

Local and Personal

Council to Meet—The Inter Agency Council will meet at 10 a. m. Tuesday, May 24, at the Salvation Army shelter. Work on a directory of community service in Jackson county will continue.

Medical Patients—Mrs. Fred Jensen, Seiad Valley, Calif., and Mrs. Jack Troost, Klamath River, Calif., were listed as medical patients today at Medford Osteopathic hospital.

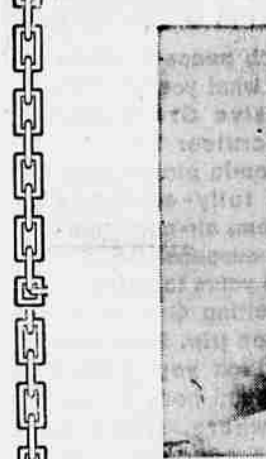

LITHIA DRIVE-IN THEATRE
2 1/2 Miles North of ASHLAND
"THE BEST OF EVERYTHING"
HOPE LANDIS, STEPHEN BOYD, SUZY PRIMER, MARTHA HYER, DANIE BAKER, BRIAN ARNONE, LOUIS JOHNSON, JOAN GRAVERD

Glenn FORD
IMITATION GENERAL
CINEMASCOPE
RED BUTTONS
TAINA ELG
— DEAN JONES

VARSAITY
THEATRE FROM 8:30
TONITE & TUESDAY
ANTHONY PERKINS
"TALL STORY"
RITA HAYWORTH
ANTHONY FRANCOSA
GIG YOUNG
"THE STORY ON PAGE ONE"
CINEMASCOPE

Sale Planned—Griffin Creek Parent-Teacher association will hold a rummage sale Thursday, May 26, from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. at the Fehi building. Mrs. Cleo Epps, chairman, said workers are needed at the schoolhouse Tuesday and Wednesday to mark and prepare articles for the sale. Donations may be taken to the schoolhouse either day. Mrs. Epps' telephone number is SP 3-5837.

Among children 10 to 14, and young people 15 to 19, milk is the favorite beverage — soft drinks are second. To sell its best prospects the dairy industry spent an estimated $16.9 million in newspaper advertising last year.

Insurance Problems?

see the Insurance Specialists — at

Security Insurance & Realty

48 Hawthorne Ave. — Phone SP 3-7323

"INSURANCE IS SECURITY"

Births

McDONALD—To Mr. and Mrs. Delbert, route 2, box 208A, Central Point, May 20, 1960, a girl, 5 1/2 pounds, at Medford Osteopathic hospital.

STOCKER—To Mr. and Mrs. Benny, route 1, box 29A, Rogue River, May 21, 1960, a boy, 8 1/4 pounds, at Medford Osteopathic hospital.

THOMAS—To Mr. and Mrs. Kindred, 1045 Cherry st., Medford, May 21, 1960, a girl 8 1/4 pounds, at Medford Osteopathic hospital.

BENNETT—To Mr. and Mrs. Norman, route 1, box 92A, Gold Hill, May 22, 1960, a boy, 10 pounds, at Medford Osteopathic hospital.

BAKER—To Mr. and Mrs. Wallace, 401 South Fifth st., Jacksonville, May 15, 1960, a girl, 6 3/4 pounds, at Sacred Heart hospital.

NEHAY—To Mr. and Mrs. John, Yreka, Calif., May 20, 1960, a girl, 7 pounds, at Sacred Heart hospital.

RONNANDER—To Mr. and Mrs. Leonard E. route 1, box 298, Central Point, May 20, 1960, a girl, 6 pounds, at Sacred Heart hospital.

CIMPL—To Mr. and Mrs. Laverne J., 801 North Central ave., Medford, May 20, 1960, a boy, 7 1/2 pounds, at Sacred Heart hospital.

ELBERT—To Mr. and Mrs. Leonard E. route 1, box 298, Central Point, May 20, 1960, a girl, 6 pounds, at Sacred Heart hospital.

OBITUARIES

THOMAS G. BRADLEY
Thomas Garrison Bradley, 69, of 1108 Oakdale ave., Medford, died in a local hospital Sunday. Funeral arrangements will be announced by Perl Funeral home.

