"Paris Street Scene" Theme of Crater Prom

Central Point - "Paris Street Scene" was the theme of the 1960 Junior-Senior Prom given by Crater High school in the school gymnasium. The elaborate setting for the event included a large replica of the Eiffel tower hung with silk, a false ceiling made from parachute silk, a 50-foot mural painted in fluorescent colors and a

Women Hear Emphasis For Future

Mrs. W. B. Landrum, Little Rock, Ark., field worker of the Woman's Division of Christian Service, spoke on "Our Mission Today" at the Monday, May 16, meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Wesleyan Service Guild at First Methodist church.

Mrs. Landrum also reviewed some of the action taken by the General Conference of the Methodist church meeting in Denver, Colo., last month.

There will be four main emphases in the work of the Woman's Division of Christian Service and the Methodist church for the coming quadrennium. Mrs. Landrum said. The first of these is "Faith which sustains us" and this will be pointed up this year through the study on basic Christian beliefs. "Factors which confront us" in the mission program of the church, in interracial cooperation, in economics and in the population explosion will be considered in the home mission study "Heritage and Horizons."

Frontiers Overseas

"Frontiers which call us" is the third emphasis and will include frontiers overseas and in American homes and families. Mrs. Landrum pointed out that with the exception of Afghanistan and Tibet, every country in the world is either open to Christian missionaries or has a Christian community within its borders.

The final emphasis will be on "The program which unites us" which includes bonds of service, love and faith. The foreign mission study for the coming year will be entitled "Into All the World Together" and is based on the ecumenical movement of the churches. She also mentioned the Christian social relations study which will be "Alcohol Problems, the Christian's Concern."

Guests Introduced

Mrs. Charles Adamson was toastmistress for the meeting and introduced guests from Gold Hill and Ashland. Mrs. Verne Wilson was narrator for the short program titled "Panorama—Land of Enchantment." Youth who modeled spring formal and graduation dresses were the Misses Jeri Smith, Jeanie James, Susan Garner, Mary Lou Moore, and Carol McVey. Next in the panorama were recent brides, Mrs. Robert Bills, Mrs. Wayne Breeze and Mrs. Garth Frick. Final section of the panorama included mothers and new babies, Mrs. Richard Stratton and Sally Elizabeth; Mrs. Carl Burk and Randy; and Mrs. Jerry Igo and Paula Jane.

Foreign Student Award Winner

Miss Aido Okamoto, a student from Peru at Southern Oregon college, is the winner of the annual scholarship award made by Beta Sigma Phi sorority. The announcement was made at a meeting of the chapter May 17 at Rogue Valley Country club. The award was made to Miss Okamoto at the Mother's Day luncheon at SOC.

Mrs. Howard Berg was installed as chapter president for the coming year; Mrs. Larry Rose, first vice-president; Mrs. Del Landing, second vice-president; Mrs. Leonard Howe, recording secretary; Mrs. Richard Lamont, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. John Freese, treasurer.

Mrs. Berg was chosen to attend the state Beta Sigma Phi convention in Roseburg this week end. Mrs. Calvin McKibben was in charge of the program on "Poetry in Our Lives."

The next regular meeting of the group will be held in September. A social event will be held this summer.

Annual Luncheon Set Wednesday

Past Matrons' club of Nevada, Alpha, Reames and Adair chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will meet for their annual luncheon Wednesday, May 25, at 12:30 p.m. at the Masonic temple, Central Point. All past matrons are invited to attend.

Mrs. John Raapke To Be Club Hostess

Kiwanian Dames will hold their monthly luncheon and business meeting at the home of Mrs. John Raapke, 308 Windsor avenue, on Tuesday, May 24, at 12 noon.

Hostesses for the afternoon will be Mrs. Raapke, Mrs. Ron Rice, Mrs. Paul Walker, Mrs. William Peck and Mrs. Bob Hart.

A social afternoon will follow the business meeting.

