first place Sunday afternoon. Pittsburgh's leading hurler, Vernon Law, will try for his seventh victory against one loss while once beaten Jack Sanford will attempt to pitch the Giants into the lead with his fifth victory.

Oregon Boxer Gains Berth On Olympic Team

By HAL WOOD

San Francisco – UPI – Ten of America's finest fighting men were set today for Europe and the 1960 Olympics where they will represent this country at Rome this fall.

From tiny Humberto Barrera, Robstown, Tex., a 112-pounder, to mammoth Percy Price, Philadelphia, a 220-pound heavyweight, they'll carry the colors of the Stars and Stripes into battle against the world's best amateurs.

The United States gladiators won their crowns in slugfests before 7,000 fans in the Cow Palace Friday night.

Barrera Pounds Way

Barrera pounded his way to a unanimous decision over Wayman Gray, the National AAU champion from Monroe, Mich.

Other standouts included 178-pounder Cassius Clay of Louisville, Ky., who scored a third-round tko over Allen Hudson, Long Island, N.Y.

Wilbert McClure, National AAU champion from Toledo, looked powerful in decisioning James Ellis, Louisville, Ky., for the 156 pound crown.

And Harry Campbell, the well-versed boxer from Detroit and San Jose State, looked solid in taking the 132-pound title from Brian O'Shea of Chicago.

Surprise Winner

A surprise winner was Nick Spanakos, the fun - loving Greek from Burns, Ore. The short 125-pounder decisioned long-armed Dave Nelson, the NCAA champion from Mountain View, Calif.

Price won his heavyweight crown with a victory over the clutching Harold Espey of Pocatello, Idaho.

The other champions: Jerry Armstrong, Saginaw, Mich., decisioned Oscar German, Muskegon, Mich., at 119 pounds; Quincy Daniels, Seattle, Wash., decisioned Roosevelt Ware, Cincinnati at 139 pounds; Phil Baldwin, Muskegon, Mich., decisioned James Scates, Warren, Ohio, at 147 pounds; and Ray Phillips, Cincinnati decisioned Bob Conrad, Dallas, Tex., in the 165 pound class.

Sox Win Slugfest From Yankees 9-8

By United Press International

Roger Maris slammed two home runs and Gil McDougald and Bob Cerv one apeice but despite the bombardment, the Chicago White Sox beat the New York Yankees, 9-8, Saturday in a game that was interrupted four times by rain and took 4½ hours to play.

Ten pitchers were pressed into action with the victory going to Chicago's fifth hurler, Gerry Staley, and the loss to Bobby Shantz, the Yank's third reliever.

Minnie Minoso drove in the winning run with a seventh inning single after Roger Maris' second homer of the game with one on had tied the score at 8-8 in the top of the inning.

The Cleveland Indians took advantage of Jerry Casale's wildness to hand the Boston Red Sox their seventh straight defeat, 6-1. A single and four walks netted two runs for the Indians in the fifth and they added two more in the same frame off Mike Fornieles on Woodie Held's double.

Williams Plays

Jim Perry won his second game although Johnny Klippstein relieved him in the ninth. Ted Williams, making his first appearance in Boston's lineup since April 19, collected two of the four hits by the Red Sox.

Dick Hall of Kansas City reeled off his fourth straight victory without a defeat in beating the Washington Senators, 5-2, with a six-hit effort.

The A's scored three runs in the first inning off loser Jim Kaat on four walks, an error and Harry Chiti's double, then added single runs in the fourth and sixth innings. Hall struck out six batters and walk a man in pitching his third complete game.

Baltimore came back from a 3-0 deficit to defeat Detroit, 7-4, on a neat piece of relief pitching by winner Gordon Jones.

Lary Gets Loss

Frank Lary, charged with his third loss, retired the first 12 men who faced him but ran into trouble in the fifth inning when Ron Hansen doubled with the bases loaded for three runs. Hansen then scored the fourth run of the inning on Bob Boyd's pinch single.

In the sixth, the Orioles clinched the game with three more runs on Clint Courtney's two-run homer, Hansen's second double and a single by Jones. Jones took over for starter Arnie Portocarrero in the fifth and gave up one run and three hits the rest of the way to register his first victory.

Milwaukee Fog Ends One Game; Sox Win Other

United Press International

Everyone finally quit in Milwaukee Friday night because the fog was like pea soup but you'd never know it in nearby Chicago where Ted Kluszewski's hitting made it duck soup for the White Sox.

That Milwaukee fog was so thick that you couldn't see your hand in front of your face. More important, four umpires and three Chicago Cub outfielders couldn't see the ball sail over their heads when Cub third baseman Frank Thomas hit an experimental fungo drive out their way.

That did it: Plate umpire Frank Dascoli called the game between the Cubs and Braves after 4½ scoreless innings. Warren Spahn had allowed four hits up to that point and Cub pitcher Don Cardwell, making his first start since his no-hitter against the Cardinals, had yielded only one hit.