HARRY N. GLEIM
Harry N. Gleim died in the Veterans hospital in Portland, Sunday. Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Louella Gleim. Funeral arrangements will be announced by Perl Funeral home.

EDNA REED
Funeral services for Edna Reed, 71, of 180 Alida st., Ashland, who died Friday, will be held in Ashland Mortuary chapel, Fourth and C sts., Tuesday at 1:30 p. m., with the Rev. F. C. Neumann of the Free Methodist church officiating. Committal will be in Hawthorne Memorial Gardens, Grants Pass.

Mrs. Reed was born Dec. 6, 1888, in St. Paul, Ark. In November, 1909, in Dutton, Ark., she was married to Wiley H. Reed, who survives. She moved to Ashland from Grants Pass in 1957. Mrs. Reed was a member of the Free Methodist church. A son and daughter preceded her in death.

JAMES C. LUSK
Funeral services for James Calloway Lusk, 82, of Eagle Point, who died Friday, will be held in Conger-Morris Funeral home downtown chapel Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. The Rev. Joseph Munshaus of the Eagle Point Community church will officiate. The Eagle Point Grange will conduct services at the graveside in Siskiyou Memorial park.

Mr. Lusk was born in Corral county, Texas, July 17, 1877, moving to Eagle Point in 1930 from Lakeview. He was married May 8, 1901, at Cooks Landing, Wash., to Pearl Coulter, who survives. He was a member of the Eagle Point Community church.

Survivors besides his wife, include seven children, Harvey B. Lusk, Eugene, Ore.; L. Rex Lusk, Walla Walla, Wash.; J. Ivan Lusk, Central Point; Chester A. Lusk, Medford; Mrs. William Boehm, Redwood City, Calif.; Mrs. Earl Clough, Central Point; and Herbert W. Lusk, Palo Alto, Calif.; 19 grandchildren and 21 great grandchildren. A son, Burton, preceded him in death.

Honorary casket bearers will include Jake Brown, Frank Chamberlain and Henry Huber. Active pallbearers will include Paul Ford, Dave Kahl, Oscar Frie, Ed Chamberlain, Verne Mathews, and Wilbur Davies.

Quotes From the News

BY UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL
Moscow—Moscow Radio, stating that Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev has promised Russia would sign no separate peace treaty with East Germany without consulting its World War II allies.

"The Soviet Union keeps its promises. The peace treaty is a means to ease tensions, not to increase them."

Lebanon, Ohio—Red Alvis, former warden of Ohio Penitentiary and now first superintendent of a new prison for first offenders, denying that the ultra-modern prison with individual cells and soft music is laboratory.

"There is nothing elaborate about a toilet without a seat, sinks without plugs, and a window with bars."

Macao—Lau Sau, a 37-year-old fisherman who fled here from Red China by boat, explaining why he and others risked death to escape to freedom:

"We are quite reckless because we believe we are already sentenced to death by starvation and overwork. One way or another we are doomed to die, so we escape."

Philadelphia—Mrs. James C. Parker, of Grand Rapids, Mich., president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, calling on adults to set good examples for their children:

"If adults sit out their leisure at sitdown sports and twiddle the TV dial for twaddle, how can we expect the young to labor at arduous learning?"

ASKED FOR DIVORCE—Actress Vivien Leigh, shown leaving a New York theater where she is performing in "Duel of Angels," said that her actor-husband, Sir Laurence Olivier, has asked her for a divorce so that he can marry British Actress Joan Plowright. Miss Leigh said that she would "naturally do whatever he wishes." —(UPI Telephoto)

Quotes From the News

BY UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL
Moscow—Moscow Radio, stating that Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev has promised Russia would sign no separate peace treaty with East Germany without consulting its World War II allies.

"The Soviet Union keeps its promises. The peace treaty is a means to ease tensions, not to increase them."

Lebanon, Ohio—Red Alvis, former warden of Ohio Penitentiary and now first superintendent of a new prison for first offenders, denying that the ultra-modern prison with individual cells and soft music is laboratory.

"There is nothing elaborate about a toilet without a seat, sinks without plugs, and a window with bars."

Macao—Lau Sau, a 37-year-old fisherman who fled here from Red China by boat, explaining why he and others risked death to escape to freedom:

"We are quite reckless because we believe we are already sentenced to death by starvation and overwork. One way or another we are doomed to die, so we escape."

