Grey-Chick Ceremony Takes Place

A ceremony held May 14 at Medford Congregational church wedded Nellie Rawlings Chick and James William Grey. The double-ring rites took place at two o'clock in the afternoon, with the Rev. Thomas McCamant officiating.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey E. Rawlings, Route 4, Box 405, Medford, and the bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Herb Grey, 42 South Barneburg road, Medford.

About 25 guests attended the ceremony and the reception which followed at the bride's home, 2000 Woodlawn drive.

For her wedding and reception the bride wore a pink linen suit and carried pink rosebuds on a white bible, the bible being the bridegroom's gift.

Miss Neva Rawlings, the bride's sister, was her attendant. She wore a sheath frock of baby blue linen and carried white carnations.

Herb J. Grey was best man for his brother.

Bouquets of white stock and pink daisies decorated the church for the ceremony, and these flowers were also used for reception decorations.

Mrs. Herb J. Grey, sister-in-law of the bride, cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Bryan Mercer served punch and Mrs. Brian Mullen the coffee.

Mr. Grey and his bride made a wedding trip to Victoria B.C. and will live at the Woodlawn address. For traveling Mrs. Grey wore a pink sheath frock with white accessories and the roses from her wedding bouquet.

The bride attended Medford High school and Robertson School of Business. She has been a bookkeeper for William Dawkins and associates.

Mr. Grey is a graduate of Medford High school and Whitworth college, Spokane, and is an advertising salesman for the Medford Mail Tribune.

The bride was honored at a shower given by Mrs. Brian Mullen at her home on Campbell road May 10. Guests were Mrs. William Young, Mrs. Hugh Jennings, Mrs. Herb J. Grey, Mrs. Kermit Bickel, Mrs. Rollie Chisum, Mrs. C. J. Niehaus, Mrs. Beverly Lyons, Mrs. William Dawkins, Mrs. Joyce Swartzels, Mrs. Herb Partridge, Miss Sandra Guss, Miss Sheila Schuerman, Miss Elsie Todd, Miss Neva Rawlings, the bride-elect, her mother and the bridegroom's mother.

wore a blue and white checked suit with white accessories.

Coming from out of town for the wedding, in addition to the mother of the bridegroom, were Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Vincent and son, Terry, Mr. and Mrs. Hilficker and family and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Kamstra and family, all of Salem; Mrs. Chester Jenkins, Independence; and Mrs. Lester Teschner, Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Glenn, 18 Elm street, friends of the families, were hosts at a reception which followed at their home. Mrs. Gerald Kime, Central Point, aunt of the bride, poured punch and Mrs. John Robison, Central Point, poured coffee.

Cutting the cake were Mrs. Francis Marshall, Central Point, and Mrs. Lee Bumgardner, aunt of the bride, who also baked and decorated the cake. Assisting were Mrs. Neil Glenn and Mrs. Norville Hilficker, cousin of the bride.

The bride and bridegroom attended elementary school in Central Point. She attended Crater High school before transferring to Medford High school, where she was graduated. She is a member of Beta Chi Theta Rho club and Mt. Pitt Rebekah lodge, Central Point. The bride also attended dental assistants school in Seattle.

The bridegroom attended University High school in Los Angeles and is now employed by Bessonet Construction company.

The newlyweds are residing at 15 B Newtown street following their return from a wedding trip to Los Angeles. For traveling the bride and the bridegroom's mother.

The table centerpiece was a cut glass dish filled with rhododendrons, and "diamond" trimmed candles in antique cupid candleholders of brass. Mrs. Pickett wore a green gown and corsage for the event.

The honored couple came to Jackson county in 1919, living first on a ranch near Gold Hill. They have made their home in the county ever since. They were married in Rodney, Iowa, May 23, 1900.

Cards were played following the opening of gifts. Guests attending included Mrs. Grove, Mrs. L. O. Penland, Mrs. R. W. Witham, Mrs. John Myers, Mrs. M. D. McGeary, Mrs. L. C. Watrud, Mrs. F. E. Hallgren, Mrs. Andrew Stevens, Mrs. Raymond Furry, Mrs. Ernest James, Mrs. H. A. Dubuque, Mrs. Roy LeVander, Mrs. William Bagley, and the Misses Pamela Grove and Marilyn Popow.

The wedding is planned for June 4.
