

Birthday Celebrated

"It Doesn't Cost Money," a poem recited by Mrs. J. R. Seller, in part described the atmosphere of the group of friends and relatives gathered recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Foster, 139 Portland avenue. Mrs. Seller was one of the guests helping to celebrate Mrs. Foster's 80th birthday, and the friendly atmosphere brought the poem to mind for Mrs. Seller. She remarked that although the author was unknown to her, he had aptly put into words the feeling of the group.

Mrs. John M. Foster, 139 Portland avenue, was honored recently at a party which observed her 80th birthday anniversary. Mrs. Foster was born in Klamath county in 1880 and came to Trail in the Rogue valley in 1895. She has lived in this county since that time.

Mrs. Foster was born in Klamath County in 1880 and came to Trail in 1895, making her home in the Rogue River Valley since that time. Her family has a background of pioneer founders in Klamath County. Nancy Ellen Hall and Simpson Wilson, her parents, were the first white couple to be married in Linkville, which is now Klamath Falls.

The grave of her maternal great-grandfather, Ichabod Hall, was honored with a marker by the Klamath County Historical society, as an early pioneer settler, who, according to legend, lived to be over a hundred years old. Mrs. George McDonald, aunt of Mrs. Foster, assisted in ground breaking ceremonies for the first railroad to go through Klamath Falls. She was chosen because she had been a resident in Klamath county longer than any other white woman at that time.

A potluck dinner was shared, as was a birthday cake which was baked by Mrs. W. E. Hamel of Eagle Point.

Among relatives and friends attending from out of town were: Thomas J. Wilson and Ambre Blayden from Rogue River, Mrs. Christina Davis, Salem, A. C. Olson, Portland, and Mrs. George Balke, Daly City, Calif.

Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Hull, Mrs. J. J. McHugh, Mr. and Mrs. Holly Swingle, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh H. Hulbert, Mrs. Vicey Caster, Mrs. Marshall Caster and children, Beth and Mark, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Minter, George Minter, John Minter, Mrs. A. M. Davis, W. E. Hamel, Mrs. Foster's daughter, Mrs. Erma Hulse and children, Byron, Caroline and Joyce, Mrs. Merle E. McGraw and daughters, Lana and Wendy.

Unable to attend were Mrs. Foster's son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Richardson and children.

A Tribute To the Medford Active Club

Through worthwhile projects, such as their "ACTIVE VARIETIES," staged last night at Medford High School auditorium, this active group of young men raise money to finance a number of activities for children's organizations.

Our hats are off to this fine organization. The city of Medford is proud to number the ACTIVE CLUB as one of their Service Organizations.

We know there will be more to be heard from this organization — so Keep Active, ACTIVE CLUB. We're proud of you and your record.