Philadelphia—Mrs. James C. Parker, of Grand Rapids, Mich., president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, calling on adults to set good examples for their children:

"If adults sit out their leisure at sitdown sports and twiddle the TV dial for twaddle, how can we expect the young to labor at arduous learning?"

Insurance Problems?

see the Insurance Specialists — at

Security Insurance & Realty

48 Hawthorne Ave. — Phone SP 3-7323

"INSURANCE IS SECURITY"

OBITUARIES

THOMAS G. BRADLEY
Thomas Garrison Bradley, 69, of 1108 Oakdale ave., Medford, died in a local hospital Sunday. Funeral arrangements will be announced by Perl Funeral home.

HARRY N. GLEIM
Harry N. Gleim died in the Veterans hospital in Portland, Sunday. Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Louella Gleim. Funeral arrangements will be announced by Perl Funeral home.

EDNA REED
Funeral services for Edna Reed, 71, of 180 Alida st., Ashland, who died Friday, will be held in Ashland Mortuary chapel, Fourth and C sts., Tuesday at 1:30 p. m., with the Rev. F. C. Neumann of the Free Methodist church officiating. Committal will be in Hawthorne Memorial Gardens, Grants Pass.

Mrs. Reed was born Dec. 6, 1888, in St. Paul, Ark. In November, 1909, in Dutton, Ark., she was married to Wiley H. Reed, who survives. She moved to Ashland from Grants Pass in 1957. Mrs. Reed was a member of the Free Methodist church. A son and daughter preceded her in death.

JAMES C. LUSK
Funeral services for James Calloway Lusk, 82, of Eagle Point, who died Friday, will be held in Conger-Morris Funeral home downtown chapel Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. The Rev. Joseph Munshaus of the Eagle Point Community church will officiate. The Eagle Point Grange will conduct services at the graveside in Siskiyou Memorial park.

Mr. Lusk was born in Corral county, Texas, July 17, 1877, moving to Eagle Point in 1930 from Lakeview. He was married May 8, 1901, at Cooks Landing, Wash., to Pearl Coulter, who survives. He was a member of the Eagle Point Community church.

Survivors besides his wife, include seven children, Harvey B. Lusk, Eugene, Ore.; L. Rex Lusk, Walla Walla, Wash.; J. Ivan Lusk, Central Point; Chester A. Lusk, Medford; Mrs. William Boehm, Redwood City, Calif.; Mrs. Earl Clough, Central Point; and Herbert W. Lusk, Palo Alto, Calif.; 19 grandchildren and 21 great grandchildren. A son, Burton, preceded him in death.

Honorary casket bearers will include Jake Brown, Frank Chamberlain and Henry Huber. Active pallbearers will include Paul Ford, Dave Kahl, Oscar Frie, Ed Chamberlain, Verne Mathews, and Wilbur Davies.

Quotes From the News

BY UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL
Moscow—Moscow Radio, stating that Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev has promised Russia would sign no separate peace treaty with East Germany without consulting its World War II allies.

"The Soviet Union keeps its promises. The peace treaty is a means to ease tensions, not to increase them."

Lebanon, Ohio—Red Alvis, former warden of Ohio Penitentiary and now first superintendent of a new prison for first offenders, denying that the ultra-modern prison with individual cells and soft music is laboratory.

"There is nothing elaborate about a toilet without a seat, sinks without plugs, and a window with bars."

Macao—Lau Sau, a 37-year-old fisherman who fled here from Red China by boat, explaining why he and others risked death to escape to freedom:

"We are quite reckless because we believe we are already sentenced to death by starvation and overwork. One way or another we are doomed to die, so we escape."

Philadelphia—Mrs. James C. Parker, of Grand Rapids, Mich., president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, calling on adults to set good examples for their children:

"If adults sit out their leisure at sitdown sports and twiddle the TV dial for twaddle, how can we expect the young to labor at arduous learning?"

Insurance Problems?

see the Insurance Specialists — at

Security Insurance & Realty

48 Hawthorne Ave. — Phone SP 3-7323

"INSURANCE IS SECURITY"

OBITUARIES

THOMAS G. BRADLEY
Thomas Garrison Bradley, 69, of 1108 Oakdale ave., Medford, died in a local hospital Sunday. Funeral arrangements will be announced by Perl Funeral home.

