Miss Beacham is a senior at Crater High school. Her fiancé is a graduate of the same school and is employed at Timber Products. No wedding date has been set.

Secretary Elected To State Office

Mrs. Jo Ann Dodge, 907 South Holly street, Medford, was elected treasurer of the Oregon division, National Secretaries Association (International), at the annual division meeting held last week end in Eugene.

Other officers elected were: Miss Elois Gantenbein, Portland, president; Mrs. Gladys Kats, Eugene, vice-president and Miss Carol Waterman, Salem, secretary.

Theme for the convention was "Every Man A Debtor To His Profession" and speakers for the event included Dr. R. W. Lindholm, Prof. George Hopkins and Prof. John Hopkins, all from the University of Oregon staff and Gail V. Packard, Traffic Engineer for Jones & Son.

About 60 secretaries were in attendance for the two-day affair.

Officers for the coming year, elected at the last meeting of the local chapter, will be installed at the June meeting. They are Mrs. Jeanne Rose, president; Mrs. Jeanne Brown, vice-president; Mrs. Kay Thomas, secretary; Mrs. Kay Jandreau, treasurer.

Miss Linda Lowry, queen of the 1960 Junior-Senior Prom of Medford High school, is shown here with Robert Hamilton, student body president. Queen Linda wore a gown of white chiffon with green satin ribbons encircling the waist, Grecian fashion, and green satin slippers. The dance was held at the high school May 14, and "A Knight's Dream" was the theme. Miss Lowry is the daughter of Mrs. Barbara Lowry, 1820 East Jackson boulevard, and young Hamilton's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Moore Hamilton, 43 Rose avenue. (Brainerd photo)

Meads Arrive From Arizona; Stable Planned

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mead have recently arrived from Litchfield Park, Ariz., and are living at 2306 Spring street. Mr. and Mrs. Mead have four children. The oldest son is in the Army, and is stationed at Fort Sill, Okla. Their three daughters are remaining temporarily in California with relatives.

Mr. Mead was a resident of Grants Pass for many years.

Luncheon Meeting Held in Hornbrook

Hornbrook - Rain and high winds forced a change of plans when Mrs. Dudley Killingsworth entertained the Woman's Society of the Methodist church. A barbecued chicken luncheon, planned for the patio, was served indoors instead.

Mrs. Killingsworth is president of the organization. Sufficient additional items were turned in at the meeting to complete the second of six Jayettes the group has pledged to furnish this year to the Siskiyou General hospital in Yreka. These will be given to needy mothers and babies.

The next meeting of the society will be May 26 at the church and this will be the annual clean-up day.

Women Plan Installation

New officers of Medford Junior Women's club will be installed and honored at a banquet Wednesday, May 25, at Rogue Valley Country club at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Gene Chamberlain will be installed as president of the group; Mrs. Richard Ackerman, first vice president; Mrs. F. D. Nelson, second vice president; Mrs. Bob G. Norris, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Hercher, treasurer; Mrs. Virgil Morton, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. William Sweet, parliamentarian. Mrs. Robert W. Billingsley will conduct the ceremony.

Miss Jeri Smith, student at Medford High school, was guest speaker at the May meeting of the club. Her subject was "Student Art" and she illustrated her talk with a number of examples of work done by students using a variety of media and technique. She told of the stage sets for theatrical productions which have been done by the school art department and of the student interest in the new Rogue Art gallery. Members of the art classes are on duty in the gallery on Saturdays and are planning a senior high art display for May 24-27, she said.

Club members suspend business meetings for the summer months and plan monthly social activities for the season. An informal coffee will be held in June at the home of Mrs. James Wells.

Chapter Holds Annual Election

Mrs. John Rector was elected president of the Rogue Valley chapter of the National Women's Association of Allied Beverage Industries, Inc., at a luncheon meeting May 17.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Leslie Wilson, first vice president; Mrs. Fairman Connel, second vice president; Mrs. Cora Osterhout, secretary; and Mrs. Chris Schemp, treasurer.

Mrs. Don White of the local WAABI chapter will represent the group at the national convention of the organization June 21 through 23 in Minneapolis, Minn.

Installation of new officers will be held June 13 followed by a buffet dinner at the Western room in the Pioneer club, Central Point. Husbands of the chapter members are invited to attend the installation and dinner.

Nevita Chapter To Hold Election

Central Point-Nevita chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will elect officers at a meeting Tuesday, May 24, at 8 p.m. at the Masonic temple, Central Point.

Mrs. Ted Flury will decorate for the annual memorial service; Mrs. Frank Ward, worthy matron and Wyles Berry, worthy patron, will preside. Mrs. Wallace Nece and a committee will have charge of refreshments.

Mother-Daughter Meeting Planned

A mother-daughter meeting is planned by Rogue chapter, Grandmother Clubs of America for Monday, May 23, at 12:30 o'clock at Girls Community club. Each grandmother is to bring her daughters, or having no daughter, her daughters-in-law.

Light refreshments will be served by the hostesses for the month. A program will precede the business meeting.

Guests Leave - Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Day have returned to their home in Eureka, Calif., after having been guests here of Mrs. Nina Chandler on Newlown street.

Homemaking Classes Hold Annual Tea

Butte Falls - A Mother-Daughter tea was held Monday afternoon, May 16, at the high school gymnasium. The tea was sponsored by the homemaking classes under the direction of Mrs. Leora Morey, instructor.

Officers of the freshman-sophomore homemaking class are Miss Sue Strong, chairman, and Miss Darlene Edmondson, secretary-treasurer. Officers of the junior-senior homemaking class are Miss Jeannette Capello, chairman, and Miss Noia Smith, secretary-treasurer.

Tea chairmen were Miss Strong, general chairman; Miss Linda Webster, programs; the Misses Capello and Kathy Olson, refreshments; Miss Edmondson, entertainment; Miss Smith, displays; Miss June Buttram, place mats; Miss Joyce Arnold, table arrangements; and Miss Judy Burg, invitations.

The program included a welcome by Mrs. Morey, presentation of awards, style show and several numbers sung by the Mothersingers. The farewell was also given by Mrs. Morey.

Miss Smith was presented the Betty Crocker Homemaker award for the Butte Falls High school.

Participants in the style show included, Miss Edmondson, Miss Buttram, Miss Olson, Miss Virginia Baker, Miss Burg, Miss Webster, Miss Patsy Facey and Miss Strong.

Mothersingers included Mrs. William Hunter, Mrs. Don Strong, Mrs. Don Jolliffe, Mrs. Randall Perkins and Mrs. William Harris. Piano accompanist was Mrs. Leth Meadows.

Displays of both boys and girls were shown. Shop displays and homemaking class displays gave mothers a little idea as to what students had accomplished this year.