Miss Joan Skov, one of the princesses for the annual Junior-Senior Prom at Crater High school, was escorted to the dance by Charles Warren. Miss Skov is a yell leader and former yell queen for the school and her escort is vice-president of the Crater High school student body. Each princess wore a coronet of iridescent sequins similar to the gold sequin crown made for Queen Marilyn Hixson. The queen and princesses carried large chrysanthemums. (Anders photo)

Methodist WSCS Elects Medford Women to Office

Three Medford women were elected to serve as officers of the Oregon Conference of the Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service at the 20th annual meeting of the organization held last week in Coos Bay.

Mrs. George Lawless was re-elected to the position of secretary of student work. Mrs. George Roseberry was elected secretary of supply work, and Mrs. Charles Adamson was confirmed as secretary of the Wesleyan Service Guilds of the Oregon conference.

Mrs. Russell O. Watson, Portland, was elected president of the Oregon Conference, and others chosen to serve with her include Mrs. Maurice M. Romig, Coos Bay, vice president; Mrs. Jim Whipple, Drain, recording secretary; Mrs. George Falls, Portland, treasurer; and the following secretaries of lines of work: Mrs. L. S. Uppinghouse, Beaverton, promotion; Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar, Beaverton, missionary education and service; Miss Geneva McDonald, Forest Grove, Christian social relations; Mrs. Cecil R. Monk, Salem, children's work; Mrs. Carl B. Mason, Portland, youth work; Dr. Gertrude Boyd Crane, Forest Grove, spiritual life; Mrs. H. R. Kelley, Portland, literature and publications; and Mrs. Vern Hanna, Maupin, missionary personnel.

Mission Giving

A contribution of $67,500 to missions in home and foreign fields during 1960-61 was approved by delegates attending the meeting. This is an increase of $6,000 over the past year's giving. The new budget for conference projects stands at $4,390. These projects include the Linnton Community center near Portland; the Methodist home at Salem; scholarships for young people of minority races wanting to attend college; assistance to migrant work carried on by the Oregon Council of Churches, and a travel fund for young people attending special youth and church meetings.

Mrs. W. B. Landrum, field worker of the Woman's Division of Christian Service, whose home is in Little Rock, Ark., spoke on "The Sea of Time Is Stirred." She pointed out the impact which a Christian group can have on the community in which it is active.

Resolutions

Two resolutions were approved by the conference business session in the area of Christian social relations; that of approving the promotion of a change in Oregon law to read that the age of marriage for girls with parental consent be 16 years; and that the conference concurs with the position taken by the Woman's Division of Christian Service and the General Conference of the Methodist church meeting in Denver, in support of the Christian non-violent methods adopted and practiced by the students of colleges and universities.

Attending the session were over 300 delegates and visitors, representing 83 societies in Oregon. Of this total 194 were official delegates. The next annual meeting will be held in Corvallis in May, 1961.

Guest Day

Members of Reames Past Matrons club will be guests of Alpha and Nevada Past Matrons Wednesday, May 25. The women will have a luncheon at 12:30 o'clock at the Masonic temple in Central Point.

Work Session Set Monday

Gold Hill - Members of Amethyst Rebekah lodge will meet at the Odd Fellows hall for a work session Monday, May 23, at 10 a.m. to prepare for the official visit of the president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon on Wednesday, May 25.

A potluck dinner at 6:30 p.m. May 25 will precede the special session. Those who plan to attend are to telephone Mrs. Clarence Parsley to find out what they are supposed to take for the dinner.

The next regular meeting of the lodge will be held at 7:30 p.m. June 1. Afterwards members of this lodge will attend Friendship night at Mt. Pitt Rebekah lodge in Central Point.

The Past Noble Grands club of Amethyst Rebekah lodge will meet Thursday, May 26, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Frank Carter, Upper river road.

Amethyst Rebekah Friendship club will meet Monday, May 23, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Howard Burnette, Fourth avenue, Gold Hill.

Mrs. Clarence Parsley, president of the group asked that each member of the group purchase two tablespoons to be donated to the lodge as a project.

The Past Noble Grands' club and Amethyst lodge have each voted to purchase two table covers for the hall.

Recital Set

Students of Mrs. Peggy Apollo will be presented in a spring recital Tuesday, May 24, at 7:30 p.m. at First Southern Baptist church, 794 Lozier lane.