HARRY N. GLEIM
Harry N. Gleim died in the Veterans hospital in Portland, Sunday. Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Louella Gleim. Funeral arrangements will be announced by Perl Funeral home.

EDNA REED
Funeral services for Edna Reed, 71, of 180 Alida st., Ashland, who died Friday, will be held in Ashland Mortuary chapel, Fourth and C sts., Tuesday at 1:30 p. m., with the Rev. F. C. Neumann of the Free Methodist church officiating. Committal will be in Hawthorne Memorial Gardens, Grants Pass.

Mrs. Reed was born Dec. 6, 1888, in St. Paul, Ark. In November, 1909, in Dutton, Ark., she was married to Wiley H. Reed, who survives. She moved to Ashland from Grants Pass in 1957. Mrs. Reed was a member of the Free Methodist church. A son and daughter preceded her in death.

JAMES C. LUSK
Funeral services for James Calloway Lusk, 82, of Eagle Point, who died Friday, will be held in Conger-Morris Funeral home downtown chapel Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. The Rev. Joseph Munshaus of the Eagle Point Community church will officiate. The Eagle Point Grange will conduct services at the graveside in Siskiyou Memorial park.

Mr. Lusk was born in Corral county, Texas, July 17, 1877, moving to Eagle Point in 1930 from Lakeview. He was married May 8, 1901, at Cooks Landing, Wash., to Pearl Coulter, who survives. He was a member of the Eagle Point Community church.

Survivors besides his wife, include seven children, Harvey B. Lusk, Eugene, Ore.; L. Rex Lusk, Walla Walla, Wash.; J. Ivan Lusk, Central Point; Chester A. Lusk, Medford; Mrs. William Boehm, Redwood City, Calif.; Mrs. Earl Clough, Central Point; and Herbert W. Lusk, Palo Alto, Calif.; 19 grandchildren and 21 great grandchildren. A son, Burton, preceded him in death.

Honorary casket bearers will include Jake Brown, Frank Chamberlain and Henry Huber. Active pallbearers will include Paul Ford, Dave Kahl, Oscar Frie, Ed Chamberlain, Verne Mathews, and Wilbur Davies.

Quotes From the News

BY UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL
Moscow—Moscow Radio, stating that Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev has promised Russia would sign no separate peace treaty with East Germany without consulting its World War II allies.

"The Soviet Union keeps its promises. The peace treaty is a means to ease tensions, not to increase them."

Lebanon, Ohio—Red Alvis, former warden of Ohio Penitentiary and now first superintendent of a new prison for first offenders, denying that the ultra-modern prison with individual cells and soft music is laboratory.

"There is nothing elaborate about a toilet without a seat, sinks without plugs, and a window with bars."

Macao—Lau Sau, a 37-year-old fisherman who fled here from Red China by boat, explaining why he and others risked death to escape to freedom:

"We are quite reckless because we believe we are already sentenced to death by starvation and overwork. One way or another we are doomed to die, so we escape."

Philadelphia—Mrs. James C. Parker, of Grand Rapids, Mich., president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, calling on adults to set good examples for their children:

"If adults sit out their leisure at sitdown sports and twiddle the TV dial for twaddle, how can we expect the young to labor at arduous learning?"

Insurance Problems?

see the Insurance Specialists — at

Security Insurance & Realty

48 Hawthorne Ave. — Phone SP 3-7323

"INSURANCE IS SECURITY"

OBITUARIES

THOMAS G. BRADLEY
Thomas Garrison Bradley, 69, of 1108 Oakdale ave., Medford, died in a local hospital Sunday. Funeral arrangements will be announced by Perl Funeral home.

HARRY N. GLEIM
Harry N. Gleim died in the Veterans hospital in Portland, Sunday. Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Louella Gleim. Funeral arrangements will be announced by Perl Funeral home.

EDNA REED
Funeral services for Edna Reed, 71, of 180 Alida st., Ashland, who died Friday, will be held in Ashland Mortuary chapel, Fourth and C sts., Tuesday at 1:30 p. m., with the Rev. F. C. Neumann of the Free Methodist church officiating. Committal will be in Hawthorne Memorial Gardens, Grants Pass.