Less than 100 miles away from Milwaukee, however, Kluszewski was "seeing the ball real good" as they say in the dugouts when a hitter has a good night.

Big Klu drove in four runs with a homer and a bases-loaded single to pace the White Sox to a 5-3 victory over the Yankees.

Two Lead Hot Springs Open

Hot Springs, Ark. – UPI – Lionel Hebert and Bill Collins both birdied the par five 518-yard 18th hole Saturday to take the lead at the halfway point in the $20,000 Hot Springs Open with six-under-par 318s.

Hebert, who hasn't won since 1958, fired a 69 yesterday to match a 69 Thursday.

Bally Ache Posts Win in Preakness; Avenges Loss

Baltimore, Md. –UPI– Bally Ache avenged his Kentucky Derby defeat with a runaway, front running victory in the $175,100 Preakness Stakes Saturday with Venetian Way's bid for a sweep of the triple crown classic ending in utter defeat.

With Bobby Ussery in the saddle, Bally Ache, second behind Venetian Way in the Kentucky Derby two weeks ago, went to the front when the small field of six three-year-olds bolted out of the starting gate and stayed there all the way.

The son of Ballydam pulled away with a blistering run through the stretch and romped home by four lengths ahead of Windfields farm's Victoria Park.

Then almost two lengths farther back, came Green Dunes farm's Celtic Ash with Llangollen farm's Divine Comedy fourth. Then came Venetian Way, the young colt which won the Kentucky Derby as easily as Bally Ache won the Preakness. C. R. Mac stable's T.V. Lark was last.

Bally Ache, who was sold for $1,250,000 after his Kentucky Derby defeat, streaked over the mile and three-sixteenths in 1:57-3/5. It was three full seconds slower than the Preakness record set by Nashua in 1955 but it was more than fast enough to whip his five rivals.

The crowd of 30,659 made Venetian Way its favorite at 6 to 5, with Bally Ache second choice. The winner paid $5.40 and $2.80 with no show betting.

Victoria Park paid $5.80 for place.

Ussery, a 24-year-old jockey from Vian, Okla., had everything his way in the race and the clever and pleasant rider took full advantage of it.

He quickly hustled Bally Ache, now the winner of $664,527, to the front and then wisely took a snug hold. Even though Venetian Way pressed the pace all the way Bally Ache seemed to be just breezing along in front. He never had to extend himself for the first quarter mile was run in :24-1/5, the half in :48-4/5, six furlongs in 1:13-2/5 and the mile in 1:38-2/5.

Southern Oregon Places Six On OCC All-Star in Baseball

Portland–Southern Oregon, second place finisher in the Oregon Collegiate Conference, dominated the league all-star team by earning exactly half of the 12 spots on the dream team, which was selected by the conference coaches.

Coach Ted Schopf's Red Raiders placed six men on the squad, league champion Oregon College of Education placed three, Portland State earned two spots, and Oregon Tech landed one man on the all-star outfit.

Southern Oregon shortstop Jim Dietz and catcher Phil Sword were the only repeaters from last year's team and both of them made it at different positions a year ago. Dietz was named as the all-star second baseman and Sword was selected as an outfielder in 1959. For Sword, it was his third straight year of selection to the all-league squad.

Gordy Detzel, who pitched OCE to the league title, made the all-star team for the second time, having previously been named in 1958. Only three seniors, Detzel, Sword, and first baseman Jack Brown, all of Southern Oregon, were chosen.

Portland State placed its pair of slick sophomore infielders, second baseman Phil Adolf and third baseman Dick Peters, who made it as utility infielder, on the team. The only other sophomore to make the grade was pitcher John Younger of Southern Oregon.

The juniors who were selected were Dietz, outfielder Ross Lemon of OCE, outfielder Ardell Hamilton of Oregon Tech, and outfielders Kerm McLemore and Eldon Francis of Southern Oregon. OCE third baseman Jim Luke was the only freshman picked by the OCC coaches on the all-star team.

OCE led the honorable mention selection with five Wolves earning honors in this category. Coach Bob Livingston's champions placed pitchers Ted Bennett and Clancy Williams, first baseman Ray Derrah, catcher Terry Smith, and shortstop Jim Corkill on the honorable mention list.

Portland State shortstop Dennis Heath, OCE's Jack Antonson, and Oregon Tech outfielder Virgil Winters were 1959 all-stars who failed to repeat, although Winters did earn honorable mention rating.

Here's how much a Volkswagen Truck holds a standard half-ton truck holds only the white sets
The VW is almost 3 feet shorter than the usual half-ton truck, but carries 830 pounds more—a full 1,830 lbs.
Its cubic capacity is greater, too: 170 cu. ft. vs. 145 cu. ft.
Although it carries so much more, a VW Truck costs only half as much to run. It gives about twice the gas mileage. And with half the usual unladen weight there's only half the tire wear. You also save on service, depreciation and, in many states, license fees and insurance.
You also save time. The Panel Delivery loads and unloads through big double side doors, as well as the rear door. Double doors on both sides are optional at extra cost.
