Twenty-five year auxiliary membership pins were given Mrs. Elnore Gould and Mrs. Lottie Girard and 20 year membership bars to Mrs. Lee Turner and Mrs. Esther Turner, Grants Pass.

Mrs. Zundel presented a gift to Mrs. Mansfield, and Mrs. Dottie Burkett, Rogue River, and Mrs. DeBerry, president of Crater Lake auxiliary, Medford, presented gifts to Mrs. Zundel.

Mrs. Mansfield spoke on membership, community service and cancer research and hospital work.

Eagle Point PTA Slates Meeting

Eagle Point - The Eagle Point Elementary Parent-Teacher association will hold their last meeting of the year Tuesday, May 24, in the grade school gymnasium at 8 p.m.

"Hazel Atkins Day" will be observed in honor of Mrs. Hazel Atkins who is retiring after 22 years of teaching. The last seven years she taught in Eagle Point, and all but two years here in Jackson County. All former students and their parents, friends and the public are invited to attend and honor her at this time.

Installation of new officers will be conducted by Mrs. John Huffman, a former president and president of the High School PTSA. Convention reports and the historians report will be given.

Refreshments will be served by mothers of children in the first grade.

Central Point Couple Visit in Hornbrook

Hornbrook - Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Brittsan, who were returning to their home in Central Point, Ore., after a trip to southern California, called on their niece, Mrs. Ellene Rowell, here recently. Mr. Brittsan is a brother of Mrs. Rowell's mother, Mrs. Bessie Clawson.

Mrs. Rowell, of Ward Cove, Alaska, has been here with her mother since Mr. Clawson's death several months ago. Mr. Rowell will join his wife here this summer.

Mrs. Clawson is at present in Eugene with other members of her family.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Reinit, Seattle, Wash., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ivon Howard recently. The Reinites were en route home after a trip to southern California and Arizona.

Richard Bruce Emerick and his father from Fairfield, Calif., visited recently at the home of Mrs. Louise Slagle, Mr. Emerick's grandmother.

Wright, the Rev. Eric Robothon and Mrs. Harriet Bates will also be shown. Sculptures by Mrs. E. E. Evans, Mrs. Ethel Byers, Mrs. Pearl Spackman and Glenn Van Wickle will also be exhibited as well as work in cooper. The open house at the Center, 601 East Jackson street, will be from 1:30 to 5:30 p.m. and the public is invited.

Clothing Appeal Made By Circle

Central Point - An urgent need for clothing for overseas relief was stressed at a meeting of the Women's Christian Service circle of Central Point Presbyterian church. The group met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Walter Gebhard. Persons wishing to donate clothing are asked to bring it to the church today. Faith Circle met Monday evening. Mrs. Robert Bridge, a guest, helped with the study of Psalms.

Week End Program

Gold Hill - Mrs. C. Norman Gail and Mrs. Grover T. Mulkey, were among those attending mother's week end activities at the University of Oregon, Eugene

Happy Camp Classes Visit Sacramento

Happy Camp - Members of the seventh and eighth grade classes accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. Walter Aubrey, spent last week end in Sacramento. While there they visited the state capitol, Sutter's Fort, and other points of interest.

Degree of Honor Announces Session

The Degree of Honor Protective association will meet at the Girls Community club Monday at 7:30 p.m. A business session will be followed by drill team and glee club practice.

Mrs. Harold Elliott will serve as hostess.

Music Festival Held by Schools

Central Point - Gold Hill, Sams Valley, and Central Point Elementary and Junior High schools held a district music festival at the Central Point High school gymnasium. Students from the fourth grade up from all three areas met to sing together songs which they had learned for the occasion. Students of the third grade and teachers were the audience.

Pianists were Mrs. Ruth Brewster and Mrs. Joanne Sousa, both Central Point. Directing the singing was Marvin Throne, Gold Hill.

The festival began with the singing of songs of nature, and novelty numbers were on the program. Eileen Kell of Gold Hill was soloist for the final novelty number. Songs of work and play, and two patriotic numbers were sung.

The festival ended with the entire group singing "All Creatures of Our God and King."

Honored at Shower

Happy Camp - Mrs. James Tristan gave a lavette shower for Mrs. John Krogh at the home economics room of the Happy Camp High school May 15.

The room was decorated for the event and refreshments were served to 15 guests.

WCS to Hold Pledge Service

The Woman's Society of Christian Service will conduct its annual pledge service at the general meeting Tuesday, May 24 at First Methodist church.

Devotions begin at 9:30 a.m. in Meeker chapel, followed by the business meeting at 10 a.m. with Mrs. Milton Snow presiding.

Mrs. Floyd Lewis and Mrs. Gladys Rammin will present the program titled "Jesus, the Light of the World" and Mrs. Richard Loros is in charge of the worship service.

Master Craftsmanship

distinguishes every Simcrest sofa and chair. Exclusive treatments make each style adaptable to a variety of living room plans. Fabrics include a wide selection of textures, patterns, yarns and colors. (We're ready for your challenge!)

Famous Beautyrest Individually-pocketed ortho assure maximum comfort. The same construction that's become a world-famous by-word in sleep comfort!

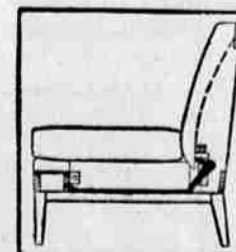

Double cushions give outstanding comfort. The separate, removable base cushion helps distribute weight evenly. The seat cushion is zippered for easy cleaning.

Silks, linens and fine cottons go to make up one of the largest fabric cover selections you've probably ever seen.

COMFORTORC* CONSTRUCTION

Without webbing and without twine (you know how that sort of thing sags sooner or later) Simmons has cleverly hidden a self-adjusting seating mechanism in each sofa and chair. You'll never know it's there 'til you sit down and get the sheer enjoyment of the "personalized" adjustment of the seat. Luxuriate on double cushions. Even sit "three-on-a-sofa" without being tilted or bounced by your seat partners. Simmons calls this design Comfortorc*. It's great! Come in and try it.