Mrs. Reed was born Dec. 6, 1888, in St. Paul, Ark. In November, 1909, in Dutton, Ark., she was married to Wiley H. Reed, who survives. She moved to Ashland from Grants Pass in 1957. Mrs. Reed was a member of the Free Methodist church. A son and daughter preceded her in death.

JAMES C. LUSK
Funeral services for James Calloway Lusk, 82, of Eagle Point, who died Friday, will be held in Conger-Morris Funeral home downtown chapel Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. The Rev. Joseph Munshaus of the Eagle Point Community church will officiate. The Eagle Point Grange will conduct services at the graveside in Siskiyou Memorial park.

Mr. Lusk was born in Corral county, Texas, July 17, 1877, moving to Eagle Point in 1930 from Lakeview. He was married May 8, 1901, at Cooks Landing, Wash., to Pearl Coulter, who survives. He was a member of the Eagle Point Community church.

Survivors besides his wife, include seven children, Harvey B. Lusk, Eugene, Ore.; L. Rex Lusk, Walla Walla, Wash.; J. Ivan Lusk, Central Point; Chester A. Lusk, Medford; Mrs. William Boehm, Redwood City, Calif.; Mrs. Earl Clough, Central Point; and Herbert W. Lusk, Palo Alto, Calif.; 19 grandchildren and 21 great grandchildren. A son, Burton, preceded him in death.

Honorary casket bearers will include Jake Brown, Frank Chamberlain and Henry Huber. Active pallbearers will include Paul Ford, Dave Kahl, Oscar Frie, Ed Chamberlain, Verne Mathews, and Wilbur Davies.

Quotes From the News

BY UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL
Moscow—Moscow Radio, stating that Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev has promised Russia would sign no separate peace treaty with East Germany without consulting its World War II allies.

"The Soviet Union keeps its promises. The peace treaty is a means to ease tensions, not to increase them."

Lebanon, Ohio—Red Alvis, former warden of Ohio Penitentiary and now first superintendent of a new prison for first offenders, denying that the ultra-modern prison with individual cells and soft music is laboratory.

"There is nothing elaborate about a toilet without a seat, sinks without plugs, and a window with bars."

Macao—Lau Sau, a 37-year-old fisherman who fled here from Red China by boat, explaining why he and others risked death to escape to freedom:

"We are quite reckless because we believe we are already sentenced to death by starvation and overwork. One way or another we are doomed to die, so we escape."

Philadelphia—Mrs. James C. Parker, of Grand Rapids, Mich., president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, calling on adults to set good examples for their children:

"If adults sit out their leisure at sitdown sports and twiddle the TV dial for twaddle, how can we expect the young to labor at arduous learning?"

Insurance Problems?

see the Insurance Specialists — at

Security Insurance & Realty

48 Hawthorne Ave. — Phone SP 3-7323

"INSURANCE IS SECURITY"

OBITUARIES

THOMAS G. BRADLEY
Thomas Garrison Bradley, 69, of 1108 Oakdale ave., Medford, died in a local hospital Sunday. Funeral arrangements will be announced by Perl Funeral home.

HARRY N. GLEIM
Harry N. Gleim died in the Veterans hospital in Portland, Sunday. Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Louella Gleim. Funeral arrangements will be announced by Perl Funeral home.

EDNA REED
Funeral services for Edna Reed, 71, of 180 Alida st., Ashland, who died Friday, will be held in Ashland Mortuary chapel, Fourth and C sts., Tuesday at 1:30 p. m., with the Rev. F. C. Neumann of the Free Methodist church officiating. Committal will be in Hawthorne Memorial Gardens, Grants Pass.

Mrs. Reed was born Dec. 6, 1888, in St. Paul, Ark. In November, 1909, in Dutton, Ark., she was married to Wiley H. Reed, who survives. She moved to Ashland from Grants Pass in 1957. Mrs. Reed was a member of the Free Methodist church. A son and daughter preceded her in death.

JAMES C. LUSK
Funeral services for James Calloway Lusk, 82, of Eagle Point, who died Friday, will be held in Conger-Morris Funeral home downtown chapel Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. The Rev. Joseph Munshaus of the Eagle Point Community church will officiate. The Eagle Point Grange will conduct services at the graveside in Siskiyou Memorial park.

Mr. Lusk was born in Corral county, Texas, July 17, 1877, moving to Eagle Point in 1930 from Lakeview. He was married May 8, 1901, at Cooks Landing, Wash., to Pearl Coulter, who survives. He was a member of the Eagle Point Community church.

Survivors besides his wife, include seven children, Harvey B. Lusk, Eugene, Ore.; L. Rex Lusk, Walla Walla, Wash.; J. Ivan Lusk, Central Point; Chester A. Lusk, Medford; Mrs. William Boehm, Redwood City, Calif.; Mrs. Earl Clough, Central Point; and Herbert W. Lusk, Palo Alto, Calif.; 19 grandchildren and 21 great grandchildren. A son, Burton, preceded him in death.

Honorary casket bearers will include Jake Brown, Frank Chamberlain and Henry Huber. Active pallbearers will include Paul Ford, Dave Kahl, Oscar Frie, Ed Chamberlain, Verne Mathews, and Wilbur Davies.

Quotes From the News

BY UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL
Moscow—Moscow Radio, stating that Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev has promised Russia would sign no separate peace treaty with East Germany without consulting its World War II allies.

"The Soviet Union keeps its promises. The peace treaty is a means to ease tensions, not to increase them."

Lebanon, Ohio—Red Alvis, former warden of Ohio Penitentiary and now first superintendent of a new prison for first offenders, denying that the ultra-modern prison with individual cells and soft music is laboratory.

"There is nothing elaborate about a toilet without a seat, sinks without plugs, and a window with bars."

Macao—Lau Sau, a 37-year-old fisherman who fled here from Red China by boat, explaining why he and others risked death to escape to freedom:

"We are quite reckless because we believe we are already sentenced to death by starvation and overwork. One way or another we are doomed to die, so we escape."

Philadelphia—Mrs. James C. Parker, of Grand Rapids, Mich., president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, calling on adults to set good examples for their children:

"If adults sit out their leisure at sitdown sports and twiddle the TV dial for twaddle, how can we expect the young to labor at arduous learning?"

Insurance Problems?

see the Insurance Specialists — at

Security Insurance & Realty

48 Hawthorne Ave. — Phone SP 3-7323

"INSURANCE IS SECURITY"

OBITUARIES

THOMAS G. BRADLEY
Thomas Garrison Bradley, 69, of 1108 Oakdale ave., Medford, died in a local hospital Sunday. Funeral arrangements will be announced by Perl Funeral home.

HARRY N. GLEIM
Harry N. Gleim died in the Veterans hospital in Portland, Sunday. Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Louella Gleim. Funeral arrangements will be announced by Perl Funeral home.

EDNA REED
Funeral services for Edna Reed, 71, of 180 Alida st., Ashland, who died Friday, will be held in Ashland Mortuary chapel, Fourth and C sts., Tuesday at 1:30 p. m., with the Rev. F. C. Neumann of the Free Methodist church officiating. Committal will be in Hawthorne Memorial Gardens, Grants Pass.

Mrs. Reed was born Dec. 6, 1888, in St. Paul, Ark. In November, 1909, in Dutton, Ark., she was married to Wiley H. Reed, who survives. She moved to Ashland from Grants Pass in 1957. Mrs. Reed was a member of the Free Methodist church. A son and daughter preceded her in death.

JAMES C. LUSK
Funeral services for James Calloway Lusk, 82, of Eagle Point, who died Friday, will be held in Conger-Morris Funeral home downtown chapel Tuesday at 1:30 p. m. The Rev. Joseph Munshaus of the Eagle Point Community church will officiate. The Eagle Point Grange will conduct services at the graveside in Siskiyou Memorial park.

Mr. Lusk was born in Corral county, Texas, July 17, 1877, moving to Eagle Point in 1930 from Lakeview. He was married May 8, 1901, at Cooks Landing, Wash., to Pearl Coulter, who survives. He was a member of the Eagle Point Community church.

Survivors besides his wife, include seven children, Harvey B. Lusk, Eugene, Ore.; L. Rex Lusk, Walla Walla, Wash.; J. Ivan Lusk, Central Point; Chester A. Lusk, Medford; Mrs. William Boehm, Redwood City, Calif.; Mrs. Earl Clough, Central Point; and Herbert W. Lusk, Palo Alto, Calif.; 19 grandchildren and 21 great grandchildren. A son, Burton, preceded him in death.

Honorary casket bearers